Rev. Gilbert Lauds Church Congregation

Rev. Charles Gilbert, Mt. Zion, who was a member of the Mt. Zion church choir which sang at rededication dinner of Center Moreland Methodist Church Saturday night, has this to say:
 "That occasion at Center Moreland was significant. That the church has been radically rebuilt on beautiful lines is well known to all the surrounding country. It is a sanctuary of worshipful colonial dignity, its entrance recalling old New England churches with its stately columns.
 "The people themselves have become a 'caring' congregation, caring enough to work hard. People who have watched the yearly auction grow from small beginnings to an amazingly successful event, have come to know and admire the diligence of the people.
 "Few ever recognize the many details of arrangement and dedicated service which go into a project of this nature. The community deserves praise and congratulations for completing the building . . . and paying for it."
