Citizen Of Year

BARBARA HICKS HARDING

Barbara Hicks Harding, daughter of Mrs. T.M.B. Hicks of the Dallas Post, has been acclaimed Citizen of the Year in her home town of Herndon, Virginia, and will be guest of honor at a dinner given by Herndon Rotary Club, April 28.

Mrs. Harding is the busiest person in Herndon, and like most busy people, can always be counted on when the drive for band uniforms is launched, the zoning committee needs a secretary, the Chamber of Commerce needs a hand, or there is a call for a children's Christmas Chorus.

She operates a kindergarten and pre-school building, directs the choir in her church, attends American University two mornings a week, teaches ballet dancing, entertains the community at semi-monthly square dances, keeps up with the demands of five of her own children and a hundred of the neighboring youngsters.

And each July, she comes to the Library Auction. Wouldn't miss it for the world.

Her husband, Reuben M. Harding, is with the U. S. Government, and a full Colonel in the Air Force Reserve.

Miss Catherine Gensel was feted at a birthday party Wednesday evening by her fellow employees at the Dallas Post.

Present were Ruth Walters, Louise Marks, Sandra Strazdus, Floyd Harris, Leighton Scott, Peter Duda, Leon Harenza, Donald Weidner and James Hopple.
