

Junior Miss Pageant Is Scheduled For October 24

President Edward W. Corcoran, Shavertown, announced that the West Side Junior Chamber of Commerce will conduct their annual Junior Miss Pageant, Saturday, October 24 at Irem Temple, Wilkes-Barre.

Hugh B. Hughes Jr., chairman of the pageant, is hoping to have Senior girls from both Dallas High School and Lake-Lehman Area Joint Schools as contestants.

The Junior Miss Pageant's purpose is not a beauty contest, but its purpose is to choose the Outstanding Senior girl of Wyoming Valley.

Many awards will be presented to the winner including a partial scholarship. The girls will be judged on their particular, talent, scholastic achievement and personality.

Last year Beverly Eck, Lehigh Street, Shavertown was chosen as "Wyoming Valley's Junior Miss." Many other girls from Dallas High School competed.

Preliminaries will be held Saturday evening, October 3 at Forty Fort High School beginning at 7 p.m. All Senior girls who have a talent of any type are invited to be there where 15 finalists will be chosen for the Pageant at Irem Temple.

Any Senior girl interested, please contact Chairman Hugh B. Hughes, 17 Yeager Avenue, Forty Fort. Telephone 287-6040.

Gustav Kabeschats Attend MIT Seminar

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Kabeschat of Dallas, have returned from Cambridge, Mass., where they attended the 1964 M. I. T. Alumni Seminar.

The seminar included lectures, discussions, and panels, conducted by top scientists and engineers in the country. The theme of the seminar was, "The Nature of Man."

Dr. Harlow Shapley of Harvard, world renowned astronomer addressed the group on "Man Looks at the Infinite." Other lectures covered subjects such as "Man as a Living Organism," "Computers and the Study of the Brain," "Languages," and "The Science of Culture and Science and the Human Spirit."

A reception was held by President and Mrs. Julius A. Stratton, climaxing the stimulating three days.

Mr. Kabeschat is a graduate of M. I. T.'s School of Building Engineering and Construction.

Sandy Kabeschat went along on the trip to Massachusetts with Mother and Dad and had a delightful visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Botford and daughters, Emily and Elizabeth, at North Setuate. The Botsfords formerly lived at Birch Hill Lane.

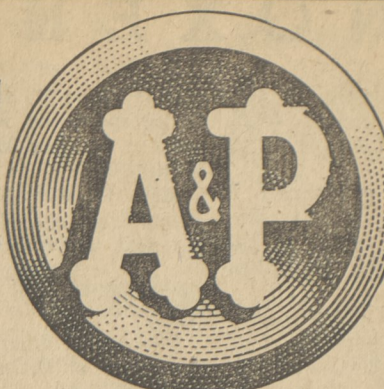

For Vocational Counsel

A representative of the state Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation, Victor Olaviano, will interview clients or prospective clients in the Dallas Borough Building, 8:30 until noon, every Monday morning.
