

Bowling News

By DORIS MALLIN

The holiday is over and it's time to get down to some real old-fashioned bowling. The "kids" are back in school and the long evenings are over, so come out to Crown Imperial and join in the fun. If you don't bowl, watch! There's fun for everyone!

St. Paul's Brotherhood rolled off for the second time with Charlie Nafus making a good show on top scores of 222 (563) and the Huskies taking team honors with 841 (2486). Kriedler, Weale, Morris, W. Dungey, Lewis, Saddington and Verfin topped over 500 pins each with Kriedler hitting 191 (537), Lewis 190 (506), Weale 189 (536), and Morris 188 (520). Huskies lead the league with 8 points.

It was a new beginning for the Imperialettes Friday as eight teams came back for another season. Gloria Charnitski was top scorer with 161 (465) for Mac Tosos and Helen Bonomo hit 180 (458) for Apex Auto Parts.

Other scores over 160 and 450 were posted by Doris Amos (456); Doris Nafus 171; Alice Miller 163.

Peter Hospodar led the scoring in the Crown Imperial Major League last week with 215 (606). Al Wendell hit a big 218 for Wesley's Gull. Dallas Shopping Center rolled 2672 total pins and Gosart's Appliances posted a 955.

Top scorers for the night were John Bolton 209 (580); Harold Kocher 202 - 208 (574); Bob Moore 564; Jack Trudnak (572); Gerald Harris 209 (572); Nick Stredny 211 (577); Weaver 205; Ide 201 and Molley 206; Andrasco 208; Roan 206; Wendell 218; Myers 202; Lamoreaux 201.

The Back Mountain Neighborhood League met Thursday with Al Ciccarelli taking honors, hitting 220-201 (613) for Disque Funeral Home. Arlie

Vanderhoof posted 223 (591) for Brothers 4 (a new sponsor this season).

Art Ransom hit 200 (589); R. Michael hit 200 (564); Rich Bonomo hit 222 (561); Dan Frederici 206; Cross 204 (569); Purvin 202; J. Bolton 220; Zukesky 215; T. Bonomo 200; Stredny 206.

Ladies Country League began the new season with Rose Novroski taking the star role on 169 - 209 (511) for Forty Fort Lumber. Anita Pascavage hit 168-168 (482).

Joe's Pizza featured Bernie Pape with 167-175 (485). Evelyn Roberts led Bocar with 188 (483) and Mary Dimmick had 166 (474). Helen Bonomo did her bit with 165-168 (471) for Bernie's and Vicky Harris had 189 (466). Others with singles in the 160's and over were M. McCarty, R. Bennett, J. Blight, E. Kamont, and M. Bellas.

TRAVELLERS

Dallas Engineers took 2 from Hurst with Dick Ide hitting 211-232 (593). Paul Kamont hit 213 and Jim Lohman had 200. The Engineers took 3 from O'Connell's with Andy Matte posting 216 (579). Hospodar scored 211; Kamont had 217. Crown Imperial Women took 2 from Phillips Sea Food with Libby Cyphers as top scorer. Libby rolled 198-183 (523). Rose Novroski hit 195 (508); Bernie Pape hit 198-167 (493); Evelyn Roberts rolled 189 (478) and Anita Pascavage had 162.

Everyone connected with the Bowling Lanes, employees and bowlers, extend their sympathy to Andy Matte. Andy lost his brother in an Automobile accident Friday morning.

Tech School To Offer Courses

Evening Sessions Tuesday, Thursday

Wyoming Valley Area Voc-Tech School will start new programs of training which will be conducted at the Dorrance and Penn Street School buildings.

A number of area industrial firms have requested these courses designed to upgrade their employees. The following Courses will be offered: automotive mechanics, cabinet making, machine shop practice, electrical construction which will include appliance repair, blueprint reading, shop mathematics, radio-t.v. servicing, upholstering, drafting, painting and decorating and paperhanging, technical writing, wearing textiles and supervisory training. These broad offerings will help fill the needs of business and industry.

Classes will meet two evenings each week for thirty weeks. Each meeting shall be for two and one-half hours from 7:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Classes will start September 22 and will continue each succeeding Tuesday and Thursday.

The program is available to any interested persons. Information can be secured by calling the Technical Institute.

Applications and registrations will be accepted at the school until the start of classes.

The cost for each course for trainees who are residents of the Technical School Jointure is $5.00. This registration fee is refundable if the trainee attends seventy-five per cent of the classes. A small nominal fee will be charged to non-resident students.

Lake Lehman PTA To Meet Monday

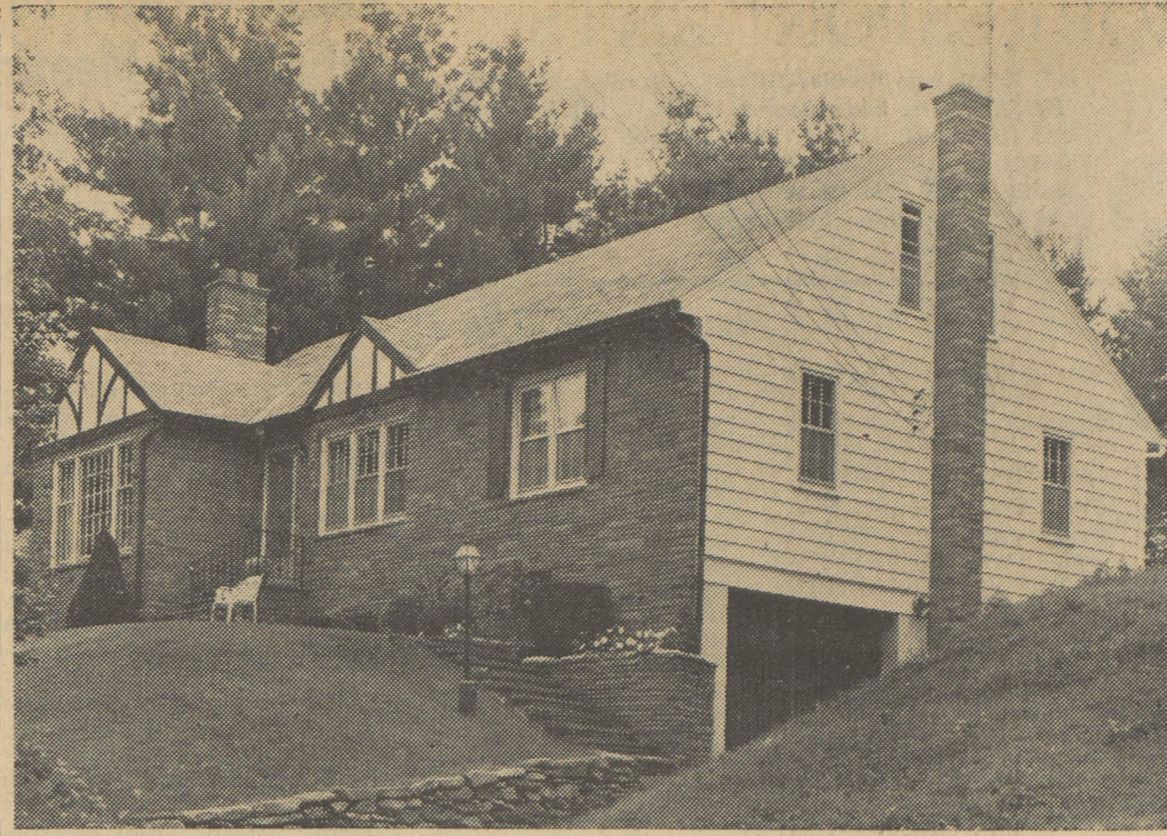

Lake-Lehman PTA will hold its first meeting of the season September 14 at 8 p.m., in the high school auditorium.

A panel discussion on the "Evaluation of Lake Lehman High School by the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges" will be conducted. Evaluation for the local high school is tentatively planned for early spring.

New members of the faculty will be introduced. Refreshments will be served.

Executive board meeting will be held at 7 p.m., prior to the PTA session.

Fabulous Glass Collection Featured At Trucksville Home

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Drochak, 119 Warden Avenue, Trucksville, will be open to the public on Sunday afternoon as one of the lovely residences to be displayed on the Second Annual Home Tour sponsored by Dallas Junior Woman's Club.

Erected on one of Trucksville's picturesque hilltops, the stone and wood structure houses many cherished antiques. Furnished in Victorian and Early American style, Mrs. Drochak has tastefully arranged its seven rooms.

A lover and collector of antique glass, Mrs. Drochak has filled it with unusual and priceless items, featuring Bisqueware, Tiffany, cranberry, Bristol and satin treasures. She will be present to brief interested spectators on their history and patterns.

Handsome oil paintings also add to the home's decor and well kept grounds add finesse to the well appointed dwelling. Several Revolutionary period fixtures will also delight the visitor. The Drochak home is one of six outstanding Back Mountain residences scheduled on this year's agenda.

Rep. Shupnik Attends Study In Harrisburg

Rep. Fred J. Shupnik, whose Sixth Legislative District includes a large part of the Back Mountain region, is in Harrisburg attending a meeting of the Joint State Government Commission Task Force on State Universities.

A candidate for reelection in the newly-created areas of the Fifth Legislative District which includes Kingston Township, Jackson Township, and Exeter Township, he was selected for a role with the State Universities study group which will plan legislation to establish two new State universities in the East and West sections of the Commonwealth.
