

EAST DALLAS

East Dallas, Centermoreland, and Dymond Hollow church Auction-Barbecue will be held tomorrow and Saturday evening, on the Centermoreland Church School grounds. This is the first year that the three charges, under one Pastor, Reverend David Glahn, have worked on this large project together.

Everybody is as busy as bees and just as happy, working at such a worthwhile project.

Five women from East Dallas and Mrs. Ruth W. Schoonover from Centermoreland, mixed; let rise and baked 1940 rolls, 9 loaves of bread, and 7 round pans of rolls, a week ago Tuesday for the Auction-Barbecue Dinner. The rolls were stored in Harry Martin Jr.'s deep freeze. The bread was sold hot. Each church is responsible for so many — our surplus (our share 1600) will go in the baked goods booth.

Women who baked in the church kitchen from 7:30 a.m. till 8:45 p.m., all cleaned up by then, were Florence Martin (Chairlady), Myra Carlin, Ruth W. Schoonover, Mary Ryman, Jeanette Dickinson and Irene Moore.

Jerry Morgan was honored by a dinner party to celebrate his third birthday, at his grandma Siley's home. Present were uncle Bill, Joe and Chet Brennan; mother Mary Morgan, sisters Hazel, Sharon, Brenda, brother David and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Siley.

East Dallas Methodist church school picnic will be held at Lake T. J., August 22nd. A vesper service will be held in the evening and Beverly Eck, exchange student, will show slides taken while in Africa. Basket lunch for noon and evening meal should be brought by each family.

Inez Ryman returned home two weeks ago bringing two year old Christopher Potter with her. Mrs. Richard Potter drove up to Ryman's from her home in Towson, Maryland last weekend, to take her son home. Inez is staying here another week and then will return to Potters.

Lois Ryman, her aunt Jane Isaacs, and cousin Marilyn Isaacs, Wilkes Barre, went to Atlantic City last Tuesday. They expect to visit Aunt Esther Lewis and family of Presidential Lake, N. J., today.

Nancy Tkatch, Allentown, is visiting her aunt and uncle, Helen and Tom Dickinson, on Ryman Road.

Mrs. Jeanette Dickinson enjoyed a weekend recently with her sister and niece in Pittston. She returned home loaded with beautiful items to be sold at the "Three Church's" auction.

Friendship Class of East Dallas Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. John Cook. Devotions were by Mrs. Russell Ockenhouse. Mrs. Warren Stanton presided over a short business meeting. The girls were reminded to turn in items for the auction. Plans were made for a corn and Weenie Roast, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore, August 29 at 3 p.m. The next meeting will be the first Tuesday in September at the home of Helen Dickinson.

Members present were Reba Cobeigh, Priscilla Coolbaugh, Marilla Stanton, Frances Cybulski, Beatrice Ockenhouse, Hilda Moore, and Alberta Cooke, the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan entertained at a cook out Saturday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown and children, Larry Jr., Susan, Judy, and three month old Nancy. Mrs. Brown (Former Ada Morgan) and family, Clifton Heights, Pa., arrived Friday evening to spend the weekend.

Arthur's nephew, Ed Derby, wife Doris, children Nancy and Michael, Baltimore, were also guests, along with aunt Lucy Morgan.

We welcome into our neighborhood, Sharon Ann, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kasmark Jr., who live next to Myra Carlin. Myra says she is a darling. I must walk up and see her. (Have to steal the time.)

A "Welcome home" to Mary Valentine, is extended to her. She traveled alone by train from Auburndale, Florida, to Philadelphia, Sunday August 1, where her son Bob Pickett and family met her and brought her "home". The train was two hours late so they improved their time by visiting the zoo. Mary plans to stay here a month at least, and do you know what? She is celebrating her 78th (I think) Birthday today, August 12. I wish you many happy returns of this day, Mary.

The migrant workers arrived Friday; a bus load and many cars full to harvest the Dymond Brother's tomatoes. Picking and packing should be in full swing by now. I am writing this Sunday evening and it is pouring rain so am wondering how it will be by Thursday when you read this.

Willard Siley, Plainfield, N. J., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Siley. He brought Chet and Joey Brennan, 10 and 12 year old friends, along for a visit.

Helen and Russell also had daughter Frances Harrison and family, Stroudsburg, visit with them last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Siley drove to Shickshiny one day last week, to visit Helen's brother, Arthur Scott, who is in poor health.

The 54th Reunion of the James and Oliver Evans family, will be held Sunday, August 15, at Lake T. J.

Was I ever surprised Thursday morning (last week) to receive a phone call from Marjie Lewis. That is, Mrs. John E. Lewis from Sarasota, Florida, former residents of East Dallas. She and Johnnie — son Charles, and his son Carl drove up to Herb Downs' in Beaumont last Tuesday where they hung their hats until Friday when they left to return to Fla. I was so happy to have them come over and enjoy lunch at least with me. Their time was limited.

Johnnie's friends around here will be glad to know he is greatly improved but still under doctor's care — says he is a walking drugstore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Linda, Lauren, Bobby, and Johnny, from Hatfield, are occupying one of Ted Wilson's cottages at Lake T. J. for this week. Mrs. Williams is the former Daisy Bellas.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schwartz from New York are also spending a week at Lake T. J. A daily visitor is their sister Mrs. Lewis Isaacs.

Today the Dallas Senior High School Key Club and Keyette marching units will hold a basket picnic with their parents at Lake T. J. There will be a softball game between fathers and sons; also a Volley ball game between mothers and daughters. These games should be interesting and entertaining. There will be slides shown of past parades.

Teddy Wilson and Earl Monk are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Quinn (aunt Ruth) in White Haven.

Reverend and Mrs. Ned Lintner and children, have returned to their parsonage in Factoryville, after vacationing two weeks at Lake T. J., their favorite spot, as this is their third or fourth year there.

Mrs. Nesbit Moore and son Timmy visited her sister and family, Ruth and Russell Swartz, Linden, N. J. They also visited her niece Jane (Ruth's daughter) Mrs. Bartorillo and family in Carteret, N. J. Gert and Timmy visited there the last two weeks in July, with Nesbit spending the last week with them. Gert, Neb, Timmy, and his cousin Mark Bartorillo, enjoyed one day at the World's Fair before returning home. They brought Mark along up to spend the summer here.

Boys' Club of Orange played the firemen on the new Orange ball field, August 3, losing 19-15. Joe Perry was winning pitcher for the firemen. Series is now tied at one game each. Another game will be played August 17 — same place. I wouldn't mind witnessing it. Their previously planned swim party will finally take place August 13, at Carl's, at Demunds. The regular meeting was held August 6 at home of Al Cheskiewitz, with a game. Al's team beat John Oliver's team 10-9. Dale Rozelle had 5 hits for winners, Jim Smith, 5 hits for the losers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan entertained at a party, Saturday evening, August 7, in honor of their son Robert Jr.'s first birthday.

Guests were Grandma Lucy Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, sons Dick and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. John Newberry, daughters Debby and Jo Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kozak, sons Frank, Keith and Neil; sisters Debby Sue and Doris; Mother and Daddy Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell entertained Bernice's niece and husband Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Felger, Bradenton, Fla., recently.

Mrs. Fred Myers (formerly Lois Howell), New Brunswick, N. J., and her daughter Mrs. Walter MacTeek, (Sharon), Mt. Pleasant, Mich., spent the past weekend with her parents.

They attended the wedding of Miss Lola Baer of Kingston, and the Dymond reunion at Harveys Lake, August 7.

Hazel Ockenhouse was entertained Saturday, August 7, with a party to celebrate her 9th birthday, which will be August 14th. Her party was a week early because her parents, Bea and Russell, will be terribly busy at the "A-

4-H CLUB NEWS

A Back Mountain Calf Club member, Warren Sutton, walked off with top honors at the County Dairy Show held last Saturday in Conyngham. He won the Breed Champion trophy in the Holstein division.

The cow Warren exhibited was Hillside Super Rose, a three year old from Hillside Farms.

In addition to his Breed victory Warren placed first in the Senior Calf division, and third in the fitting competition.

Jessie, Will, and Frank (Parly) Conyngham also raked in ribbons for the Calf Club. Will placed first in the 2-year-old Holstein class and Jessie followed suit in her division.

Jessie also placed second, behind brother Will, in the 2-year-old class. Frank picked up a third in Junior Yearling.

The Baker boys were also outstanding in the show. Brent, having won a blue ribbon in the Guernsey Calf Class, went on to win Reserve Breed Champion. The Fitting Trophy went into Brent's bag, too.

Brother David took first place in the 2-year-old Guernsey class and won the Showmanship Trophy. He placed fourth in Fitting.

Frank Mikoleichich, also of the Calf Club, placed second in the Senior Calf Class.

Michael won a blue ribbon in the 2-year-old class and second in fitting.

David Baker, of the Calf and Cloverleaf Clubs, and Pat Holdridge of the Cloverleaf Club, traveled to Penn State last Monday for State 4-H Days.

David went as a member of the four-man Luzerne County dairy judging team that competed against teams from almost every county in the state.

Pat, having won the Public Speaking competition at the County and District levels, competed in that category at the State show.

David, who has won the County Outstanding Boy awards, and is County Achievement winner, also had interviews with state judges while at the University. He is in competition for state honors in those fields.

Date change: the County Festival will be held August 28 at Hobbie instead of August 20 at Conyngham as previously planned.

Coming Events

August 16-18: Junior Achievement.

August 20: County Home Economics Judging.

August 28: County Festival.

Charge Barbecue and Auction. That will be like another party for her, Right?

Guests were Jean Dickinson, Linda and Mark Houck, Patti McMichael, Connie and Gale Edwards, Nancy Tkatch, Ann Marie and Susan Miller, Michelle, Marian and Johnny Cybulski, Sheila and Renie Kulick, Keith Morrow, Frances Cybulski, Mary Morrow, Beatrice and Russell Ockenhouse. Highlight of the party was an outside picnic, complete with hot dogs, wimpy burgers, chips etc., to birthday cake, ice cream and candy. Hazel's dad thrilled them with an open truck ride, but was cut short by showers, which failed however to dampen their spirits.

Because of interest shown the three churches on Centermoreland charge were open for prayer and meditation last week Thursday evening from 9 to 12 p.m. They will be open this week, Dymond Hollow, August 10th, 9 to 10 p.m., Centermoreland, August 11, 9 to 10 p.m., East Dallas August 12 (tonight), 9 to 10 p.m.

Atlantic City Trip
The annual Atlantic City bus trip will be held August 28 and 29. Bus will leave Fernbrook at 6 a.m. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Andrew Roberts, 674-0459.

Penn State Center, Wilkes Barre Is Now Accepting Registrations

Registration are now being accepted at the Penn State Center of Wilkes-Barre for the 1965 Fall Term which will begin with Orientation Week September 20-25 with classes starting September 27th. Members of the faculty are at the center daily to interview prospective students who wish to work toward Associate Degrees. The Wilkes-Barre Center offers Drafting and Design Technology to prepare young men and women for employment in machine design, tool and die design, or structural layout. Electrical and Electronics technology courses provide a practical knowledge of electrical machinery and its control. Objectives of the program in Surveying Technology are to provide a knowledge of the elements of surveying as applied to construction, land, topographic, geodetic, city and photogrammetric surveys.

A new one year program leading directly to employment is Fundamentals of Design.

Prerequisite for enrollment at the Center is a High School Diploma and any recent graduate is eligible for counseling now with a view to entering the Fall class.
