Communism Is Now On The Wane

A large audience heard the Hon. Daniel J. Flood discuss Christianity vs. Communism at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening. Flood disclosed that the new order of World Communism was on the wane and would never flourish while the principles of Christianity were to be found in the universe. News media and television with its instant reporting from any part of the world has aided in spreading its ideology.

Russian Communism which embraces only 3,000,000 in its own vast country differs from that of Italy which has the largest Communist party in the world and China. Here the principles revolve around a strong nationalism and not the hard core ideology of Lenin, Marx and Stalin.

Flood pictured China, which he says is only a geographical area, as peopled with masses whose entire being revolves about family ties, hungry and reaching out for more room. The Russians watch with anxiety as they ring the Russian Steppes and hope for no repetition of history recorded invasions. He referred to the Chinese Communists as the bread basket type and said these do not keep him awake at night.

Russian Communism on the other hand he pictured as comprised of activists, able to reach everywhere with its chief premise, the destruction of Christianity. Their true label he continued is Atheistic Communists which they detest being called. They are stylized thinkers right down the line and are controlled emotionally. Not one ripple was heard in the country when Khrushchev their head of state was removed unceremoniously. This is dealing as it were with cattle and is certainly not following in the likeness of the Supreme Being.

Our virtues appear to the Communists as vices, it is in these virtues where they find weaknesses and attempt to probe. This is the tragedy which they do not know. Time is now on our side for communal living cannot work until Christianity is fully destroyed. Communism will never conquer the world.

Satellite countries with the exception of Bulgaria are only captive nations and would not aid in an invasion. Poland is one of the true reasons the Russians have not advanced to the Rhine.

A question as to whether the United States would support Russia against the yellow race brought the answer from the Congressman "Not necessarily. Witness how Russia was thrown out of the Africa-Asian Conference. She has no Allies for she has isolated herself."

Congressman Flood was introduced by Mrs. Roy Trexler, of the Lutheran Churchwomen of St. Paul's. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Frederic H. Eidam.

Dr. J. B. Cooper Dies At Home

Had Colorful Career Began Studies At 36

Dr. John B. Cooper, who made his home in Jackson Township for the past fifteen years and added a bit of color to that part of the Back Mountain, died Thursday night at his home, suddenly and quietly as he would have wished it.

The 87 year old dentist was a familiar sight as he strolled the country lanes with his pet Scottie, named Peter, stopping to chat with his neighbors who looked forward to the brief interludes with pleasure. The death of his pet three years ago left a void in the old gentleman's heart which was never filled, and he could not bear to replace his lost companion with another.

Well spoken and cultured, Dr. Cooper was a delight to know and his habit of hours of good reading was immediately evident on contact. He lived alone on his farm where he planted a garden each Spring, and where flowers grew abundantly under his loving care.

A rugged individualist, Dr. Cooper was among the first to adopt the new style of Bermuda shorts, and his little beret became an identification.

He had been in failing health for the past two years, but since the summer's end, he had been unable to take to the familiar lanes on foot as a respiratory ailment worsened and he relied on neighbors, particularly Mrs. Ambrose Salansky, to take him into town for supplies and a get-together with his old friends and associates in Nanticoke.

On his return, he accepted a job on the railroad, and at age 36 decided to go to school. He attended Wyoming Seminary for three years, Nanticoke High for another, going on to University of Pennsylvania, where early in 1920 he received his certification as a registered dentist. He maintained dental offices in Nanticoke until he retired in 1942.

Services were held Monday morning from a Nanticoke Funeral Home. Interment was in Edge Hill Cemetery, West Nanticoke.

Rev. Hughes To Go To Bloomsburg

Rev. William Hughes, pastor of Sweet Valley Church of Christ, has received a call to Bloomsburg Church of Christ, a larger church and congregation.
 Tentative plans are for Rev. Hughes to leave the first part of February, unless a replacement for him can be found sooner for the pastorate of a church which he has guided for the past six and one half years.

Good wishes of the community will accompany Rev. Hughes. Recently, the church observed its home-coming, an annual affair which brings back to Sweet Valley many former members and ministers.

Raymond J. Weber Rites Saturday

A former Beaumont native, Raymond Jacob Weber, Tunkhannock, R. D. 3, who died Wednesday at Wilkes-Barre Veterans Hospital, was laid to rest Saturday afternoon at Tunkhannock.

Mr. Weber a veteran of World War I, was the son of Eugene and Jane Louise Anderson Weber. He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Palmiter, nine children and 22 grandchildren.
