Frank Kardell hit 233 (587) for Ben Franklin and J. Bolton led Guyette's with 211 (572). Frank lin took 3 from Guyette's. Boyd White and Orchard Farm split 2-2. Stanton TV and Ben Franklin are tied in first place with 32 points each. Boyd White's team is second with 31; Beseker's has 28; Guyette's 23 and Orchard Farm, 22.

Bob Maturi chalked up a 202 and Zachary posted a big 223. Al Ciccarelli won individual scoring honors with 206-215-203 (624) for West Side Novelty and Steve Bonomo hit 213-219 (620) for Michael's Excavating. Al Wendell posted 234 (618) for Wesley Gulf.

Chalking up series in the top 500's were M. Whiting 201-200 (587), Bob Moore 214 (582), Mike Rudick (579) for Birth's Esso, piling up 2735 total pins. Rich Bonomo with 207-225 (597), Tony Bonomo 223 (584) and Pete Hospodar 211-212 (593) teamed up on Monk's for a total of 2783. Other top series were turned in by Stredny 202 (563), G. Thompson 203 (583), Glasser (566), Kocher, Jr. 202 (564), Varner 224 (585), Brace 218 (563), Nafus 222 (572), Trudnak 214 (561), Gorey 231 (572), Klass 204 (566).

High singles over 200 were hit by Metz, Michael, Kostrobala, Merc, Debarry and Zimmerman. Industrial Soldier Darts are heading the lineup with 40 points but had a setback Wednesday when they lost 3 points to Ranch Wagon. Ranch Wagon is now tied in third place with A & P. 34 points each. Parker Fuel took only 1 point from Thomas Barber Shop and is now in second with exactly 36. Closing in are the LAADS with 33 after taking all 4 points from American Legion. Adams Market has 32.

Top scorers last week were Wilson for Adams with 235 (595) and Al Wendell, directly opposite on A & P, with 204-208 (590). Charlie Berkey turned in high single game of 244 for the "legionaires" while T. Adams, Yenalevitch, Gabel, Kazokas, Adams, and Ransom chalked up games in the 200's.

Country
Anita Pascavage made the news after piling up 191-185-160 (536) for Forty Fort Lumber last week. Mary Dimmick set the pace for Boear Manufacturing as it took 3 points from Link's Tavern. Mary topped 165-170-175 (510). Boear wound up with 2272 total pins. Peg Williams rolled 165-176-168 (508) and Eleanor Olenick hit 169-164 (470) for Bernie's Pizza and the team took 3 from Forty Fort.

Jean Miller had a 167, Mona Dymond, 177, Della Belles 173, Lila Lozo 164, Evelyn Kamont 160. Evelyn Kamont converted the 3-10-7-8 split.

Winterstein 206, John Jones 211. Crown Imperial Majors

Things are close in the top section of the Major League with three teams crowded at the very top. Michael's Excavating took 4 points from Shavertown Lumber and is holding the first place with 36 points, while the "lumbermen" are content at the moment to sit in third with 34. Monk Plumbing and Heating, with another 4 from Dallas Nursery, is in second with 35. A little further down the line, in fourth, is Wesley Gulf with 29½ and two teams, Dallas Shopping and Dallas Nursery, are tied with 29 each.

Al Ciccarelli won individual scoring honors with 206-215-203 (624) for West Side Novelty and Steve Bonomo hit 213-219 (620) for Michael's Excavating. Al Wendell posted 234 (618) for Wesley Gulf.

Sunday Night Mixed
WHAT HAPPENED? The men outdid themselves last Sunday in the this league! Must have been practicing or sumpin'; the "gals" usually outbowl their "better" halves.

Sunday night, Henry Moyer scattered 612 pins all over lanes 13 and 14 as he piled up 202-212-198 for Hens. Sherwood Wilson chalked up 201 (545) for Hoods. Ken Bayliss rolled a 200, P. Schalm hit 199, Ed Roth 192.

But, the girls weren't sitting down on the job! Grace Wilson came crashing through with a beautiful 210-188-196 (594) series for Tangeos. Sue Schalm led Twisters with 164-176 (481), Eleanor Moyer toppled 179-169 (480) for Cripples, and Marge Milne rolled 183 (470).

Betty Stanley turned in a 161, and Eloise Titman had 184. Grace Wilson's team piled up 1970 total pins.

Hoods are in first place with 39 points and Hens have 30. Bowlerettes
Duke Isaacs is still in first place with 33½ points after losing all 4 to Bolton's Diner and Whiting's Parts and Service is just a little closer with 29½, after taking 3 from Monk Plumbing and Heating. Bolton's Diner has 25 and Monk's, 16.

Scoring honors went to Betty Lu Risch when she posted 161-166-167 (494) for Whiting's. Libby Cyphers hit 178 and Kay Kalafsky had 163.

Dallas Woman's Club
These eight teams are all tied up! Swiss and Swedes are tied with 28 points each in first place, Scots and Aussies have 25 each in second, Limeys and Finns have 24 each and Yanks and Danes, 19 each.

Scots and Limeys shared team honors Thursday when Scots posted a 670 game and Limeys rolled 1679 total pins.

Theresa Graham led Limeys with 173-178 (478) and Stella Bulford took single game honors with 206.

Doris Brobst led Finns with 166-164 (476); Ann Jordan had 169-160 for Scots; Adele Peterson chalked up 166 for Swiss and Mary Reese led Danes with 168.

Register On Saturday For Lake Little League

Registration for Harveys Lake Little League Team will be held Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Harveys Lake Bottling Works, Pole 126, Harveys Lake. All boys from 8 to 12 years of age are invited to sign up. Parents or guardian must accompany boys when signing up.

Travelling
Dallas Engineers took 2 points from Mopiz Saturday with George Thompson leading the way on a 565 series. Jack Trudnak hit 200 and Pete Hospodar had 201.

George Shields On Air Carrier

Airman George P. Shields, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shields of Route 3, Dallas is serving as a crew member of the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, which operates out of Mayport, Fla. The team is sponsored by the Harveys Lake Lions and managed by Alfred Wendell. Co-Chairmen Dick Williams and Elwood Davis have on their committee the hard working team of Tom Cadwalder and Ralph Dula. Tom reports he is making changes in the clubhouse which will make it much more convenient for the mothers stand and for the storing of all team properties. Dula reports he has been preparing the field for the past week. He has it well limed, fertilized and seeded. The infield should be in top shape when practice begins.
