

SHAVERTOWN

AT THE MOMENT
The Halloween parade got off on schedule, the youngsters as usual were fine to look at in their varied array of costumes, and it was a pity that an earlier rainfall prevented some of the regular attendants from joining in festivities. An early dampness also settled over participants and onlookers alike and the large crowd dispersed early.

The original traffic light sign we discovered was made by Mrs. John Kritchen for her daughter, Patricia. Despite nine police officers on duty, some motorists reported motorists disregarding the line up of little ones, and two drivers were seen continuing right on down the highway. I wonder if these people have little ones of their own, or doesn't the life of a child mean that much to them?

The suggestion of Supervisor Dan Shaver at the supervisors meeting last week that the cruiser be parked on the highway on Sunday met with much approval. Nothing like the sight of a waiting patrol car to slow down the speedsters. Dan also reported plenty of fast drivers going through our community to back up the reports of those who live along the highway.

The suggestion of a flashing light on either side of the Overbrook overpass has been among those received to warn strangers they are approaching a busy community and appears to have much merit.

In Danville, where I have been pretty often of late, a flashing yellow light is also used during school crossing time.

Of concern to a number of mothers is the approaching darkness at the dismissal of Girl Scout meetings and just about the same hour as traffic is homebound in this area. It is rather dangerous for those who must cross to the East side of Shavertown.

HAZARDOUS HABIT
Yet another word of caution on highway safety. The children who wait for the school bus on Pioneer Avenue should remain on the edge of the roadside. There have been many worried motorists who have feared at their bulging out into one of the lanes before the school bus makes its appearance. If this practice is continued, some one of them or several could be seriously injured, for there are some pretty fast drivers traveling this route.

What a nice honor for Dennis Lockard. At eight years of age, he shows much promise as a grinder.

Wednesday evening was a busy one at the local churches with the big Roast Beef Supper at Shavertown Methodist and Rep. Daniel J. Flood speaking on "Christianity vs. Communism" at St. Paul's Lutheran.

Birgitta Viborg, the lovely little maid from Upsala, Sweden, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs. Evelyn Eck says she will certainly miss her for she was a most delightful guest.

BIRTHDAYS
Greetings this week to Blanche Atherholt, Mrs. William Butcher, Louneta Lorah, Joseph Nafus, Billy Corcovan, Mark Rogers, Thelma Rood, Esther Saxe, Billy Glahn, Ricky Harmon, Evelyn Frantz, Michael Olenick, Thomas Morgan, Mary P. Evans, Mildred Morgan and Mary Kloeber.

Doris Mae Hughey, Jimmy Gosart, Jean Wilson, Marcy Gerlach, Mrs. John Eck, Thomas Wright, Charles Bennellach, William J. Jones.

HERE AND THERE
Our congratulations to John and Marie Kritchen who celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary this week.

We were happy to hear that Roy Trexler successfully underwent surgery last Wednesday and returned to his home this week.

Mrs. Alwen Mortenson is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital and would appreciate hearing from her friends and neighbors. Our prayers are with you, Alwen.

Nancy Dungey and Mrs. Ruth Malkemes are planning a trip to Florida later this month. Ruth will spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Carol Hess and family at Eau Gallie and Nancy will visit sister Eileen at Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pierce left for Florida last week.

Wally Gosart Jr., was among the young hunters to take to the fields on Saturday.

Taking advantage of the nice weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daubert and family joined the Charles Mannars at Montrose.

Airman John Kritchen, also stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, was happy to meet up with neighbors, Bud Lamoreaux and Doug Nicol.

Mrs. Mildred Ralston returned home on Saturday after undergoing surgery at Geisinger Medical Center.

Mrs. Frederick Smith, Goshen, N. Y., has been spending several days with Mrs. Percy Hart following the recent passing of her father.

Helen Waidow returned from Nesbitt Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Faatz, Emmaus, Illinois, are expected to spend a week in this area during deer season.

Mrs. Dorothy Schooley returned home over the weekend after spending Halloween with her beloved granddaughters, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Williams at Lerayville.

Sally Ell was also enjoying Halloween with the grandchildren. I spotted her at the parade with Debbie and Janice Ell in tow, and Janet Crosson had her wee little daughter up on the judges' stand as she helped in the difficult task of selecting prize winners.

It was fun at Halloween time this year for four little cousins came out on Thursday evening for

Senior Play
The senior play, "The Stag Line," has been progressing rapidly under the direction of Mr. Hughes. The play will be held in two weeks (November 20) and Mr. Hughes seems to have a little more gray around the temples! Tickets for the play may be purchased from any member of the senior class or at the door.

"To be or not to be . . ."
The first meeting of the Dramatic Club was held last week under the direction of Mr. Hopkins. Plans were discussed for the activities of the club throughout the year.

"Hi" to the Dal-Hi
The student body received the first publication of the Dal-Hi last week. The paper was a great success and everyone is looking forward to more issues. A new feature of the Dal-Hi is the "Dear Flabby" column. If anyone has any questions they would like to ask Flabby, they should submit them in the box located in the office. Troubled? Spill your problems to "Dear Flabby."

"Ship-shape"
We are happy to announce that the Junior physicals have been completed and our Juniors are in great shape!

N.E.D.T.
The National Education Development Test will be given this Saturday, November 7, at the senior high school. Anyone who has not as yet applied for the test must do so tomorrow.

Perform for Hamburg
The Key Club Drill Team and Keyette Marching Units performed last Saturday evening in Hamburg. This was the last parade until next season. We want to congratulate all the members of our marching units for the great job they've done this year. Also, we hope the blisters heal soon.

Display cases
We have had two very interesting displays in the two display cases this month. The first, sponsored by the German department, dealt with the Berlin Wall. It showed several photographs and was very informative. The second, sponsored by the American History department, dealt with the National Election.

Misery is the Weekend after Report Cards!
Last Friday was D-Day. Our report cards were issued and our parents were angry! It's so hard to be a parent. I really got a kick out of making up our daughter and her fiancé who were going to a friend's home.

Susie made a charming little Chinese maid with black wig and the dainty kimono and slippers brought home by Fred Jr., from Formosa. Bill, who is already one of the family, put on a great show as a gay flapper of the 1920 period and was so well disguised that no one recognized him.

Dallas School District Menu November 2-6

Monday: Ravioli with meat, head lettuce with French dressing, bread and butter, fruit cup and milk.
Tuesday: Home-made chicken noodle soup with saltines, chopped ham sandwich, peanut butter cookie, and milk.
Wednesday: Salisbury steak, mashed potatoes, blue lake green beans, bread and butter, white cake with chocolate frosting, and milk.
Thursday: Roast chicken, buttered egg noodles, peas, bread and butter, pumpkin pie, and milk.
Friday: Tuna hoagie, potato chips, cherry pie with topping, and milk.
