Bride Of U. S. Navy Man

MRS. JOSEPH P. BAGANSKI, JR.

At a lovely pre-holiday wedding, Miss Brenda Marion Clause, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Clause, 115 N. Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown, became the bride of Joseph P. Baganski, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baganski, Sr., 26 Fern Street, Hudson, in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, on Saturday afternoon, December 19 at 3.

Rev. Frederic H. Eidam performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of white gladioli and pompons. Ralph Macaravage, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Clayton Stetson, who also played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned with a scalloped, scoop neckline of peau de angele lace dotted with seed pearls, long tapered sleeves and princess line front. Her modified bell skirt was trimmed with garlands of lace throughout and the full back cascaded into a chapel train. Her veil of imported French illusion fell from a scalloped pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and pompons.

Miss Barbara Baganski, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and selected a long gown of battle green velvet styled with a bateau neckline, fitted bodice accented by a pleated satin cummerbund and side olec bow with a modified bell skirt. She wore a matching scalp crown with a circular veil. Her cascade bouquet was of red and Mamie Eisenhower carnations.

Mrs. Wayne Schmolz was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Flora Sue Anderson and Joan Hand and Mrs. Robert Berquist. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor and carried bouquets of red carnations and white pompons. They all wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bride.

Little Susan Pierson, flower girl, was charming in a floor length gown made with scoop neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt fashioned with a large satin bow at the back. She wore a matching headband and carried a basket of red carnations and white pompons.

Best man was Joseph Salus and ushers were William Wheeler, Edward Sorbelli, Robert Berquist and Frank Kasmerowicz. Jay C. Hill was ringbearer.

The mother of the bride selected a blue lace sheath with cranberry

Pikes Creek Couple Are Wed 64 Years On New Year's Day

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Carkeek, R.F.D. Hunlocks Creek, will celebrate their 64th wedding anniversary on New Year's Day.

The former Alice Hazlett, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hazlett, Bloomingdale, and Mr. Carkeek, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Carkeek, also of Bloomingdale, were married in the parsonage of Dallas Methodist Church by the late Rev. Fred Young.

The couple had dinner at the old Raub Hotel in Dallas before returning home, making the trip by horse and sleigh, an all day event six decades ago.

They lived in Bloomingdale for a time, moving to Naticoke in 1920. Mr. Carkeek was employed at Susquehanna Colliery for many years. The couple then moved to their present home with Mr. Carkeek operating his own restaurant, Welcome Inn, at Sweet Valley. In 1940 he was thrown into a hay mower drawn by his team of mules and suffered two broken legs which hospitalized him for some time, leaving him unable to continue stant source of entertainment for working. His radio has been a com-him since that time and he never misses a Sunday morning worship broadcast.

Mrs. Carkeek, once a talented craftsman, suffered a stroke two years ago and, is also incapacitated. The couple are the parents of three children, Mrs. Ernest Eve, Hamilton, Ohio; Mrs. Arthur Hontz, Shavertown, and William, Lucasville, Ohio. There are also eight grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren.

No celebration is planned due to the health of the couple but they would appreciate receiving cards from their friends.

A Very Happy Anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Carkeek.
