SHAVERTOWN

ANOTHER ANNIVERSARY

As plans are completed for next week's celebration at Shavertown Methodist Church and the congregation marks its 75th anniversary, another House of God in our community will also be nearing a milestone in community service.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church will observe its 40th year of existence in May of this year and a committee is already formulating plans for the big event.

We are grateful that both have witnessed a rapid growth in the work of spreading the Gospel.

Speaking of God's edifices brings to mind a rather pertinent suggestion. Last week the schools of Forty-Fort were initiated into a new and happy acknowledge of the Almighty when a banner with the words emblazoned, "One Nation Under God", was flown with the flag of our country. How well we would do to follow suit.

Fernbrook

Seaman George Shields and his new bride of Corpus Christi, Texas, are spending a 15 day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shields, R.D. 3, Dallas. On his return he will be stationed in Florida before moving on to the Mediterranean.

Several residents of Fernbrook have noticed robins and bluejays in their yards. These in addition to their spring plants popping their heads out of the ground are sure signs of spring.

A lovely bouquet of spring flowers and the gift of a communion glass filler jar were in memory of Mrs. Sarah Moss who passed away two years ago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Trimble and children, Billy and Danny, Bristol, Pa., spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rogers, Maple Street.

Rev. and Mrs. Warden Updyke, Endicott, N. Y., spent a few days in this area recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wela and grandson, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Irma Wood, Norristown, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Rev. Roland Updyke attended the Rolling Mills Ministerial Association meeting at Welch Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Anyone having news for this column, please call 477-3731. Charles Long held his 19th annual auction on Saturday. Misses Ida and Ilwen Rasser, Kingston, spent Saturday visiting Bess Klinetob.

Ted Ruff had also found her first ones this season. How much gladness it added to the day and over the weekend the robin's happy song just about assured me that the most delightful time of all the year is almost with us. There is beauty in all the seasons, the winter with its snowy mantle, the summer with its brilliant sunlight and glorious color in abundance, the fall with its magnificent hues, but none can quite match the Springtime with its renewal of all life and of hope and of promise.

The boys and girls are also delighting in the warmer weather and a new fad which has been sweeping the area is much in evidence. An unusual sound drew my attention on Saturday and there were several of the lads whizzing down Pioneer Avenue on their new Skate Boards. Quite a novel idea, a bit dangerous I'd say, but the young folks are certainly enjoying themselves.

A GARDEN HOSE

The fire story appearing in last week's Post sure had sudden repercussions. Soon after the paper was on the streets a representative of a local water company appeared to check whether garden hose outlets were being used and not paid for.

One woman, who thought of aiding her neighbors first in the recent catastrophe possessed a garden hose but never used it to water her lawn and there was nothing hidden in its possession. What really bugged her was the fact that revenue seemed to come before concern in the time of danger.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Mary LaBar returned to this area from Florida over the weekend and is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Margellina at Idetown. The family is kidding her about the snowfall on the first day of her return.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sisco and family have moved to Davis Street, Trucksville.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart over the weekend were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Newhart of Saxton, Pa.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Edith Jones in her recent bereavement and to the family of the late Stanley Simon.
