Airman George P. Shields, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shields, Route 3, Dallas, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, currently operating with the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The Roosevelt, a principal deterrent to aggression in the European, African and near Eastern areas, serves as a mobile, self-sustaining air base for supersonic fighter and attack aircraft of the Sixth Fleet.

The trouble with modern life is that it takes too much time.
