LEHMAN

The flower arrangements in the Methodist Church are in memory of Juan Ferre, given by his wife Louise, Mrs. H. A. Brown's daughter.

Alfred Martin Jr. was baptized in the Methodist Church Sunday morning by Rev. Winfield L. Kelly. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Martin.

Deborah Sue Lansberry was also baptized in the Methodist Church Sunday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lansberry and their first child. They make their home on the Ellen Major farm, with Agnes and aunt Sarah. Present at the Baptism was the child's two grandmothers, Mrs. Agnes Lansberry and Mrs. Mildred Weidner and great grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Higgins. They all had a dinner at the Ellen Major's, who is also a great grandmother, but was unable to go to the church on account of her health.

James Daniel, Ashley, called to see Mrs. Nettie Reabuck over the holidays. Mrs. Reabuck is on the sick list. You may write in care of Aaron Sutton, R. D. 4 Dallas. She would like to thank all her friends for sending so many beautiful get-well cards and Christmas cards. Mrs. Reabuck is Mrs. Lancelotte Sutton's mother.

Members of Dallas Union W.C.T.U. visited Veteran's Hospital Tuesday and presented many Veterans with Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Morton Connelly drove a car full of members: Mrs. Lillian Hildebrand, Mrs. Fred Spaulding, Mrs. Arthur Hoover, Mrs. Jane Koehler and Carolann Lamoreaux.

We all went to help cheer the Veterans, but they were all so kind and courteous to us all even the hospital staff, they gave us more than we gave them.

We saw many Veterans making scarfs and skating caps. One Veteran an finished one he was making and gave it to Carolann, who was pleased with it. She said the girls at college wear them.

We also took along bed booties and lap robes made by our Dallas Union W.C.T.U., some bibs and bed bags, made by the Dorranconet Union and lap robes, scrub book and cushion made by the Sweet Valley W.C.T.U. Union. They were glad to get these donations.

Happy birthday to: Roy Squier, Beulah M. Miller, Mabel Major, Edward Clivik Jr., Cynthia Louise Disque, and Robert Cutting.

I would like to thank all those who helped me this past year with the Lehman news, and hope more folks who like to read it will help me this coming year. Happy New Year to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoover are entertaining their son Gerald, and family, from Wilmington Delaware and Jule's sister from Philadelphia.

Fred Davis, Summit Street, is still convalescing at his home after suffering from four broken toes when he was injured at work on October 28.

John Gosart, 113 E. Overbrook Avenue, returned home on Saturday after being a patient in Veterans Hospital for 10 days.

Ron Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moss, Demunds, is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents on leave from Columbia Bible College, South Carolina. On Sunday night he will conduct the evening service in the Glenview P.M. Church.

Little Nicky Susaraba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Susaraba, Demunds Road, returned home from a week's stay in Nesbitt Hospital. Another son, Timmy, 3 years old, also was a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where he underwent tests. He returned home on Sunday.

Almost every home in the Fernbrook area is arrayed with some type of Christmas decorations and lights. May I at this time wish all who have helped me throughout this past year with this column a Very Merry Christmas and the Happiest of New Year possible.
