Consideration is the keynote of service

All-encompassing is the consideration given here to every detail of a funeral service . . . for every faith. The provision of ample parking space for those arriving at the chapel by car. For 25 years, our aim has been to render the finest service to all . . . with financial hardship to none.

Missionary To Speak

Miss Sallie Higgins will speak at Glenview Primitive Methodist Church in Fernbrook, Sunday morning and evening. In the evening service she will show colored slides of her work in Tanganyika, now known as Tanzania. Miss Higgins has been working in Tanzania for twenty-seven years under the Africa Inland Mission, founded by a young man, Peter Cameron Scott, in 1895. Since that time, both the Mission and the established church in Africa has grown.
Miss Higgins work is primarily medical. Her most recent assignment was on Ukerewe Island in Lake Victoria. This is one of the larger of the 100 inhabited islands in Lake Victoria, the second largest lake in the world, and 3,726 feet above sea level.
Ukerewe thirty miles long and fifteen miles wide, roughly the shape of a crescent, and has a population of approximately 70,000.
The Mission Station has primary school, a Christian Training Center for young men, a well established church, and a medical outclinic and Maternity Center.
Miss Higgins has carried the responsibility of the out-patient dispensary and maternity center for ten years, assisted by three African young men and two African girls.
One of the men, is trained at the main medical center. Running the out-patient dispensary in Miss Higgins' absence.
The two African girls assisting in the maternity work, are only sixteen and nineteen years of age. They were trained by Miss Higgins, who is a certified mid-wife.
Miss Higgins is planning to return to her work in Tanzania in the early spring. While on furlough, Miss Higgins makes her home with her brother, Samuel V. Higgins, and his family, on Martz Farm Road.

A Religion for Today's World

In the language of our time
To the people of our time
Concerning problems of our time

To Unitarians, all doctrine and belief must stand the test of enlightened reason: While not discarding the tested truths of tradition, it keeps abreast of modern knowledge.

Pushing aside the veils of creed and dogma, Unitarians enlist the support of education and science that man may better understand and cooperate with his fellow man.
