

SHAVERTOWN

With a dash of rain thrown in to dampen proceedings, the 19th Library Auction came to a close Saturday evening with goods and antiques left over for next year's affair.

Although there was much to do at home, it was impossible to stay away from the fascinating chant of the auctioneers and John Vivian's unique quips and humor. So we joined many others to watch the bidding. Friends came by to attend and it was indeed a pleasant time to greet old friends and acquaintances who were in town for the event. As a result of the Auction a new pet has joined our menagerie. Myra suggested I give baby ducks for the Childrens Auction and of course, we just had to buy one of the cute little critters. All the youngsters who visit us and some of the older generation have cuddled the soft downy quacker, whom we have named Donna and hope it doesn't turn out to be Donald. When the youngsters were growing up, we had another Donald who gave us many hours of delightful amusement. He was always full of antics, meeting the bus when it arrived from town and wrestling with the young hound. Yes, a duck is a choice pet for the young fry and little Freddie will surely have some pets to enjoy as did his father and Aunt Susie.

DANGER POINT

I have been asked to urge caution among young cyclists who clutter up the roads during fire alarms. One boy narrowly missed being hit last week and the driver of the car was some minutes regaining his composure. The fire truck must get out and speed to the scene of the blaze and it is not right for these youngsters to gather around the fire hall when volunteers are driving in from all directions.

HERE AND THERE

Superintendent of Mails Richard Griffith and Mrs. Griffith have returned home after attending the Postal Supervisors Convention at Chambersburg and visiting his sister, Mrs. Carl Bolin, Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Bolin returned here with them for a short visit. Other guests at the Griffith home included Mrs. John Griffith and son, Mark, Sherman, Oaks, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spaulding had as recent weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell, and children, Ellen and Robbie, Syracuse, N. Y. They also visited her mother, Mrs. Sheldon Jones, Trucksville.

Jeannie Merolla is vacationing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Merolla during summer recess from Bloomsburg State College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reniska and family, Florida, are visiting her father, R. J. Love, E. Center Street. Also guests at the Love home are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swabey, Tarrytown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gardner and children, New Cumberland, were holiday weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laux. Also home for a brief visit was their son, Jerome, of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. John Kritchen and Mrs. Joseph Oravic found the missing girl in our area on Thursday. The ladies had searched with others for many hours.

Mrs. Lawrence Newhart is a patient in General Hospital, where she underwent surgery on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Honeywell spent last weekend in Aberdeen, Md., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Norton Newberry and family. It was good to see Sheila Bonawitz out again after being so ill for several weeks.

Barbara Honeywell returned home on Sunday after accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace and family to Wildwood, N. J., for a week's stay.

Mrs. Cecil Poynton told me she saw a lovely deer in her back yard one morning last week and what a beautiful sight it was. The dog's barking called her attention to the visitor, who might have come down from the woodlands on the hill for a drink in the creek. She has watched every morning for a re-appearance but the handsome creature has not returned.

Little David Ell is home again after submitting to surgery at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Denton Updyke had as recent guests, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James McDyer of Kearney, N. J.

David Wood, son of Mrs. Gladys Wood has been visiting relatives in Mt. Holly, N. J. for two weeks.

We hear that Pauline Ferguson may be coming home in a week or so, and all her friends certainly hope this news is accurate.

Sweet Valley

Mrs. William Post, daughter Lois, Forty-Fort and Mrs. Leslie Lewis spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William George and Mrs. Vida Kitchen.

A reception and party was held on Friday evening at the Maple Grove Church Hall for the Rev. Rosser family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Remley and family spent the holiday weekend in Parsippany, N. J., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brumback.

Maple Grove Sunday School will hold a roller skating party on Saturday night, July 17 at 7:30 p.m., Wolf's Grove.

Don't forget the farmer dance at Lucas Lakeside Park, Lake Silkwood on Friday night, starting at 9 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sayre and Mr. and Mrs. William Sayre, Sr. spent a few days last week at Niagara Falls and Canada.

STILL CELEBRATING BIRTHDAY
Bess Kinetob who celebrated her birthday recently was entertained by her friends at dinner at Huntsville Methodist Church. Hostesses were: Mrs. Bertha Anderson, Miss Ruth Lamoreaux, Mrs. Letha Spaulding and Mrs. Lillian Hildebrandt. After dinner the group was entertained by Mrs. Hildebrandt at her home Dallas where cake and tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gay, Centermoreland and Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, Berwick, called on Bess Kinetob recently.

Mrs. William Naugle, Sr., is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Kuczawa and family at Reading.

Children In Old School Picture Are Identified

Mrs. Edith Templin furnishes solid identification for all the children in a recently published school picture.

Her son Ralph, resident of Denver Colorado for the past nine years, was in that class when a sprat. The names were all written on the back of his copy of the picture.

And here they are, by rows:
Max Dreher, Victor McCarty, Charles Finn, Bill Gevanis and Ralph Templin.

Mrs. Louise Colwell; Bill Blessing, Tom Brown, Jack Nelson, Barbara Phillips, Marie Polvchick, Elva Swire, Ruth Drake, Lydia Galley, Peter Roushey, Betty VanHorn, Teddy Sheppelman, Elizabeth Trudger, Kenneth Worrell, Edna Faulkner, Alvin Shaffer.

Bobby Allen, Beatrice Garnett, Pauline Ide, Wanda Culp, Hester Jeter, Doris Monk, Lucille Disque, Wilma Gay, Martha Swire.

Paul Clemow, Dicky Oliver, Bobby Roberts, Bruce Atkinson.

EAST DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Sharps (Chubby) Cyphers and daughters Sally and Patti returned to their home in Carverton last Friday evening, after a week's vacation, visiting Chubby's father; Carl Cyphers and wife, in Homestead, Florida.

They enjoyed many places of interest but the "Parrot Jungle" reigned supreme. I agree with them, as I too roamed through the parrot jungle and was amazed to see how gorgeous and how well trained they were.

Having the freedom of the jungle, they still came to their arena when called and performed extraordinary stunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams and family, Hatboro, have spent a week in the Wilson cottage at Lake T. J. Mrs. Williams is the former Daisy Belles. While scouring the surrounding woods, Bobby Jr. somehow severed an artery in his leg, which required four days in Nesbitt Hospital. Some vacation!

Pete Wilson, brother of Ted and Giles Wilson, was released from Veteran's Hospital, where he has been a patient for the past month or more, to spend the holiday weekend at his home in New Milford, but had to return to the hospital for more tests and treatments.

Fred W. Dymond III and Wilfred A. Anderson, Marines from Camp Lejeune, were fortunate to have leaves, to enjoy the holiday weekend at their homes in Orange and Truckville.

They had to be back on their base Tuesday, July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore entertained July 4 at a picnic luncheon and supper guests were Betty, son Bobby Helmer and Grandpa Ehrigott, White Haven, N. J. and Emily Gross, children Edward and Nancy, Wilkes-Barre; Keith, Patti, and Holly Moore, Grandama Irene Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. David Moore, David, Jr., Kimberley, Ricky and five-week-old Pamela Jean, Pasaic, N. J., spent the holiday with parents Mr. and Mrs. Grant Croman, Shavertown and Irene Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rozelle, Orange, entertained at a chicken barbecue, Sunday afternoon, July 4. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dymond Sr., and Vivian, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dymond Jr., and children Cindy, Sherry, Kathy, Teddy and Timmy, Norman Weaver, Carl Sicker, Elaine Dymond and sons Howard, Mark, and Douglas, young Howard Krum, who I'm told was the life of the party; Connie Sue, Dale, Becky Rozelle and the host and hostess, Ray and Glenna Rozelle.

Bob and Julia Pickett, Diana and John, witnessed the canoe race held in East Haddam on the Connecticut River. Race was five miles long and Bob Pickett and Tom Pavlick from Plymouth came in third. John himself came in second in the Kayak race. Each received trophies in the races held Sunday July 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown and family, Clifton Heights, Pa., were Sunday guests of Ada's mother, Lucy Morgan, and sister Diana Newberry and family, Ransom Road, Priscilla Krum and son Howard,

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shutt, Donald Jr., and Ricky, and myself, attended the Shutt reunion at my sister Ethel Krick's home, in Reading, Monday July 5.

Due to Keith, Patti and Holly Moore "hatching" the chicken pox, Bob, Hilda and children were unable to attend. David and family from New Jersey, brother Bill's family from Lancaster and Ray's family from Philadelphia. It turned out to be a rainy day, which no one griped about, as we made sunshine inside. Sister Mary was visiting Ethel for the week.

Hazel Morgan was home for the weekend. She has been visiting and helping her aunt Frances (Siley) Harrison in Stroudsburg, who had recently been a hospital surgical patient. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Siley, Philadelphia, and Willard Siley, Plainfield, N. J., also spent the holiday weekend with parents Russell and Helen Siley.

Guests who enjoyed the 4th at Siley's hunting cabin were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Siley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siley, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Siley, Willard Siley, Mary Morgan and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Space, Noren.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lamoreaux, on the birth of a beautiful baby girl, born on her sister Susan's birthday, July 2, in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Ernest (Mary) Dymond, West Pittston, is back in her home after staying almost a year with her sister in Long Island. She spent a week recently with her sister-in-law and husband, Bernice and Harry Howell, E. Dallas, and sister-in-law Gladys Brace.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Souder, and children, Old Bridge, N. J., visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moss July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brace, Betty Lou, Wendy and Kenneth Jr., visited his mother Mrs. Bert (Gladys) Brace and other relatives over the holiday weekend. Kenneth lives in Rockville, Maryland. Kenneth and Lynn Greenly from Tunkhannock, R. D. 2, visited their cousins Connie and Gail Edwards, for a few days vacation.

Now I have to concentrate on Centermoreland Auction, which E. Dallas Church is a part of. So if anyone has anything left to donate to it, we would appreciate it. Just call either Robert M. Moore, Russell Ockenhouse, Larry Kintzer or Myra Carlin.

"SPECIAL"
Peter Roushey Reunion! The 17th annual Reunion of Peter B. Roushey family will be held Saturday, July 24, at Rummage Grove, Hunlock's Creek. Dinner will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bloomer and children, have returned to their home in West Chester after having vacationed a week with the latter's parents, Florence and Harry Martin. Jay and daughter Brenda both spent a couple days in bed, quite ill.

Mrs. Leona Hunter has returned to her home after being a patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Fred (Clara) Shupp, Ryman Road, is carrying her arm in a sling since she fell at her home, Sunday

July 4, and broke her shoulder. She was hospitalized for X-rays and setting, but is back in her home again.

East Dallas is shocked over the terrible head-on accident last Saturday on the curve above East Dallas Church. Such needless accidents, all on account of alcoholic drinking.

Bear in mind the strawberry and ice cream social, Saturday July 17, at 7 p.m., on East Dallas church lawn.

Michael J. Purcell Is Commissioned An Ensign

Navy Ensign Michael J. Purcell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Purcell of Route 5, Shavertown, has completed Pre-Flight School at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., and commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve.
