Back Mountain 4-H Club News

Debby Rogers Annual Northeast District Demonstration Day was held last Wednesday at Northwest High School near Shickshinny. Judging began about 10:00 and continued into the afternoon, with the day ending in an awards ceremony. Demonstrations could be given on any facet of a 4-H project and be six to ten minutes in length. Two area 4-Hers, both members of the Cloverleaf Club, entered the competition. Debby Rogers gave a demonstration entitled "Linebreeding: Toward Better Dogs" and Pat Holdridge gave one on Conservation. Both won first places and so will go on to compete at State 4-H Days, August 10-11 at Penn State. A victory at the state level could lead to an invitation to give the demonstration at the National Club Congress in November.

The Dairy Club has been very active recently. It has held two meetings in the past two weeks, both attended by Mr. E. V. Chadwick of the County Extension office. The meetings were part of a judging class held every week at different farms. Members of the club hope to compete against other judging teams in the near future. At the last meeting Mr. Chadwick demonstrated how to clip and show a cow. The County Dairy Show was held last Saturday at Beach Haven, with the entire local club competing.

Many Area 4-Hers brought home awards from the show. The Cunningham family especially did itself proud. Jessie came home with three blue ribbons and a Showmanship and Fitting Award, while brother Will collected one blue and a Showmanship and Fitting award, and brother Frank copped two blues. Harriet Sands had the Grand Champion Cow of the show. She also won two blue ribbons and a Showmanship award. Donald Sweitzer and Connie Sue Rozelle each won a blue ribbon. Frank Miklai-chik won a red ribbon plus a Showmanship award, as did his brother Joe. George Smith won a white ribbon and a Showmanship award and Warren Sutter a red to round out the list of local winners. The County 4-H Fair was held in Beach Haven on Saturday, but more about that next week.

Eastern Star Auction Is Complete Sell-out, Saturday

An interested public folks atmosphere, good tasty refreshments, fair weather, capable auctioneers, support of many business men, and cooperation of many workers made the Eighth Annual Auction of the Dallas Chapter No. 396, Order of the Eastern Star a complete sellout of all food and merchandise.

The "old pro" auctioneers: Myron Baker, Bob Bachman, and Dr. Jordan kept the sale of new and used goods at a lively interesting pace as Woody Martin, Bill Rine-man, and Zib Smith modeled fur pieces and pushed baby carriages, lawn mowers, and carpet sweepers.

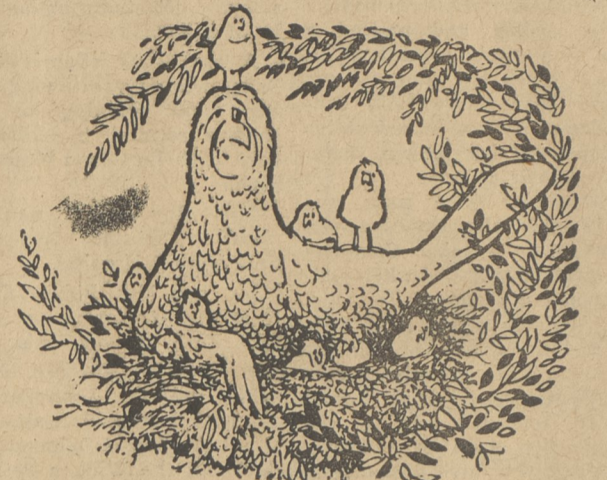

Oscar Dymond gained experience as an auctioneer when he got rid of the "black poodle."

The Star Clown, George Price, made quite a hit with the kids, young and old, as he distributed Lollypops to the crowd in full re-gala. As always—the highest prices were garnered from the sale of a Wedgewood pitcher, cut glass vases, blue and green glass vases, hand painted cake plates, butter crocks, churns, chest of drawers, and antique corn poppers, waffle irons, and chairs.

When the "drawings" took place at 9:30 p.m., the brazier was won by Jack Lasher of Dallas; the electric clock by Freda Snyder of Dallas; and the hand woven reed paper basket by Mrs. Genevieve Fiske of Harveys Lake.

The Dallas Chapter No. 396 OES is most grateful to the many generous donors, the buying public, the sincere press and radio, the personable auctioneers, and the many friends and cooperative workers who ably made this Eighth Annual Auction "An all time high!"
