

Osage Lodge No. 712, Lehman, Awards 40 Year Pin To John Rebenack

On December 16, Osage Lodge 712, I.O.O.F., Lehman, honored John Rebenack of Meeker when he was presented with a 40 year membership jewel.

Mr. Rebenack who operates a successful fruit and berry farm is a Past Noble Grand of Osage Lodge and is active in the organization and phases of community life. Past Noble Grand Lester Squier

Disque, T. Emerson Evans.

Following the meeting, a social hour followed and plans were made for the annual auction which will be held in the spring.

Osage Lodge of Lehman was organized on May 17, 1870 and is nearing its hundredth anniversary date. The organization boasts 65 members.

Clyde McMurtrie's Funeral Tomorrow

Services for Clyde McMurtrie, Ceasetown, will be held Friday at 11 from the Bronson Funeral Home, with burial in Ceasetown Cemetery. Friends may call Thursday evening.

Mr. McMurtrie, 56, was found dead Monday evening, by a neighbor who was disturbed by the absence of lights in the house. Coroner Dr. Lewis Thomas said death was due to natural causes, and had probably occurred Sunday night.

For twenty-five years, Mr. McMurtrie had lived at Ceasetown. He had served a hitch in the Navy during peacetime.

Five years ago he retired from active work. He had been employed by Susquehanna Coal Co. and American Car and Foundry.

Native of Forty Fort, his parents were the late James and Fannie Mitchell McMurtrie Raup.

He leaves an aunt, Mrs. Etta McGraw, Beach Haven.

Jots From Dot In The Congo

Dorothy Gilbert continues her fascinating tales of life in the troubled Congo, where kittens are a major event, and rebels are hundreds of miles away. Here is Dot... and we all wish she were out of the Congo:

WHEN AN AFRICAN DREAMS!

Gazala our O. S. graduate who stayed here to work says he dreamed one night that you all came to visit me and he came up and we all sang and prayed until midnight! I am giving him driving lessons. What a job! Not that he isn't doing well, it's just what a job, that's all! I'd like to be able to send him out sometimes to surrounding villages for Public Health work without me.

THAT TRIP —

I had very few stops on my trips, at most check points I was waved on through, but did have to open my suitcase once, the first time I ever had to. Usually they only search Congolese. It happened I had in there my box of slides so I pulled out one of Pres. Kasavubu which charmed the soldiers no end (they were the Provincial ones, maybe the National ones wouldn't be all that happy) I tried out my Lingala on the soldiers and passed out little books of Bible verses, which pleased them. Police and soldiers often stop a mission car not to check it but to ask for books to read, so it's nice to carry a bunch of tracts in Kikongo and/or Lingala. On the way back we all had to open suitcases at the one big bridge which is the place most closely guarded (very wisely!) but the guards were very polite and careful not to touch a thing themselves but had me do the opening. Needless to say they found no guns, bombs, grenades nor bows and arrows!

SAFE!

We just got word that our 5 men are all safe and sound in Elizabethville... The Army has retaken that area, but it will be a long time before there is any real peace.

THERE IS A REAL NEED

The point is, we have no regular appropriation from our Board or any other, only the original capital grant. We hope our Board will soon come through with something. I submitted a budget for Public Health months ago.

AND AGAIN —

I have been meaning to ask you to publish in JOTS an appeal for lots of quilt blocks cut in penny postcard size. The patients are always begging for them, especially the men in Orthopedics. It gives them something to do to while away the weeks they are laid up, and gives them a blanket to take home. For some of the refugees it may be the only cover they have at all.

HOME GROWN PEANUTS!

We have had enough rain to bring the peanuts above ground already. A little girl, my houseboy's sister, came and planted a patch to earn some money. About Jan. I should have my own home grown peanut butter — how about that!

COME KITTY, KITTY, KITTY!

The cat had 5 kittens Sat. night, all coal black just like mama and papa. I had her favorite drawer all fixed and then she went and had them while I was out — on my bed!
