Commendation Medal For Lt. Col. G. E. Boyea

The Army Commendation Medal with Oakleaf Cluster was recently awarded to Lt. Col. G. E. Boyea, now Commandant of the Owen Battalion, 7th Cavalry Division, Korea.

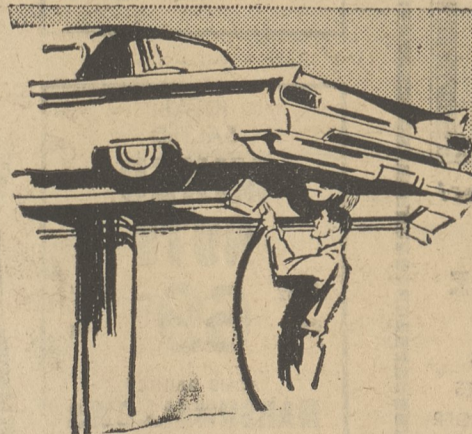

The citation reads, in part: "While assigned as Deputy AC of S. G. 3, Headquarters VIII Army Corps, Austin, Texas, Lt. Colonel Boyea's performance of duty resulted in outstanding accomplishments of organization, training, and mobilization readiness in the States of Texas and New Mexico.

"Throughout the period of service, Lt. Col. Boyea was the key individual in the development and execution of a strong training program encompassing over 200 reserve units and USAR schools. Largely through his efforts the VIII Corps USAR school system was developed into a model activity. He pioneered hard-skill MOS training in the USAR which was later adopted by other Corps and Army areas."

The family of Lt. Col. Boyea, his wife Nancy and children Elizabeth Ann, Henri, and Jean Pierre, live at Goss Manor. Boyea is presently at home on leave.
