

Record Prices Paid For Champions At Pennsylvania Farm Show

The 1965 Pennsylvania Farm Show came to a record-shattering climax today as prices for champion 4-H animals soared to all-time highs.

Focal point of attention, of course, was the 1055-pound champion 4-H baby beef of 17-year-old Richard Rishel of York that was sold for $5.30 a pound. The price was 10 cents higher than the previous record of $5.12 a pound paid last year for a 965-pound Angus that had won the championship for Rishel's brother, William Rishel.

The 4-H champion lamb, a 120-pound Hampshire shown by Ted Hess, of Leola, RD 1, Lancaster County, was sold for $6.00 a pound, exactly $2.00 a pound more than was paid for the 1964 champion.

The show, termed "one of the Agriculture Secretary Leland H. Bull closed at 6 p.m. Friday with a last-day attendance estimated at 45,000. It brought the week's total estimated attendance to 610,000.

This year's champion steer, an Angus appropriately named "Bonanza," proved to be just that for Dick Rishel, youngest of the three Rishel brothers who have dominated the steer championship at the Farm Show for four years. It brought young Rishel a total of $5,591.50 and will be used, he said, for his education. Dick, a senior at Central High School of York, has applied for admission to Penn State where he hoped to study agriculture.

It took precisely 11 minutes and 55 seconds from the time he led his champion into the ring until A. W. Diefenbach, Lancaster auctioneer, shouted the traditional "sold." The bidding started at $3.00 and moved to $4.00 when Mrs. Mary Scranton, wife of Governor William W. Scranton, stepped into the ring as she had done a year earlier. She joked with the crowd as she led the animal around and the bidding pace picked up.

From $5.00, the bidding became a contest between W. R. "Bill" Geise, bidding for the Howard Johnson Co., and Daniel "Danny" George, of George's Foodliner, Bethlehem. The final bid of $5.30 a pound, was put in by the Howard Johnson Co. to make this the eleventh consecutive year the organization has purchased the Farm Show's champion steer.

The champion 4-H lamb was purchased by Boyd Kline, Bloomsburg contractor, who said it will be given to hospitals in Bloomsburg and Berwick.

Other sales Friday were: Champion carcass lamb, a Cheviot weighing 61 pounds, was sold for $1.85 a pound to Harry Allinkoff and Sons, Wilkes-Barre. It was shown by Erdenheim Farm Co., of Lafayette Hill, Montgomery County. Reserve champion lamb, a 135-pound Hampshire, shown by Fred Hess, Leola, RD 1, Lancaster County, $1.25 a pound.

Reserve champion carcass, a 49-pound Southdown, shown by William L. Henning, former state agriculture secretary, of State College, for 75 cents a pound.

Champion pen of three lambs, Shropshires shown by Fred Hess, Leola, RD 1, $1.12 a pound. Champion Shorthorn, shown by John Welk, Strasburg, RD 1, Lancaster County, for 53 cents a pound. It weighed 935 pounds.

A total of 147-4-H baby beeves were sold at auction. The average price was $36.58 a hundred weight for all, and $32.46 per cwt., without the grand and reserve champions.

Forty-seven 4-H lambs were sold at an average price of $66.08 per cwt., or $32.70 without the champion.

To Celebrate Birthday

CARL F. DAUBERT

Carl F. Daubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daubert, Parrish Street, Dallas, will observe his 21st birthday, February 15, aboard the USS Vernon County stationed with the Navy somewhere in the Pacific. This is the second birthday he has had away from home. "Kookie," as he is better known, hopes to complete his two year active stint this fall. His family and friends are all anxiously awaiting his homecoming and send hearty birthday greetings.

Kookie sent this poem home and asked that it be put in the paper. He has tried his hand at poetry before, but feels this is his best effort to date.

HITCH IN HELL

It was just across the Pacific Ocean Vernon County was the spot We were doomed to do our time On the ship that God forgot.

Down with the sharks and gooney birds

Down where men lose their minds, Some of the men go crazy Thinking of what they left behind.

Right in the middle of nowhere Thousands of miles from home, Across the wide Pacific Where there's no place to roam.

We swear, we work, we starve It's more than we can stand We're not supposed to be convicts, Just Defenders of our Land.

We are swabbies of the Navy Just living for our pay Guarding people with millions For just $5.28 a day.

Living with fond memories And waiting for our gals And hoping while we're away They don't marry our pals.

Nobody knows we are living And nobody gives a damn So home best be forgotten For we are Uncle Sam's.

The time we spend on this ship The time of our lives we miss Try not to let them draft you And for God's sake don't enlist.

But when we pass through the Pearly Gates You will hear Saint Peter yell "Fall in you men of the Vernon County You've served your hitch in Hell.
