YMCA NEWS

Eighteen adults are registered in the two ski classes being offered by the Back Mountain Branch YMCA at the new Harvey's Lake Ski Slope. Two more classes will be offered on Saturday afternoon — one for adults and one for children. The current classes meet on Saturday morning from 10:00-12:00 for three sessions.

Ten boys attended the Junior High Splash Party at the Central YMCA from the Back Mountain YMCA on Friday, January 15. The swims are held every first and third Friday from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. The Girls' Gymnastics Class directed by Bill Baker, program assistant, had an exciting morning of exercises, relays and games, on Saturday, January 16. Later, in the program, the girls made clothes for Barbie Dolls, directed by Mrs. Richard Sheldon. All grade school girls are invited to join this class every Saturday morning at 10:00. For information about any of these programs, please call the Back Mountain YMCA at 674-6901.

The Archery Class now has a total registration of 14 boys, which is the maximum. Another class will be started if there is sufficient interest. The class meets every Thursday, 5-6 p.m. George Slinzer, State Archery Champion, is the instructor.

A state meet will be held at the Lanester YMCA in the early spring. A team will be picked to represent the Back Mt. YMCA.

The Retired Men's Club had 14 members attending its weekly meeting, at the Back Mt. YMCA on Wednesday, January 13. Lee Updyke, newly installed president, issues a cordial invitation to any retired men in the area to join.

The group meets every Wednesday at noon, for fellowship and games. For further information, please call the Back Mt. YMCA at 674-6901 or Mr. Updyke.

Back Mountain YMCA Begins Basketball Games This Week

Action in the first game on Thursday, saw the Badgers run roughshod over the Wolves by a score of 80-21. Ed Rome went wild in the second quarter for 20 points. This proved to be the margin of victory, because the Wolves fell apart during the second quarter.

For the Wolves, no one could do anything — not even Russ Monte, their big man, who was held to 6 points. Scott Lefko played a good game, chipping in with 5 points.

In the final game of the night, the Sooners won a close one from the Kingsmen, 49-42. Kingsmen held the lead until the last 30 seconds, and Bob Griffith made a crucial basket to break a 42-42 tie. A substitute — Donald Dennis, had 12 points, high man for the winners.

For the losers, Jim Balavage and Kit Karuza were high scorers — with 12 and 14 points respectively. Ken Youngblood played a good game, both offense and defense — stealing the ball a number of times, and scoring 6 points.

Rockets Blast Mountaineers; Dallas Boys Suffer First Loss

Ashley - Sugar Notch handed the Dallas Mountaineers their first defeat in the North League Friday evening at the local gym, 78-60. Troiani and Gibloski put on an amazing exhibition of shooting for the Rockets. They accounted for 67 points, hitting 27 goals in 54 shots while the Dallas team could not seem to put the ball in the basket, scoring on only 23 of 87 rather close shots.

Dallas seemed to be affected by the cold wave warning, losing the ball 27 times on faulty passes and other miscues as compared to 3 mistakes in the previous game at West Wyoming.

Only sophomore Roy Supulski was able to keep Dallas on even terms with the Rockets throughout the
