Airman 2nd Class Stuart Stahl Takes As Bride, Sandra M. Welton

At a pretty fall wedding Miss Sandra M. Welton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Welton, AuSable, Michigan, became the bride of Airman 2nd Class Stuart T. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl, 122 Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown, in St. John's Episcopal Church, AuSable, Michigan, on Saturday, September 11, at 11 a.m.

Rev. Robert Reeves performed the double ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white silk shantung fashioned in Empire style with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and elbow shy sleeves. The A-line skirt was caught in the back with a small bow over which extended an aisle length train. A shoulder veil of illusion fell from a cabbage rose headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and English ivy.

Mrs. Gloria Hammond, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Sue Davis and Patricia Glasser. The attendants wore similar gowns of fitted dark green brocade bodices and straight floor length skirts of beige crepe. They wore small cabbage rose headpieces with circular veils and carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses and carnations.

Best man was Vern Hammond, brother-in-law of the bride and ushers were Airman Eric Harvey, Philadelphia and Earl Welton, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride selected a sheath style dress of beige jersey with brown accessories. Mrs. Stahl, mother of the bridegroom, chose an aqua sheath gown with matching jacket and aqua accessories. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of yellow roses.

A reception followed in the church hall, after which the couple left on a honeymoon to Canada, Niagara Falls, the New England States and Pennsylvania. On Sunday evening the bridegroom's parents entertained in their honor at an Open House. Sixty relatives and friends attended.

Upon their return home this weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Stahl will reside at 209 Second Street, AuSable, Oscoda, Michigan. Airman Stahl is stationed at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Michigan. The couple will attend classes at Western Michigan University.

Michael Langel, Injured Veteran, Visited By Friends On Birthday

Michael Langel, Shavertown, was pleasantly surprised last Tuesday when he had as birthday callers, Mrs. Josephine Goeringer, Kingston, who had been instrumental in raising funds for a home for the disabled World War II veteran in the Back Mountain.

Specially appreciated by Mr. Langel was the fact that Mrs. Goeringer had just been dismissed as a hospital patient yet made the effort to visit her old friend.

The birthday celebrant was also extremely happy that his brother, Ernest, who has cared for him for many years and resides with him, returned home from General Hospital after a several weeks stay.

A big birthday cake was shared by Mr. Langel and his niece, Michelle. The little girl marked her 9th anniversary on her uncle's natal day. For Michael, it was his 47th.

Other callers were John Allis, Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Wilson and Jerry Langel, Rannivmede, N. J., Mrs. Dolores Lulis and children, Leonard and Debra, Paul Casterline, Wilkes Barre; Mr. and Mrs. George Langel, Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Langel, Michelle and infant sister, Elaine.

Michael, who was critically wounded in France in World War II, was ripped by a bombardment as he lay in a trench shortly after D-Day. For two weeks following his injuries, he was unconscious. He awoke in an English Hospital, not knowing what had happened or how he arrived there. Next he was sent for care to Scotland. Casualties were so great that the latest arrivals had to be cared for first and those who were already patients had to take care of themselves as best they could while near the front lines.

From Scotland, Mike was sent to Mitchell Field and various other army hospitals. He has resided in Shavertown since 1950.

Mr. And Mrs. Robert H. Scott To Observe 44th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scott, Lehman, formerly of Overbrook Avenue, will celebrate their 44th wedding anniversary on Friday.

The couple was married in a double ceremony at the home of the bride in South Wilkes-Barre, by Rev. E. A. Gillespie of Parrish Street Methodist Church. Mrs. Scott's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Michael were joined in matrimony at this service.

Mrs. Scott is the former Amy Siegel, Wilkes-Barre and her husband was born at Mountain Springs.

For a number of years, the Scotts resided in Shavertown and upon Mr. Scott's retirement from Williams Bakery where he was employed for 26 years went to Brooklyn and then to the West Coast for a period of three and a half years. They returned to Dallas last year and on September 1, removed to Lehman. Mrs. Scott says they have circled the States and are now back where they started from.

The couple have enjoyed gardening this year with Mrs. Scott putting up jars of vegetables from their ample planting. A member of the Dallas Woman's Club Chorale for many years, Mrs. Scott is planning on taking a more active part again and is a member of the choir at Lehman Methodist Church. Enjoying his retirement, Mr. Scott is doing a beautiful job on refinishing a number of antiques which his wife has collected over the years.
