BOWLING NEWS

By now, we ought to have the final outcome of the World Series "hashed over" and should get back to some serious bowling. Nothing spectacular has happened in league bowling yet this season, but it's still early. Let's hope for a big 700 series or maybe another perfect game by one of the regulars.

Lake-Lehman Is Wyoming Victim

Lake-Lehman suffered a 32-14 setback Saturday at the hands of Wyoming before a "Parents Day" crowd on the losers' field that turned into a "field day" for Wyoming's Tom Sova, a converted back, who racked up three touchdowns.

Sova, brother of last year's star Joe Sova, formerly a lineman, moved into the backfield to give added punch to the Redskins' offense, tallied on runs of 38, 12 and 28 yards and lost another score when a 70 yard run was nullified by an infraction.

Lake-Lehman produced two scores in the final period against the Wyoming second stringers and won the battle of first down statistics, 14-13.

The Redskins took the opening kick-off and marched 68 yards for an early TD. Using Sova as the ball carrier for the most part, the Redskins reached the Knights' four where Parra, another hard running back, cracked over for the TD.

Sova Tallies again had possession, and on the second play Sova rumbled 38 on the second play Sova rumbled 38 yards to give the Redskins a 13-0 lead as Mury plunged for the PAT.

Wyoming scored again in the first period when Bob Alta, intercepted a Lake-Lehman pass and reached the Knights' 12.

On first down Sova again carried the ball into the endzone and a 19-0 lead.

Wyoming tallied another score late in the second period when Frith, Savitski and Truskowski rushed and blocked an Ellsworth punt with Frith recovering in the endzone for the touchdown.

Wyoming led 25-0 at halftime.

Run Nullified

Lake-Lehman's defense played a little better in the second half, limiting Wyoming to one score although the Redskins lost a TD, a 70 yard run by Sova, because of an illegal procedure.

Wyoming wrapped up its scoring on the third play of the final period with Sova again ripping off tackle, this time from the Knights' 28, for the score. Parra booted the PAT and a 32-0 lead.

With Pete Podwika clearing his bench, Lake-Lehman began to move the ball without much trouble and racked up two touchdowns with Dutil and McDermott registering them. McDermott also scored the PAT following both scores.

Lohman hit 201 (569) and Andy Matte chalked up 214 (565). Kamont had 201.

Adly Asphalt took 2 from Lipsi Lanes. Al Ciccarelli led the scoring with 202 (541).

Dallas-Exeter Meet Here Saturday; Lake-Lehman Goes To Edwardsville

Lettermen's Club Promotes Booster Game; Knights Test Surprising Eagles Team

Saturday afternoon football action this weekend finds Dallas Mountaineers hosting the Exeter Panthers in a Booster Day game sponsored by the Dallas Area Lettermen's Club.

Lake-Lehman, following three successive home contests, travels to Edwardsville to meet a surprisingly strong Eagles team who are making a strong bid for honors in the West Side Conference. Both are slated for a 2 p.m. start.

Dallas-Exeter

Making their second straight home start, Dallas will try to keep its WSC record intact when it meets Exeter, the last team to send the Mountaineers down to defeat in conference play.

Exeter comes into the contest with a dismal record compared to past seasons, the Panthers under new head coach Nick Volpetti opened the season by playing Edwardsville to a 6-6 tie but since then three straight losses have been handed Exeter. Forty Fort trounced them 31-0, then followed a 3-0 loss to West Wyoming, and last week Pittston handed them a 13-6 setback.

Although the Panthers have posed no serious threat to teams this season, a lot can be expected from them in the next couple of seasons since Volpetti has only four seniors on his squad, all linemen. Veterans on the team include linemen Ron Kolman, Bill Parulis a 240 lb. tackle, and Bob Pace. Experienced backs include Brian Abromavage and Bob Mariani, and Mike Vacula, a 170 lb. junior.

On the other side of the line, coach Eddie Brominski hopes to have his squad at full strength for this important contest. Three backfield men are hobbled with leg injuries, Chuck Stevens, Alan Herwig and Tony Bonomo.

With these men out of last week's lineup, the Mountaineers failed to put on any sustained drive against West Wyoming.

We give the nod to Dallas in this one. (The teams played a 6-6 tie last year.)

Lake-Lehman-Edwardsville In another important WSC contest, the surprise team in the conference, Edwardsville, meets Lake-Lehman on their field.

Edwardsville pulled an upset last week, turning back Forty Fort 20-7 to knock the Flyers out of contention, and put themselves right in the thick of things with a 3-1 record in WSC play.

Edwardsville, sparked by the all around play of back Mike Germak, opened the season against Exeter, and they battled to a 6-6 tie. Next was a 25-0 win over Northwest, followed by a 33-6 drubbing at the hands of Luzerne, but since they have rebounded with a 13-7 win over Wyoming and last week's upset win over Forty Fort.

Lake-Lehman with a record of 1 win and 3 losses will have to dig into its bag of tricks to pull an upset in this one.

Last year Lake-Lehman beat the Eagles 14-6.

James played first cornet in the prize-winning Lake-Lehman Band, under direction of John Miliauskas.

The Student Council dance scheduled for October 9 has been postponed until October 16. The Comets will play for dancing from seven to 9:30. Admission will be thirty-five cents.

The eighth grade football team opened the season by defeating Tunkhannock last Wednesday. The final score was 6 to 0. Touchdown was scored by Bill Martin.

Bette Cox, a seventh grade student, is presently in the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Cards would be greatly appreciated.

Dallas Mountaineers continued their drive for a third consecutive WSC championship Saturday by turning in a 25-0 win over West Wyoming before a large "wind-blown, frozen" crowd on the Dallas field.

Besten only by Plymouth in the season opener for its only loss in 24 games, Dallas has compiled a record of 17 wins, 0 losses and 3 ties (not including three wins over Luzerne) in West Side Conference play dating back to 1961.

Exeter, this week's opponent, was the last foe to dump Dallas, that being a 6-0 upset in a night contest.

Dallas, making its initial start at home, was unable to mount a sustained drive of any sort, but capitalized on West Wyoming mistakes (mainly behind an alert defense) to hang up four TD's, the most scored by Dallas in any one game this season.

Dallas scores came on a 75 yard run of a pass interception, 4 yards, 35 yards and 1 yard.

West Wyoming actually gave the Mountaineers a tougher battle than the score indicates, according to final statistics.

Gosart Goes 75 Yards With West Wyoming moving deep into Dallas territory late in the first period, Dallas's Fred Gosart picked off a Cowboy pass in the flat and pranced 75 yards downfield to give the Mountaineers a 6-0 lead that they never relinquished.

Early in the second period West Wyoming tried to move via the airplanes from deep in its own territory, only to have Sumner Bachman pick one off this time and race to the Cowboys' 4.

Two plays later, Mark Dymond slashed off tackle for the score. Again the PAT failed.

Dallas wrapped the game up in the third period by getting two more scores.

The first one was set up when guard Charlie Higgs recovered a fumble on the West Wyoming 35.

Quarterback Ed Baker capped this drive with a 13 yard dash on his famed "keeper play" around end. A few plays earlier he ran 20 yards for a TD, but it was nullified by a clipping penalty.

Dorrance then kicked the extra point (the first PAT of the season for Dallas) and Dallas led 19-0.

The final six-pointers of the afternoon came after in the period when Bob Redmond crashed through and blocked a fourth down Cowboy punt, Gosart recovering on the 1 yard stripe. On first down, Walt Prokophak cracked up the middle for the score. A run for the PAT failed.
