

East Dallas

Ralph Fitzgerald, Maplewood Heights, was a patient in Nesbitt Hospital last week.

Mrs. Henry Randall, Maplewood Heights, is confined to her home through illness.

Brian Cyphers of Ransom Road is in General Hospital again. He suffered a recurrence of the infection which affects his breathing. He will no doubt be in the hospital for another ten days.

Your faithful reporter is nursing a sore knee adding another to the rash of skate-board accidents. It is a proven fact that there are more kids with injured legs hobbling around now than there has ever been. The crazy contraptions are a real "blast" but heaven help you if it gets the best of the situation. Ah well! C'est la vie!

Mr. Fehlinger and Herb were standing on their front lawn last Thursday evening around six o'clock when they saw a car coming down the road from side to side. It ran up their lawn in front of their home and then rolled back down the bank across the road and crashed into their silo. It would not have taken much more of an impact to bring the silo down. The silo will have to be torn down and replaced.

The car was driven by Rev. S. J. Kolucki, pastor of St. Francis Cabrini Church in Carvertown. Rev. Father Kolucki received a cut on his forehead and was in a state of shock. It was difficult to remove him from the car since the door on the driver's side could not be opened. He was taken to Nesbitt Hospital by the Dallas Ambulance. His car was damaged extensively, probably beyond repair.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eyet, Ransom Road, are celebrating their wedding anniversary on the 22nd. Congratulations on your 19th anniversary.

I understand Rusty Eyet is having his cast removed today. He is hoping it will be off for good, but there is quite a possibility he will have to have a short-arm cast for a while. Hope you can still change your slings, Rusty.

Mrs. Thomas Moore, Lower Demunds Road, returned home from General Hospital last week, where she had foot surgery performed.

Mark Shiveley, of "Times Square" was added to the sick list last week. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilson, 2nd Lower Demunds Road, on their 25th wedding anniversary.

We were sorry to see our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lindauer, of the Hildebrandt Road, move last week. Mr. Lindauer was transferred to Atlanta, Georgia.

Irene Moore has a birthday on the 28th of March. Why not send her a card in care of Mrs. Mary Lind, 180 Ridge Avenue Bloomfield N.J. Choir practice for East Dallas Church will be held tonight at 7 o'clock.

Bob Moore, Ransom Road, was laid up with a good dose of the virus two weeks ago, but like a good husband, he has handed it over to his wife Hilda, so that last weekend she was ill too.

I wonder who surprised who. Ellen Fuller and Jane Brown of Lake Louise planned a surprise stork shower for Mrs. Leo Petchkis on Sunday afternoon. Well it really was a surprise. DEPLORABLE CONDITION
While talking with one of the residents of East Dallas, she mentioned her concern over the deplorable condition of Evergreen Cemetery. This resident went to the grave of a relative, but was hesitant to enter the cemetery for fear of becoming stuck in the mud. Tin cans litter the grounds and her description of the cemetery was "it is filthy". Roads are needed — in fact to reach one area you have to park the car and walk quite a distance to that section. The owner lives in Baltimore. It is too bad something can't be done to remedy this condition. This is not in keeping with Back Mountain standards.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Larish, Sutton Creek Road had as dinner guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dymond Jr. of Binghamton, N. Y. and Joseph Hann. Their daughter, Susan Larish, was home over the weekend. Susan is a student at Kutztown State College, studying art education.

Mount Zion

The Mary Lewis Bible Class held its first meeting of the year last week Wednesday afternoon. Committee in charge was Jennie Smith, Edith Perry and Frieda Krum. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Ida Menhennet. The class voted the usual $5.00 toward the support of The Gilbert Story with Jots from Dot. Those present were Lucy Howell, Muriel Rozelle, Ida Mullison, Ida Menhennet, Jennie Smith, Mrs. Thomas Howard and Frieda Krum.

TUFFY'S NEIGHBOR RECOVERED
Tuffy and I have wondered why neighbor Rambler Krum had not been out barking at us when we went by. The other day I found out that Rambler had really been seriously ill, no appetite, no baying, no strength to crawl upstairs to bed. The doctor was unable to make an accurate diagnosis and so the patient returned home. Later it became clear that Rambler had swallowed an acorn whole and created a serious stoppage. Nature took care of the matter and now Rambler is his old challenging self again, for which Tuffy and I are glad. Tuffy always enjoyed a reverberating challenge to his walk around that corner.

THE GREENHOUSE AND HOT FRAMES ARE IN BUSINESS
Sometime back in February Howard Krum and son Robert had conditioned their greenhouse for the work of starting plants. I stepped into the glassed area and at once could see nothing for the steam heat clouding my glasses. Row after row of sturdy cabbage plants on one side, and row after row of petunia plants on the opposite side. Down through the middle were trays and trays of young tomato plants. Outside Howard and Robert were getting the frames along the side repaired to receive sashes. Soon under that glass would be transferred plants from inside. I asked if the outside sashes would receive their principal warmth from the sun. They told me there were pipes from the inside heating plant that ran around the edge of those outside beds. So when the "babies" inside the big house get to be partly grown they can go out where there is more room and get toughened up a bit in their new rooms.

CATHERINE IN PHILADELPHIA
Early Sunday morning Catherine took a bus for Philadelphia. For church she visited the Zoar Methodist church and enjoyed the treat of its well-arranged musical numbers, the vivid sermon, the engaging recognition of the presence of visitors in the congregation. Not the least of her treat was eating dinner right there at the church, meeting friends whom she had previously met at the Music Institute at Williamsport last year. In the afternoon she visited the flower show and is still telling us all about it. Also she nearly got caught in the jam of the St. Patrick's Day parade! Arrived home Sunday evening carrying some trophies of the flower show. So glad we can have a few houseplants in our windows!

The tax on talk that's still with you

You are still paying a 10% federal excise tax on your telephone bill every month. This tax was imposed on you as an "emergency" measure to help pay the bills of World War II. It's never been removed although the war has been over for 20 years. Your senators and congressman will welcome your views on this unfair tax, so why not write today and ask them to take the taxes out of your telephone talk.
