LUNCHEON and DINNER SERVED

Few now remember the original structure, built in the last century for the congregation of Sweet Valley Church of Christ. The more recent edifice appears at the right. Rev. William Hughes supplied engravings and material on the early history of the church, in advance of the home-coming service last Sunday.
During the four services on Sunday, attendance totaled over 600. Representatives from Churches of Christ in Wilkes-Barre, Bloomsburg, Derr, Williamsport, Roaring Brook Baptist, Binghamton, and Allentown, as well as from local churches gathered to do honor to the second oldest church in the Back Mountain. Huntsville Christian is the oldest.
Binghamton, Allentown and Wilkes-Barre churches were all offshoots from the Sweet Valley Church.
Martin Williams, now of Wilkes-Barre, is the oldest baptized member living; Mrs. Elsie Wesley, 93, the oldest member.
Mrs. E. J. Waterstripe, a former Bible School pupil of Mrs. Wesley's, presented her with a corsage. Mrs. Waterstripe now leads the Wesley Class.
Rev. Waterstripe, pastor emeritus, spoke briefly. The main address was delivered by Rev. Thomas Segroves.
Home-Coming Sunday at Sweet Valley Church of Christ brings back the historical significance of its founding and growth throughout more than a century.

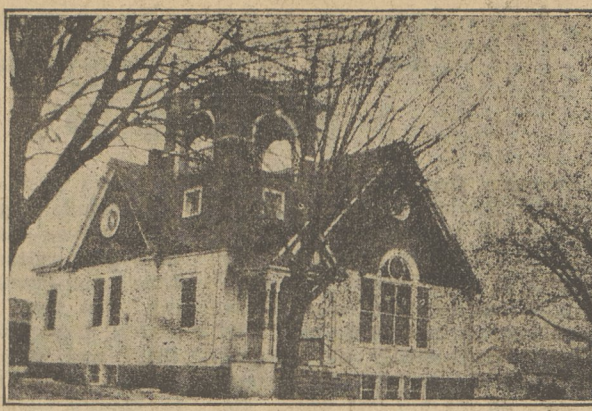

Sweet Valley Church Burns Mortgage
A mortgage which was supposed to run for fifteen years, but was in fact satisfied in seven, was burned with appropriate ceremonies Sunday morning at First Christian Church, Sweet Valley.
Touching the match to the mortgage is Mrs. Jesse Hann, widow of the trustee in whose tenure of office the addition to the church was planned, and the mortgage for a $16,000 building contract was placed.
Charles Long holds the mortgage, and Russell Lamoreaux and Renold Morris hold the tray between them.

Soup Supper, Sale, Monday At Huntsville
Monday, October 5th, Soup Supper and Sale at Huntsville Christian Church. Orders will be taken any time by Mrs. Gordon Wolverton, Mrs. J. Wendell Jones, Mrs. Emerson Cy Evans, Mrs. Wilbur Davis.
Serving will begin at 4. Members of the Christian Friendly Circle expect to sell out early, and definite plans have been made for another sale the first week in November. Kindly bring containers for take-out orders.

Life Resident Of Beaumont Dies
Raymond Denmon, 56, life-long resident of Beaumont, died Friday afternoon at General Hospital after an illness.
He was buried Monday afternoon from the Nulton Funeral Home, Rev. Lyle Peterson, pastor of Beaumont Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in Beaumont Cemetery.
He was son of the late Daniel and Roxy Wisley Denmon.
He is survived by his widow, the former Julia Hilbert of Beaumont; two sons: Kenneth, Beaumont, and Sherwood, Port Murray, N. J.; four grandchildren; six brothers: William, Kingston; Russell and Wayne, Beaumont; Augustus, Chester and Edward, Tunkhannock; a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Norbert, Hollywood, Fla.

Consideration is the keynote of service
All-encompassing is the consideration given here to every detail of a funeral service . . . for every faith. The provision of ample parking space for those arriving at the chapel by car. For 25 years, our aim has been to render the finest service to all . . . with financial hardship to none.

The Church of Christ in Sweet Valley may very possibly be older than its certified 103 years.
From ancient records the year 1861 stands out, but there seems reason to believe that meetings were held prior to that in a one room schoolhouse, small gatherings of a faithful few who had no minister, but who felt the need of prayer and song.
Certain it is that the first recognized minister was Isaac Merriott, dating from 1870. But records list a man named Frantz, no Christian name, before Merriott's time.
William Hornbaker's name bears the date of 1871; John Mc Clanklin 1876; Sylvester Fiske, 1884; J. P. Harris, 1885.
George Pope, 1887, D. W. Kinter, 1888; George P. Morse, 1891; C. A. Frick, 1894; H. L. Waltman, 1898; J. W. Bolton 1899; M. B. Wood, 1901.
George C. Leyter, 1905; W. H. Weisheit, 1910; G.P. Morse 1914; Thomas Burgan, 1917; M. C. Frick, 1919, and E. J. Waterstripe, 1929.
Rev. Waterstripe occupied the pulpit until retirement in 1952. He was succeeded by Rev. Donald Weldon, who left in 1955. Rev. Brinn was in Sweet Valley for two years, to be followed in 1958 by the incumbent, Rev. William Hughes.
A look at the list shows that two ministers named Frick were ministers in the church. The first, Charles A. Frick, was uncle of Rev. Charles Frick, formerly of Huntsville Christian Church, now Benton Christian Church.
Charles father, M. G. Frick preached in Sweet Valley for ten years, taking the pulpit in 1919, until the advent of Rev. Waterstripe.
Old records show a meeting of the congregation in March of 1862, when the congregation seems to have been going for some time. Michael Edwards, and Joseph Ed Edwards and Phillip Callender deacons Callender was church clerk, Sam Edwards treasurer.
A building committee was formed to build a structure in 1865. On it served P. Callender, S. A. Edwards, and Samuel Edwards. The house of worship erected at this time served the congregation for forty years, then as a social hall until it was torn down in 1941.
Records show a great revival beginning November 16, 1885, during the ministry of J. P. Harris.
A notation shows a minister as receiving $300 annually.
M. B. Wood was the first minister to occupy the parsonage to 1901.
Dedication of the present church edifice took place August 6, 1905. Brother Foster Fuller preached.
On the building committee were Rev. George C. Leyter, B. E. Wesley, C. Moss, J. P. Hontz, L. D. Williams, E. M. Allen, I. B. Hornbaker, and J. Kayl.
The present social hall, a concrete block structure 40x80 feet, was built in 1941.

Mrs. Tewksbury's Death Touches Many In Area

Will Lie In State Today At Carverton Church
Services for Adam H. Young are scheduled for 2 p.m. from the Carverton Methodist Church, where the body will lie in state before Rev. William Reid officiates for a man who had been a member for sixty years. He will be buried at Memorial Shrine.
Mr. Young, 87, died at his home in Trucksville Monday night, after an illness.
Born in Unityville, he was son of Jacob and Martha Young. He operated a farm in Carverton for forty-three years, moving to Trucksville sixteen years ago. For fourteen years he was employed by Egan Machine Shop, in Wyoming.
He was a church trustee at Carverton, and a member of the Men's Bible Class. For many years he was Sunday School treasurer.
His wife, the former Georgia Dailey, died in 1943. He lost a son Donald ten years ago.
He is survived by a daughter Marian, a teacher in Trucksville elementary school; a brother Benton of Benton; three sisters: Mrs. Sarah Baker and Mrs. Stella Fullmeyer, Unityville; Mrs. Hazel Whitmoyer, Hughesville; nieces and nephews.
Arrangements by Bronson.

Dallas Senior MYF Has Weekend At Sky Lake, Enjoys Recreation
By Nancy Crispell
On Saturday, September 12 the Dallas M. Y. F. went to Sky Lake, the Methodist Youth Camp at Windson, New York.
The group arrived at the West Shore area at eleven a.m. Here they ate and had a recreational period led by Dale Mosier and Mr. Donald Hopkins.
All of the boys enjoyed playing football while the girls played volleyball and badminton. Even though it was cold, a few brave souls dove into the water and enjoyed a refreshing swim while the others went boating.
At four the group journeyed over the East and prepared for the evening events planned by Miss Marcia Lawry and Miss Sally Moyer. This consisted of a worship service led by Mr. Donald Hopkins who spoke on "Facing Life" Following this everyone enjoyed square dancing and the campfire.
On Sunday they attended Sunday School led by Mr. Donald Weidner and a Communion service and installation of officers led by Rev. Robert Sheehan.
Newly installed officers of the Senior M. Y. F. are president Peggy Reese, vice-president Bruce Hopkins; secretary Linda Parry; treasurer Jean Fleming; and M. Y. Fund Art Miller.
M. Y. F. members attending were Joan Nelson Linda Parry, Shirley Brown, Cathy Clifford, Loreen Daring, Shirley Reese, Sandra Turner, Judy Blase, Nancy Crispell, Lucy Fleming, Susan Jones, Diane Hozempa, Carol Hozempa, Jean Fleming, Nancy Love, Beth Sheehan, Bonnie Brobst, Peppy Reese, Cathy Reese, Diane Reese, Linda Davies, Dian Davies, Suzanne Moen, Barbara Hopkins.
