

Beaumont

Mrs. William Munkatchy, general Chairman of the local "Heart Fund Drive", states partial returns show a collection amounting to $123.00! She wishes to relay her sincere thanks to those workers who have given their time and efforts to complete their reports.

This community's sincere sympathy is extended to the families of the late Mrs. Raymond Blizzard and the late young Merle Newberry.

Edward Clark is seriously ill at General Hospital where he was admitted following a heart attack at his home.

Surgical patients at the General Hospital this week include Mrs. Joseph Hoyt and Mrs. Raymond Denmon.

Beaumont Elementary School had "Open House" Monday, March 8, with room visitations before the P.T.A. business meeting.

The Stanley Kozaks are enroute home from their Florida winter vacation.

Miss Judy Balewski, student at the Lock Haven State College, spent last weekend with her parents, the Emil Balewskis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards of Budd Lake, N. J., were with the Alden Dietz family last weekend.

Anna Mae Richards Dies After Illness

Anna Mae Richards, Plymouth, was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon with services conducted by Rev. Thomas L. Maher, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregation Church, burial was in Forty Fort Cemetery.

Miss Richards died at Bit-Mar Nursing Home, Plymouth on Monday. Born in Plymouth, daughter of the late Daniel and Mary Richards, she started her teaching career in 1893. Graduating from Bloomsburg, she taught in Dorranceton until the new Plymouth High School was built. There she became principal of the Junior High School, retiring in 1942.

She and a fellow teacher built the house now occupied by Livingston Clewell on Pioneer Avenue and lived there for several years.

She was a member of the Retired Teachers Association, the Cambrian Club, and the First Welsh Congregational Church of Plymouth.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Robert VanHorn, Dallas, and a nephew, Paul Jones of Plymouth.

Native Of Bowmans Creek Dies At 92

Mrs. Sarah Crispell Smith, 92, died Tuesday morning at Valley Crest. She was buried Wednesday afternoon at Orett Cemetery, the final gathering place of a wide-flung family of Crispells.

She was born at Bowmans Creek, daughter of Severn and Eunice Harris Crispell, and educated in the one room school near her home. Upon marriage to Charles H. Smith, she moved to Larksville, to Noxen, and back again to Larksville. Her husband died 25 years ago.

Of the seven children born to the couple, only two survive: Mrs. Arthur Symons, Larksville, and Mrs. Calvin Stevens, Newark Valley, N.Y., there are seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, brothers: Elmer Crispell, Noxen, Albert and George, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Rev. Floyd Crispell, Ocean Grove; step-brother, William C. Race, and step-sister Mrs. Ray Wilson, both of Noxen.

Boy Scout Executive Was Well Known Here

Many in the Back Mountain area were saddened to learn of the death of Robert Evans, 38, Boy Scout executive, who passed away suddenly Friday morning, following a heart attack at his home in Johnstown.

Active for a number of years in the Wyoming Valley Council he and his family had moved to Johnstown in December when he was placed in charge of that office.

Prior to that time he had worked in the same capacity in the Back Mountain area, Kingston and Nanticoke.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, he was the son of Daniel and Ruth Thomas Evans. He was the nephew of Mrs. Richard Jones, Shavertown, and the late John H. Thomas, who organized Daddow Isaacs Post, at Dallas.

Also surviving in addition to his parents, are his wife, the former Alma Vosburg, Wyoming; sons, Robert, Daniel and Richard; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Sidney, N.Y., and an aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Watt, Wilkes-Barre.

Services were held Monday from a Wyoming Funeral Home with interment in Memorial Shrine Cemetery.

Mrs. Ruth G. Cairl

Mrs. Ruth Garrahan Cairl, native and former resident of Dallas, resident of Upper Darby for many years, died Thursday at noon. Burial was Monday afternoon at Valley Forge Gardens.

A number of local people attended services, including her niece, Mrs. Ross Lewin, Florence E. Blackmore, and Mrs. Viola Schmassman, her sisters-in-law. The entire family was present, including eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrahan Dallas. She was born in the frame house on what used to be Cemetery Street, now Woodlawn Drive.

Mrs. Cairl leaves her husband Earl R. Cairl; a daughter, Mrs. Frank Basta, of Brooklyn, two sons: Thomas Murphy of Norristown, and Graydon Cairl, Somerville, N.J.
