

NEWS FROM POST CORRESPONDENTS

BEAUMONT, Mrs. William Austin 639-2544
 DALLAS, Carol Ann Williams 674-4109
 FERNBROOK, Mrs. George Shaver 674-5460
 HARVEYS LAKE, Mrs. Albert Armitage 639-9531
 IDETOWN, Bess Cooke 639-5137
 JACKSON TWP., William Hughes 696-1005
 LEHMAN, Mrs. Morton Connelly 674-2488
 MT. ZION, Rev. Charles Gilbert 388-7261

NOXEN, Mrs. Elida Beahm Kelly 639-8522
 RUGGLES, Mrs. Glenn Kocher 639-5618
 SHAVERTOWN, Mrs. F. W. Anderson 675-2001
 SWEET VALLEY, Mrs. Thomas Sayre 477-3731
 TRUCKSVILLE, Nelson Woolbert 696-1689
 EAST DALLAS, Mrs. Irene Moore 674-2392
 OAK HILL, Mrs. Stephen L. DeBarry 639-5242

TRUCKSVILLE

Trucksville Fire Company will meet in the municipal building tomorrow night at 8. Members will meet there again on Tuesday night for practice in the handling of equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lawley, Philadelphia, arrived Sunday to spend the next two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Lawley, Newell Road. Mr. and Mrs. Lawley recently enjoyed a motor trip to the Pacific coast. Mr. Lawley will enter his senior year at Temple University Dental School in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacArthur, Toronto, Canada, will spend the Labor Day weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Troup, Jr., Sutton Road. Mr. and Mrs. Troup will entertain at a party tomorrow in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bradley and family, Dover, N. J., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennan, Holly Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, Carverton Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, Hill Street, attended the wedding of Howard L. Martz and Gladys E. Neff at Hartzville on Saturday. Mr. Martz is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paraventi and family, Detroit, Mich., have returned after spending several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Staub, Carverton Road.

Curtis Evans, East Hartford, Conn., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, Holly Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lear, Harris Hill Road, have returned after vacationing at Lake George and touring Canada and the New England States.

Mr. and Mrs. James Trebilcock,

S. Memorial Highway, spent a day recently with Miss Helen Anderson at her cottage at Marchell Creek in the Poconos. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, and Mrs. Maude Beishline.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker have taken up residence in Homestead, Fla. Mrs. Baker is the former Evelyn Devens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Devens, Steele Road, Plymouth. Mr. Baker is serving with the United States Air Force in Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mr. and Mrs. David Mathers, and Mrs. Jacob Harrison attended the wedding of Miss Susan Lockman and Edward Croom at West Lawn on Saturday. Mr. Croom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Croom, Carverton Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoover and daughter, Sandra, Englewood, N. J., spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Jacob Hoover, Carverton Road. Martha Hadsel, Davis Street, has returned home after attending Harvard University Summer School, Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Messersmith and family, Spring Garden Street, have returned after spending several days at Sand Lake, Elgin, Ontario Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rundle and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hislop and family spent the weekend at Cherry Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren DeWitt, S. Pioneer Avenue, spent a recent week with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeWitt, Wilmington, Del.

The amount of rain alone doesn't determine the amount of soil loss from erosion on your fields. The size of the raindrops, intensity of the storm, slope of the field and type of soil involved all help determine your erosion loss.

New Goss Manor

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boltz of 19 Gordon Avenue, Old Goss Manor, recently had Mrs. Ruth Wermuth and her son, Karl, of Palmyra, N. J., as weekend guests.

PELTONS MOVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Pelton, formerly of West Orange, New Jersey, have moved to a home on Overbrook Avenue. Mr. Pelton has been Assistant Principal at the G.A.R. High School, Wilkes-Barre, Supervising Principal at Falls-Overfield School in New York, and has recently retired as Headmaster of the Cartaret School in West Orange, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pelton have a son, Mr. Reese Pelton, 10 Gordon Avenue, Old Goss Manor, who is a Music-teacher at the Forty-Fort High School.

Mrs. William Parry and children, Fred, Billy, Lloyd, and Nan, Saginaw Street, recently returned from visiting her sisters, Mrs. Wm. D. Harrison and Mrs. John G. Evans, of Brentwood, Calif.

Some of the places they visited were: Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm, Sequoia National Park, and Marineland.

On Friday of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprekel, Church Street, will have as guests for several days, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brentlaw, of Belleville, N. J.

Save On Your Printing
The Dallas Post

Hemelright, On Board Of Pa. Gas Company

Frank E. Hemelright, President of Northeastern Pennsylvania National Bank & Trust Co., has been elected Director of Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company at a meeting of the firm's Board in Wilkes-Barre. This was announced by Rulison Evans, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Hemelright's entire professional and business career has been in the fields of banking and finance. Starting as a clerk, he served an intensive apprenticeship between the years 1933 and 1947 in all departments of the bank. In 1941 he was appointed an assistant vice president of the former First National Bank of Scranton; in 1946 he became a vice president and in 1947 was appointed executive vice president of the former Scranton Lackawanna Trust Company. He was elevated to the presidency of the Trust Company in 1953 and became president of the First National Bank of Scranton on July 1, 1954. Thereafter, the Trust Company merged into the former First National Bank. Since 1954 he has been president of the institution which is now Northeastern Pennsylvania National Bank & Trust Co.

During World War II he served in the U. S. Navy and was honorably discharged in 1945 in the rank of Lt. Commander.

Mr. Hemelright has also been a director of several corporations in this area.

Mr. Hemelright is married to the former Ruth Theobald and they have three children — two girls, Ann and Martha, who attend Miss Hall's School and a son Andy, who attends the Winchendon School.

Members of the firm's Board are Rulison Evans, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Robert R. Evans, President, Atty. Charles B. Waller, Edward Eyerman, Jr. and Arthur J. Podesta, Vice President, all of Wilkes-Barre; Atty. Gomer W. Morgan and H. A. Vicker, Vice President, both of Scranton, and Charles B. Gamble of Birmingham, Alabama.

GOSS MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Burke, Gordon Avenue, have had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Dickinson and their children from Natawan, N.J.

The Federal Aviation Agency has called special attention to the fact that it is a breach of regulations to jump from an airplane without a parachute.

LOAFERS

FOR SCHOOL
Penny & Plain Styles
GIRLS'
$4.98 up

Brown
Black
Antique Brown

BOYS'
$8.98 up
Black - Brown

FAIRVIEW SHOES
Dallas Shopping Center
DALLAS

East Dallas

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The former cafeteria workers of Dallas-Junior High School, celebrated the birthday of Stella Lancia, August 24th, by having dinner at Lake Carey. Attending were, Norma Knecht, Naomi Pryn, Helen Veitch, Doris Sutton, and the guest of honor, Stella Lancia.

ENJOY SEVEN DAY TRIP

Freda Hughey and her sister, Flora Stock, have returned from a seven day bus trip through the New-England States, staying nights in many plush hotels and motels. They viewed the sturdy and rock bound coast of Mt. Washington, the highest; East of the Mississippi, 6200 feet above the timber line and; the Great Stone Face in Boston. Sometimes they travelled by plane, cars, cable cars, and ski mobiles.

They toured the Vanderbilt Mansion, "The Breakers", in fact the whole city. "Thou Shalt Not Covet, but I sure would have liked that trip.

Mrs. Gladys Brace has returned to East Dallas, after her visit in Maryland and Harrisburg. She had dinner with her sister and family, Bernice and Harry Howell, Demunds Road, last Thursday. Their brother, Alfred Dymond and wife, from Tarpon Springs, Fla., were also dinner guests. They had come up for the Dymond reunion, which was the 8th, and intend to return this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell spent a weekend recently visiting their daughter, Lois Myers, and family, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Mrs. Charlotte Weaver and Mrs. Stanley Weaver drove to Philadelphia, a week ago Saturday to bring daughter, Emily home. She had been visiting her brother, Benjamin and family for a week. They all returned Sunday.

Myra Carlin and her cousin, Jeanette Comstock, Kingston, attended the World's Fair last Saturday with a bus tour.

Charles Moore and family, Rhode Island, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore for a week. Kenneth Moore returned here, after spending a week with Charles and family.

Their sister Jean's husband, George Salsbury, who suffered a broken ankle while on vacation here, flew back to his home in Rhode Island. He is still in a lot of pain.

John Henry Phillips Jr. son of Jean (Hildebrand) and Henry Phillips, and Bill Stauffer left Wednesday, for Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, having signed up for four years. John expects to attend school of administration after his basic training. The boys were supposed to leave Tuesday evening but there were so many that they and a few others were put up for the night in Genetti's Hotel Wilkes-Barre. Then flew out Wednesday.

David Dymond, son of Gerald Dymond, Orange, and Brian Marsh, (David's friend from Florida who had been visiting here the past month or so) flew back to Homestead, Fla., Saturday evening. David's parents drove the boys to Philadelphia where they boarded the plane. School reopens earlier there than here.

Mrs. Frances Yolando and daughter Rosemary, from New Jersey, are visiting her sister, Eva Dymond and family in Orange.

Vickie Ditlow, former Shavertown resident, now living in Reading, is spending the weekend with Sherry Kay Dymond. She came up to attend a party which was held Saturday evening at the home of Jane Rozelle, Shavertown.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dymond Sr., Dymond Hollow, were unintentionally omitted from the list of guests at Fred Dymond Sr.'s birthday party last week.

Mrs. Paul Scott suffered a stroke last week and is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital. Please remember her birthday, September 6th.

Ellwood Misson, Ransom Road, has returned home after two weeks with the 109th. reserve in Virginia.

Thomas and Janice Wiley, Philadelphia, spent last weekend with his sister, Frances Harrison in Stroudsburg. Parents Russell and Helen Wiley, and granddaughter Hazel Morgan joined the family group on Sunday.

Sunday visitors of Irene Moore (me) were, sister Ethel and husband Bob Krick, daughter Sharon, Reading; sister Mary Lind and Deborah Waldrip, Bloomfield, N. J. Priscilla and son Howard Krum. Mary and Deborah plan to stay a week or two.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS

Friendship Class of East Dallas church, held a covered dish supper and wienie and corn roast, Sunday afternoon and evening, at the home of Hilda and Bob Moore. Attending were Frances Cybulski children Michelle, Marian and Johnny, Helen and Tom Dickinson, daughter Susan; Marilla and Warren Stanton, son Carl; Jack and Alberta Cook, Linda and Johnny; Clinton and Reba Cobleigh, Jackie, Jerry, Cindy, Donna and Peggy; Bob and Hilda, Keith, Patti and Holly Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wilson, Demunds Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Loomis from Tunkhannock, have returned from a vacation in Canada. After returning home, Mr. Loomis suffered a severe heart attack and is in a serious condition. It was fortunate not to have happened while on their trip.

Sweet Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lanning and family, Roaring Brook visited Mrs. Lucille Lanning recently.

Mrs. Mary Mattia, Joann, Jimmy, Tina and Karen, Washington, D.D., spent the week with her sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shaw.

Mrs. Edwin Britt, Pike Creek, Mrs. Caroline Ferrey, Shickshinny along with Mrs. Ruth Malkemes and Mrs. Mary London spent Wednesday in Binghamton, N. Y.

Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Curry of the Assembly of God Church, Moore-Rosser family is on vacation. Promotion Sunday was held last Sunday at Maple Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Naugle spent a few days vacationing in Delaware.

Thomas Creasing remains a patient at Nanticoke Hospital and would enjoy hearing from his friends.

THE DALLAS POST OFFSET DEPARTMENT
Uses The famous
ATF Chief
Offset Presses
Tablets - Circulares

Fernbrook

Mrs. Robert Coleman and children, Donna and Bobby, Lancaster, have returned after spending two weeks visiting Mrs. Catherine Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Susaraba, Demunds Road. Also spending a week were Cathy Wood and Donna Baer of Chambersburg.

Mrs. Ira Button, E. Overbrook Avenue has been ill several days at her home.

Mrs. Andrew Derrick, Demunds Road will be hostess to the Missionary Society of Glenview P. M. Church on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Shultz, Poplar Street, on the death of Mrs. Shultz's father last week.

Nicky and Johnny Susaraba, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Susaraba, Demunds Road, have returned from Nesbitt Hospital after two weeks in oxygen tents for a respiratory ailment. Nicky was hospitalized for three weeks.

Mrs. Kenneth Tinklepaugh and children, Kenny and Deborah, Binghamton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tinklepaugh, Shaver Street, for some time.

Mrs. Florence Fuller, Dover, N. J., is spending some time visiting relatives in this area. She spent several days visiting Mrs. Corey Crispell, Harris Street.

SWIMMING PARTY

Friday afternoon, a swimming party and cook-out was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver, Jr. and Mrs. Stanley Karuza for choir of Glenview P. M. Church and Mrs. Shaver's fourth grade Sunday School class.

Enjoying themselves were: Larry and Donna Seward; Herb and Emma Fehlinger; Kathy and Karen Karuza; Tom and Alan Shaver; Debra Gosart; Roy Trudgen; Bobby Brown; Katherine Fluck; Mark Bartolli and the host and hostess.

TRACY LYNN SHIELDS

Mr. and Mrs. George Shields, Harris Street, Fernbrook announce the birth of their first child, Tracy Lynn, on August 28. She weighed 7 lb. 1/2 oz. Lynn, in General Hospital on and was 19 1/2 inches long. Mrs. Shields is the former Mary Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer of Stockton, California. This is the first grandchild for the Palmers. Mr. Shields is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shields of Fernbrook. This makes 13 grandchildren for them.

Mr. Shields is with the U. S. Navy and is aboard the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Aircraft Carrier. Mrs. Shields is a former WAVE. They were married at Corpus Christie, Texas.

STOP
LOOPER DAMAGE
FAST!

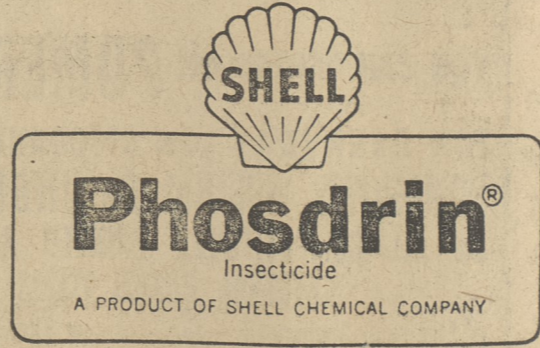

Protect cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower with

Phosdrin®
INSECTICIDE

- HITS HARD
- WORKS FAST
- THEN DISAPPEARS

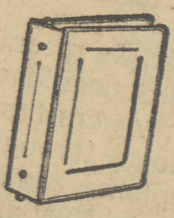

You can use Phosdrin 1 day before harvest of cabbage and broccoli—3 days before cauliflower

Phosdrin is the most powerful insecticide available for looper control. Before using Phosdrin read the directions carefully. Follow safe application practices as described on the label.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL SPECIALS

Reg. $2.19
Loose Leaf
Notebook
Includes:
• CLIP
• PAPER
• BALL PEN
• THEME BOOK
• INDEX
$1.89

HYTONE RULED PAPER — 25c PACK

THEME BOOKS NOW 88c

• Pencils
• Ball Point Pens 19c UP

FINO'S
Rexall Pharmacy
D. FINO, R.P. MAIN HIGHWAY—DALLAS