Miss Ethel Rosanne Estus Bride Of John E. Alexander

Miss Ethel Rosanne Estus became the bride of John Edgar Alexander in a lovely wedding, September 6, at St. Michael's Church in Pawcatuck, Connecticut.

The double-ring ceremony was performed during the nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. Hugh J. Murphy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Estus, 35 Moss Street, Pawcatuck, Conn., formerly of Dallas, Pa. The bride-groom is the son of Mrs. John F. Alexander and the late Mr. Alexander of 43 Morgan Street, also of Pawcatuck.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of Irish Point lace designed with long pointed sleeves and bateau neckline accented with seed-pearls and brilliants. The voluminous skirt fell from a fitted, pointed bodice, sweeping into tiers of ruffles down the back, cascading into a chapel train.

Her tiered veil of silk illusion, attached to a spray of froster roses and lily-of-the-valleys was designed and made by the bride.

The bride's bouquet of white roses and carnations, with baby breath and ivy was attached to her nuptial, with streamers of ribbon-tied Stephanotis.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Lucy Harris of Baltimore, Md., cousin of the bride, wore a floor length gown of white dotted swiss over taffeta, with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, and short sleeves. The dress was accented with pink satin cummerbund with large back bow and streamers falling from the waistline to the hem. She wore a wreath of miniature "Pink Elegance" carnations and ivy in her hair and carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, carnations and baby breath, with streamers of pink ribbons.

The bridesmaids and junior bridesmaid were attired just like the maid-of-honor.

They were Mary Ellen Estus, sister of the bride, Susan Velletri of Providence, Rhode Island, Jayne Schultz of Cranston, Rhode Island, Barbara Sullivan of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Patti Sheridan of Le Roy, New York, all cousins of the bride.

The junior bridesmaid was Susan Lewis of North Stonington, Conn., niece of the bridegroom.

The flower girls also wore identical dresses with wreaths in their hair. They carried baskets of "Pink Elegance" carnations and daisies with baby breath and ivy.

They were Judy Velletri of Providence, Rhode Island, cousin of the bride, and Regina Fallace of West-erly, Rhode Island, niece of the bride. David Lewis, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.
