

SHAVERTOWN

Folks will just have to drive more carefully in and out of the shopping centers. Another accident there Saturday night involved three vehicles. Some special way of entry and exit should definitely be considered and a matter of seconds lost may well save lives since no guard is assigned there during the busy hours. This used to be procedure some time ago and was welcomed. Many customers visit this area and it would appear to be cheap insurance on the part of the merchants to offer some protection.

It will certainly improve the area around Center Street Corners to have a new funeral home complete with the lovely grounds which Mr. Snowden is in the habit of adding to his business sites.

With the continued growth of business out here who can doubt the future of this area.

Bake Sale

The Luther League of St. Paul's Lutheran Church is sponsoring a Bake Sale at Gosart's Store and the Acme Market on Saturday morning from 9:30 on. A fine variety of pies, cookies, bread, rolls, and other desserts will be offered. David Baker and Tommy Rowett will pick up any baked goods you wish to donate. Mrs. Fred Daley is advisor of the group.

Call Kathy Jones, Cedar Street, if you are going to contribute.

The young people's group attended the Youth Rally at Trucksville Methodist on Sunday night and were much impressed with the message brought by Charles Adonizio, Juvenile Court Probation Officer.

We dropped in on Saturday to see John Butler's Scout quarters at the Shopping Center. The boys reported they were snug in their tents that cold Friday night what with the stoves burning brightly and straw covering the cold concrete paves. They were packing up equipment at the time and a goodly supply of hoagies were awaiting their consumption at the noon hour, a favorite with the troop. John Butler, looking as handsome as ever in his camping togs, was our escort.

Here And There

Valentine decorations appeared on many windows over the weekend and we were surprised to find some Christmas wreaths still up and a few holiday trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ash have returned home after spending a week in Florida.

Mrs. Margaret Bednar is the proud grandparent of two new grandchildren, Maria, born to daughter Dianne and her husband, George Serhan, and George David new infant son of George Bednar and his wife, Frances. Little Maria was christened on Sunday. She will leave shortly with her parents, Airman and Mrs. Serhan for their home in New Baltimore, Michigan. Mrs. Serhan has been visiting her mother since Thanksgiving.

We are all looking forward to Ruth Houser's return home from General Hospital.

John Clause and Ida, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill and sons, Jay C. and Tommy took a ride to Dutch Mt., on Sunday where they spend so many enjoyable summer weekends. The girls said it was pretty breezy but the men enjoyed their tramp around the area to set out salt licks and apples for the deer herd. John reports the sap is also running.

It was good to see Bill Eicke out walking about on Saturday. And we wish him a speedy convalescence.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Leroy Kahler in his recent bereavement.

Mrs. Frederick Eidam spent several days with her parents in Allentown this week while Pastor Eidam attended a Synodical Conference in that area.

Mrs. George Bednar and infant son, George David, returned home on Monday from Nesbitt Hospital.

Mary Ruth Daniels and daughter Eden, Philadelphia, will spend a few days with her parents, arriving over the weekend. Mary Ruth has been having several art showings and plans one in Wyoming Valley.

George Jacobs, Pioneer Avenue, returned home on Saturday after being a patient in General Hospital.

Austin Line remains quite ill at Wilkes-Barre Veterans Hospital.

Ted Poast left Monday to spend a few days in Harrisburg.

Congratulations to Fred and Evelyn Eck on the celebration of their silver anniversary. Jack came up from Philadelphia to spend the weekend with them as did Marilyn from Susquehanna University and Dorothy from Allentown.

Emily Berger was brought home on Monday from General Hospital but will be confined to her bed for many weeks in a body cast. Her dad, Herbert Berger remains a patient in General Hospital where he was admitted last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malkemes had as weekend guests, their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mahoney and little Ronnie, Long Island.

Ruth Voelker has been ill at her home with an attack of the virus.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joy, Peapack, N.J., and infant daughter, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl left Friday evening for Connecticut where they were on hand to greet their new granddaughter born to daughter Janet Evans and her husband Tommie on Saturday morning. Harriett will return this weekend and Mrs. Lester Evans, Kingston, will then go up to spend time with the family.

These bright sunny mornings sure do something for our spirits, a sure indication that spring is not far away and we hear that Bill Roberts thoughts are turning to Little League and the baseball season.

Harveys Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steltz and son, Stephen, motored to Jack, Alabama to visit Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cape and family and also other friends they met while Mr. Steltz was stationed at Fort Rutgers. They went from Alabama to Tucson, Arizona to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brands and family, parents of Mrs. Steltz.

Mrs. Iris Armitage has returned from General Hospital to the home of her niece, Mrs. Stanley Kapon in Dallas.

My mother and I were confined to our home last week with the virus. It started with that dry cough and just made us very sick, but we are much improved, but weak.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Flecknoe of Spring City spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Clark.

The Gleaners' Class of the Alderson Methodist Church will hold a Spring Hat Show Friday evening February 26 from 7 to 10. Mrs. A. M. S. Hunsinger is chairman. W.S.C.S. will have a bake sale at the same time, with Lina Garinger as chairman. Refreshments will be served.

W.S.C.S. of the Alderson Church met on Thursday evening at the Church. Mrs. Raymond Garinger, vice president presided. Reports were given by officers present. Mrs. Edgar Sutton was speaker of the evening. Hostesses Mrs. Arthur Wagner and Mrs. Raymond Grey served lunch to 18 present.

Change Of Number

Hans Menzel's number has been changed in the phone book, and people who wish to order a cheese cake or Danish pastry, are having trouble reaching him. His number is now 675-3151.

Card Of Thanks

Rev. Paul J. Kolesnikoff and Mrs. Sally M. Brown of the Lower Demunds Road, wish to express their appreciation to all their friends and neighbors for their kindness and consideration in an hour when it was most needed, in the passing of Mrs. Ellen Winifred Kolesnikoff, wife of Rev. Kolesnikoff and sister in law of Mrs. Brown.

Then take that inheritance tax. A man works and plans and works some more and makes money and pays income taxes on it; then when he dies, they take the biggest part of what he has left, leaving his widow and kids holding an empty bag. "Tain't fair."

It is as important to know what not to do as what to do.

Never look back. Go forward, gaining wisdom from past mistakes.

Mount Zion

A MT. ZION WEDDING

This is no attempt to write up in reportorial style the wedding of Lucy Daniels of Mt. Zion and Donald G. Vasco of Missouri. I couldn't describe what Lucy wore, only that it was very becoming and the veil was short. And the bridesmaid was her sister Ellen whose dress too was most attractive. Ronnie Earl was the best man. The Vasco family lived for a time over on the road where all the Earls live and was a well-liked family. I have been a long-time friend of the Ben and Lucy Daniels family and have watched the children grow up. They asked me to officiate at the ceremony in the Mt. Zion church last Saturday night. Joyce Stocker played the organ for the wedding and Miss Dolbear sang several appropriate numbers. Immediately following the pronouncing the couple, man and wife, received Holy Communion which was followed by Malotte's Lord Prayer sung by Miss Dolbear. The ushers were Bradley Earl and Thomas Daniels.

AN ALARM CLOCK THAT REPENTED!

We can stand it to have the great grandmother clock stand nobly oblivious to the passage of time. After all she is honorably old. It still may be conditioned to run, but not yet. However, on the other shelf we had a cheap alarm clock which was supposed to keep time. I got mad at it and dumped it into the rubbish can. There it lay among the frozen lemonade cans, the dog food cans, empty prune juice bottles, and the discarded light bulbs.

It lay there still ticking but nobody looking at it. Nothing else in the can could tick. This feeling of utter uselessness and abandonment swept over its cogs. But it kept on ticking hour after hour. No discarded can or bottle could do that, but so what!

One day passed and a night. Normally that clock should have slowed down and stopped. Our Cathy noted the ticking noise and wondered if there was a time-bomb in the rubbish can! Another night came and went, and in the morning there was still ticking among the empty soup cans. In disgust, mingled with sympathy for the personality of an alarm clock, I lifted the thing out of disgrace, wound it up (I know how it felt, all run down due to iron-poor blood!) and set the time, and restored it to its place on the shelf.

That clock has learned its lesson, repented of its misbehavior, and now keeps time. Only a little wayward now, not much. But at least it is not an empty tin can!

Offers Naval Career

Commander W. K. Wilson

Commander William K. Wilson, Group Commander at the Naval Training Center, Kingston, reports that applications are available to college students for the Naval Reserve Officer Candidate program. Each year the Navy selects a group of college men for officer training. Entertaining college students may apply for the "ROC" program which combines education with the outstanding professional training that leads to prestige of a Navy commission after graduation from college.

Those accepted attend two full-time summer courses at the Naval Officer Candidate School, Newport, R. I. During summer training the candidate receives pay of the rate he holds in the naval reserve. Newly enlisted members are advanced to apprentice rate for the duration of training. Naval reservists attending drills or civilian applicants may apply.

Summer training periods are of eight weeks each, scheduled for the summers between your sophomore and junior years, and junior and senior years.

At Newport, studies are planned to give thorough professional background. Seamanship, navigation, gunnery, communications, and damage control become second nature by the time of commissioning. Studies also include Naval history, naval leadership and naval customs and traditions.

Lieutenant James Dick, and George McCutcheon, both of Dallas, two experienced men of the sea, having served in World War II on destroyers and submarines respectively state "every college man should evaluate this officer candidate program. It affords the opportunity of a lifetime."

Applicants may visit the Naval Reserve Training Center, Bennett and Mercer Avenue, Kingston, or contact Lieut. Louis Costa, Commanding Officer of the Training Center by calling 827-2004.
