Connie Bogdon Takes Honors At Delaware County Horse Show

Debby Rogers

Connie Bogdon of Dallas, a member of the Back Mountain Horse-shoe Club, won six firsts, one second, and four thirds at the Delaware County Charity Horse Show held at Delhi, N. Y., July 31 through August 2. She was named Hunter Seat Champion of the show, for which she received the Stamford Hospital Challenge Trophy, a large silver platter and punch bowl.

Three of Connie's firsts came in Junior Equitation classes—that is, in competition with young people aged 18 and under. These were Limit Horsemanship Hunter Seat, Open Horsemanship Hunter Seat, and the American Horse Show Association Medal Class Hunter Seat.

The first and second place winners of these classes along with two others were then put through individual trials by the judges to pick the Hunter Seat Champion of the show. Ten youngsters were entered in this competition, which Connie won. She also placed third in another junior class, the ASPCA Horsemanship Class.

All of Connie's other ribbons were earned in Open Class competition against adults.

She placed first in the Working Hunter Owner Riding, Hunter Hack, and one Green Working Hunter class, and second in Working Hunter Under Saddle, Thirds in Working Hunter Stakes, Green Working Hunter Stakes, and a second Green Working Hunter class rounded out the collection of ribbons Connie brought home from New York.

Connie is thirteen years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bogdon of Machel Avenue, Dallas. Having finished eighth grade at Gate of Heaven School, she will start Dallas Junior High in September.

She has been a member of her 4-H club for four years, and has been competing in horse shows for five years. Beginning with Pony Class (western style) she has worked her way up to her present level. The horse she now rides is her own Miss Muffin.

Connie's mother is the leader of the Horseshoe 4-H club and has encouraged her daughter's competitive bent. She now has a pleasant problem—what to do with a flood tide of trophies won in 4-H and general competition? Especially disturbing is the latest one, that huge one from the Delhi show already affectionately dubbed "The Monster." The problem won't solve itself soon, for Connie is currently looking forward to entering the 4-H Junior Achievement Show later this month and probably has even greater plans.

News of the clubs: The Cloverleaf Club sent two members to the recent County 4-H Show. Evelyn and Marvin Scott each won a blue ribbon, she for sheep and he for capons. The annual club picnic was held the 29th at Hanson's Amusement Park, and five members are now attending 4-H camp. The next club meeting is to be August 21st.

The Cooking Club met last Tuesday. The meeting was attended by Mrs. Janet Miller of the county extension office. The girls learned to barbecue franks and to make a relish tray. At the next meeting they will work on making the trays they will exhibit at the sectional round-up in Wilkes-Barre this month.

The East Dallas Home Economics Club held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Miller of the extension office attended that meeting also. The project of this club is sewing, with the first year group making skirts and the second year girls sewing shirts.

The Dairy Club will have its next meeting August 11 to prepare for the upcoming Junior Achievement Show. The Horseshoe Club is meeting Saturday for the same purpose. Both clubs are planning to attend the show en masse. Note—apology in order. Your reporter made a slip in the article on the County Horse Club Round-up. Completely unintentionally, the name of Anne Lacy was omitted from the list of local winners. She placed sixth in the Hunter Hack class. Very sorry, Anne!

Dates to Remember:
August 10-11 — State 4-H Days.
August 14-17 — Junior Achievement Show.

Dallas Students To Give Concert

Summer Band Program sponsored by Dallas School District will present an outdoor concert Thursday August 13 on Dallas Junior High Athletic Field at 7 p.m.

Program will include all students who have attended sessions for the past six weeks.

Approximately 275 boys and girls have taken instrumental and baton instruction, ranging from 4th to 12th grades, with 1st graders included in the twirler classes.

Full rehearsal for band members and baton twirlers will be held on Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 12. A bus will leave Westmoreland at 9 and return there at 12:15 for any students who are in need of transportation.

Baton instructors have been Jane Edwards, Wilkes College and Patricia Bonner from College Misericordia, assisted by Jane Harter, Carol Rosnick, Donna Smith and Reba Heidel, student instructors.

The entire program has been under the direction of Lester Lewis, Dallas Senior High School Band Instructor.

In case of rain, the program will be held in the gymnasium.

Tyler Hospital Plans Second Antique Show

Members of the Tyler Memorial Hospital Auxiliary are formulating plans for their second annual Antiques Show and Sale to be held for the benefit of the new hospital, now under construction, on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 6 and 7, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. at the Tunkhannock Methodist Church.

Fifteen prominent antique dealers from an extensive area are planning displays, and again there will be a booth featuring some special antiques donated by local residents. As a new feature of the show, an interesting coin collection will be exhibited.

General admission to the show will be seventy-five cents, and door prizes will be given at the conclusion of the show. Luncheon, tea and dinner will be served both days by members of the Auxiliary.

Chairmen of the various committees are as follows: General chairman, Mrs. Alvah Fassett; chairman of dealers, Mrs. William Moss; hospitality chairman, Mrs. John B. Farr; publicity co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert M. Turrell and Mrs. James H. Turrell; luncheon co-chairmen, Mrs. Harold Claypoole and Mrs. Margaret Dietrich; tea co-chairmen, Mrs. Dorothy Fritz and Lena Klein; dinner co-chairmen, Mrs. William Rumbold and Mrs. Glen Shoemaker; decorations, Mrs. Thomas Jacob; booth set-up, Mrs. John Morgan; Auxiliary booth co-chairmen, Mrs. John S. Rinehimer, Jr., and Mrs. Floyd Titman.

Bachman Made Vice President

Strickland Remains Head Of Ad Company

Jack L. Strickland has been re-named president and chairman of the board of directors of Harrington, Walker & Strickland, Inc., and Robert F. Bachman has been promoted to vice president. Both are residents of the Dallas area, and Bachman was production manager of "The Dallas Post" for a number of years.

Both Strickland and Bachman are Pennsylvania State University graduates and were employed by Ketchum, McLeod & Grove ad agency in Pittsburgh before affiliating with Harrington, Walker & Strickland. Strickland was also ad manager of the "State College Centre Daily Times" and business manager of "Milton Union Standard" and was a journalism instructor at Penn State.

Bachman served as advertising manager of the "Centre Daily Times" at one time and was an account executive with the Sykes Agency, Pittsburgh, and Lynn-Feldhouse, Wilkes-Barre. He was an advertising instructor at Wilkes College.

Bachman has served as chairman of the Back Mountain Library Auction and president of the Back Mountain Library. Both men are members of Irem Temple.

Lehman-Jackson Leads Undefeated As Miners Finish Regular Season

Back Mountain Minor League ended its regular season play last Saturday, August 1, with four games. Lehman-Jackson remains undefeated to lead the league, followed by Shavertown, with one loss, and two three-way ties for third and sixth places. Team standings at the end of the regular season are:

	W	L
Lehman-Jackson	7	0
Shavertown	6	1
Fernbrook	4	3
Trucksville	4	3
Dallas	4	3
Dallas Rotary	1	6
Westmoreland	1	6
Dallas Dairy	1	6

Results of last Saturday's games were: Fernbrook 5, Dallas Dairy 2; Dallas 14, Trucksville 4; Lehman-Jackson 8, Shavertown 3; and Dallas Rotary 10, Westmoreland 9.

In the first game Fernbrook took advantage of its scoring opportunities to take Dallas Dairy five to two. Kunkle, who came in from left field to pitch in the fourth inning for Fernbrook, also led his team offensive with two of the three hits made.

In the second game of the day Trucksville's pitchers had trouble finding the plate and Dallas scored a one-sided victory in five innings, 14 to 4. The game ended then by agreement because of time limitations.

The third game, between two previously unbeaten teams, resulted in Lehman-Jackson winning over Shavertown, 8 to 3. Cornell scored three of the Lehman-Jackson runs while Flock came through with two of the four Shavertown hits.

In the final game of the day Dallas Rotary posted its first win of the season by outlasting Westmoreland, 10 to 9, in a game in which the lead switched several times. For Westmoreland, Waycheck scored four times and Hopkins had three of the six hits. Dallas Rotary offense was spread with seven players figuring in the scoring.

Umpire behind the plate for all four games was "Peanut" Long.

Post season playoffs will start next Saturday, August 8, with the following four games listed: Lehman-Jackson vs. Fernbrook 9 a.m., Shavertown vs. Trucksville 10:45 a.m., Dallas vs. Westmoreland, 12:30 p.m., Dallas Rotary vs. Dallas Dairy 2:15 p.m. Winners will meet on Saturday, August 15, for the final games of the 1964 Minor League season.
