New Priest In Parish

REV. LEO CUMMINGS

The community welcomes Rev. Leo Cummings, newly assigned to Gate of Heaven Church, assisting Rev. Francis A. Kane, Pastor, and Rev. Michael Rafferty in the rapidly growing parish.

Recently graduated from St. Mary's in Roland Park, Md., Father Cummings was ordained May 23 by His excellency Bishop Jerome D. Hannan at St. Peter's in Scranton.

A native of Scranton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cummings, the new priest at Gate of Heaven had expected to take holy orders from his earliest childhood.

He attended St. Peter's Cathedral School, graduated from Scranton Catholic High School, and obtained his academic education at St. Charles College in Catonsville, Maryland.

Small boys in Gate of Heaven will be delighted to find that Father Cummings is an enthusiastic baseball fan.

Da-Camp Activities
The Back Mountain Branch YMCA has completed its first week of activities. Highlights of the week's program were a counselor hunt, team softball game, a tract meet, and a mock track meet.

Campers lose points for their team if clean up is not spotless after lunch or crafts. The losses amount to 15 points.

The second week's program will include a marathon, swim meet, hikes and regular game periods. In addition the campers plan a visit to the Dallas Post.

By week's end, the first camper periods will be completed. Next Monday begins the second period. There are a few openings still available. For further information please call the Back Mountain YMCA at 674 6901.

Mrs. Hannah Shields Rests At Mt. Zion
Mrs. Hannah S. Shields, 76, Hunt Creek, R. D. 2, who died Saturday evening in General Hospital was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon. Services were held from a Wyoming Funeral Home with Rev. James Garrahan officiating.

Mrs. Shields was born in Morrisdale, Pa. She had resided in Wyoming 30 years and in Harding for 14, moving to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Newberry, Pikes Creek, on the death of her husband, William J., four years ago. The couple had celebrated their 51st anniversary.

She is survived by the following children: Lester and Jesse, Buffalo; Wilbur, Tonawanda, N. Y.; Mrs. Charles McMillan, Niagara Falls; C. L. Whittinger, Lewiston, Idaho; Mrs. John Lagoda, Wyoming; Mrs. James Brennan, West Pittston; Thrin, Harding; Mrs. Clarence Newberry, Lehman. Also 2 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Barnes Dies
Word has been received from Mrs. Rosetta Kepner, former Back Mountain resident, who now lives in Fayetteville, Pa., of the death of her mother, Mrs. Barnes, who visited here during her daughter's residence.

Mrs. Barnes passed away on July 3 at the age of 92. She was the mother of ten children, seven of whom survive.

East Dallas Campground Is Scene Of The 90th New York Conference

Roberts Memorial Campground in East Dallas is the scene this year of the beginning of the Ninety-first New York Conference of the Free Methodist Church, which started yesterday.

The end of the 90th year of the New York Conference is a special occasion, and a committee has prepared a number of special features for it, including a collection of old pictures and documents.

Presiding will be Bishop Paul N. Ellis, Indianapolis, Ind., who will bring messages Wednesday night and Sunday morning.

Of special interest to Back Mountain people will be the Roberts Wesleyan College quartet, called the Heralds, who will sing tonight and tomorrow night, with extra concert at 3 this afternoon. Two members of the quartet have relatives in this area - Melvin Oliver, son of Conference superintendent.

Missionaries Here
Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Udyke, missionaries to Ghana, will be guest speakers Sunday evening at First Christian Church, Sweet Valley, at 7:30.

The Udykes will show slides of their work on the African continent. They will return soon to their station.

Month Old Baby Is Found Dead In Crib
Harry E. Gower, 3rd, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Gower, Jr., Bethel Hills, Sweet Valley, was found dead in his crib Saturday morning at 9.

The baby only a month old, apparently died from suffocation although no plastic sheets were on the bed. He had been fed at 7 a.m. and was in good health at that time.

He is survived by his parents, maternal grandmother, Mrs. Helen Sibert, Lillitz; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gower, Sr., Bethel Hills; great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James McMullen, Lillitz; John Gower, Bloomsburg; Mrs. Edna Harris, Wilkes-Barre.

Services were conducted Tuesday morning from Bronson Funeral Home, Sweet Valley, with Rev. Fred Hickok officiating.

Local Artists Attend Workshop In Maine
Ogunquit, Maine, long noted for its art colony, was the scene of a very special workshop during the week of June 19 to 27 arranged by J. Phillip Richards, professor of art at Wilkes College.

The workshop featured lectures, field trips, and studio work under the guidance of no less than 10 noted artists and art educators from all over the United States, most of whom have received world wide recognition for their artistic achievements.

Among those present were David Porter, N. Y., and East Hampton, whose original collages were warmly received in Italy where he had a showing at the Galleria L. Incontro; Ed Betts, professor of Architecture at University of Illinois, Jim Fitzgerald, whose demonstration product was a sparkling likeness of our own Phil Richards.

Another local face to appear on canvas was that of Att. Mitchell Jenkins, who posed for Harmon Neill as he demonstrated oil portraiture.

Among local participants attending the workshop were Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins and Mrs. Charles Mannear, both of Dallas.

In the informal atmosphere of Hillcrest Inn, artists and aspiring artists formed new friendships which bridged wide gaps in geographic location and artistic experience.

Revival Crusade At Harveys Lake
Revival Crusade continues at Emmanuel Assembly of God, Harveys Lake with services each evening at 7:30.

Former Lehman Boy Headed For Coast

Rev. Coral R. Ide, Beach Lake Free Methodist Church, son of former Lehman residents Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ide, will become principal administrator of the San Fernando Light and Life Christian Day School in Sylmar, California.

The school, organized three years ago, has an enrollment of 200, and classes from kindergarten through the sixth grade.

Rev. Ide, in addition to school administration duties, will serve as assistant pastor of Sylmar Free Methodist Church.

In Beach Lake, he has been active in community affairs, Cub Scouts, Little League Baseball.

His new duties begin August 1. With his wife Mavis and their five boys - Richard, Kevin, Douglas, Mendal, and Gary, he will move to the Los Angeles area late this month.

Evangelist Here
Rev. George Butrin
Evangelist George Butrin, also known as "Gypsy George" of Berwick, will be the guest speaker in the Revival Crusade being conducted at the Mooretown Assembly of God Church located at Routes 15 at 118 in Sweet Valley.

Services will be conducted nightly at 8 p.m., from July 16 to July 19.

Rev. Butrin served in the "Sea Bees" during World War II and in the Islands of the Pacific. He then attended and graduated from Eastern Bible Institute in Green Lane, Pa. During the past 15 yrs, he has pastored four Churches in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and for a number of years has been engaged in Revival Crusades on the Eastern Seaboard, and other parts of the U.S.

Evangelist Butrin presents a five minute sermon in each service known as "Gypsy George's Talks" on subjects of popular interest and are given prior to the main message. Among his topics are "Will the Hammer and Sickle of Russia ever replace the Stars and Stripes in America?" "Second Thoughts About Divorce" and "Hypocrites".

The Evangelist also presents Gospel songs accompanied by the electric Spanish guitar. The public is cordially invited to attend these services which are for all people of all Churches.

John Brynes Rites Wednesday Morning
Services for John Brynes, 57, Noxen, were held yesterday morning from Nulton Funeral Home with a Mass of Requiem at Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. Rev. Leo Cummings officiated.

Interment was in Orecht Cemetery, Noxen.

Mr. Brynes died Sunday morning in General Hospital after an illness of several months. He was born in Stowell, son of the late Philip and Mary Hope Brynes and had resided in Noxen for 25 years.

He is survived by a sister, Mary, Drexel Hill.

No Evening Service
There will be no Sunday evening service July 1, at Park Neighborhood Free Methodist Church so that members can attend the last service of the 90th annual New York conference at Dallas.
