The Rauch Family Visit Son Aboard Big Ship

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rauch and son, Kendall, Harveys Lake, and Jack Rauch of Lyons, N.J., spent Saturday in New York City as the guest of their son, Bradley L. Rauch aboard the U.S.S. Champlain which arrived that day from Bermuda.

The local young man who serves as fireman apprentice on the huge aircraft carrier enlisted in the service on September 29, 1964 and took his basic training at the Great Lakes. He has been on three cruises to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; San Juan, Puerto Rico and Bermuda.

His family watched the big ship sail up the Hudson River from atop Empire State Building, thrilling to the magnificent sight as the U.S.S. Champlain barely cleared the new Verrazano Suspension Bridge on its way to dock at Pier 86.

The Rauchs then went down to the shoreline where they were met by Bradley and taken on a tour of the ship. After a three day stay in dock, the U.S.S. Champlain returned to Quantico, R.I.

Assisting Mrs. Lee Eckert, head hostess, serve refreshments were: Mrs. William Weaver, Mrs. J. Gray Mattern, Mrs. Patrick McGarry, Mrs. Gilbert Morris and Mrs. James Reese.

Next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March 22 at the Acme Auditorium in Kingston. The program will be "It's Fun to Entertain" to be given by Miss Maryann Laktastic of Bell Telephone Co.

Members are asked to bring birthday gifts for the birthday basket at Valley Crest to this meeting.

New residents of the area are welcome to attend. The purpose of the group is to give newcomers an opportunity to meet friends. By participating in the activities, both social and civic, they can quickly feel at home in their new surroundings. Mrs. Richard Lindsley is contact chairman for this area. 675-2178.
