Jane Gilmartin, Sally Harter, and Jim Bauman

This week we find the ninth grade students signing up with their homeroom representatives to take the National Educational Development Test. This test will be written on Saturday, November 6, at 8:30 a.m. at the Dallas Senior High School. Each student making an application for the test will be given a student application book which explains the type of test to be given and containing sample questions similar to those found in the test. Application books are plentiful and more can be obtained if needed.

Two football games were played this week. On Monday our eighth grade team was host to the Tunkhannock eighth grade. Tunkhannock came out on top 20-0. Our team played a good game but their opposition was too strong. On Wednesday our ninth grade traveled

John H. Blackman Jr., Honored By N. Mountain Trailride Asso.

A quarter of a century after he founded the North Mountain Trailride Association, John H. Blackman, Jr., was named President Emeritus of the group as horsemen gathered from Allentown, Bethlehem, Montoursville and the local region the past week to enjoy their fall ride through the Endless Mountains.

Mr. Blackman, who now resides most of the year in Minnesota, has been staying at his local estate for the past month and was joined by Mrs. Blackman, a fine equestrienne, and John Carey, trailmaster of the association, in covering all trails to be used for this special ride, during the weeks preceding the arrival of association members.

The weekend proved ideal as to weather, skies were unblemished and Mehopyny Creek sent forth gushing waters pleasant to the ear of the rider, when the drought of past seasons had dried the creek bed to a worrisome degree.

Out of town riders arrived early in the week and rode the Foothills of the Endless Mountain chain until they were joined by the whole company on Thursday. During their sojour here, the early comers were guests at Shady Side, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond "Tip" Elston and Mr. and Mrs. Job Dietz.

From Shadyside to Windy Valley traveled the horsemen with their mounts via the Gamelands opened the last two weekends. Fall foliage greeted the sight of the riders as far as eye could see. At Windy Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hurley, the new proprietors of the Inn, opened the former Fassett Place, especially for the occasion.

At Windy Valley, the association elected Mr. Blackman to his honorary post and named Raymond Elston, president. The group listened enthralled as Mr. Blackman gave an interesting resume of past activities. Dr. Renno of Bethlehem made the response.

The welcome get together concluded on Sunday with wives and friends of the horsemen, guests at a big dinner party at the Inn. Local participants in addition to Blackman, Elston, Dietz and Carey, were Ray Elston, Leon Emanuel, John Stahl, John Behm, Arthur Kingston, Bill Pokorney, William Sgarlat, Edward Brislin, Jack Brislin, and Lt. Edward McGroarty of the Wyoming Barracks State Police.

Principal Plays Halloween Tricks

Mrs. Louise Colwell Blames Home Training

Mrs. Louise Colwell, Principal of Dallas Elementary Schools, spoke straight from the shoulder at the regular meeting of Dallas Borough P. T. A. when she asked the parents, "How are we going to have peace in the world?" when we allow our children under the guise of Halloween to throw paint on cars and windows, toss dead skunks into people's houses and destroy personal property?

Mrs. Colwell said, "These are not Halloween pranks -- they are dirty rotten tricks!"

It is time the parents taught their children true values, and know where they are and what they are doing when they are not at home.

Dr. Lester Jordan, Moderator of the Foreign Exchange Student Panel, introduced: Eva Christianson from Sweden, Klaus Thuesen from Denmark, Patrick Series from France, and Geoffrey White from England.

The students, comments, about the difference in their way of life and ours, were entertaining and informative.

The Award for the room having the largest representation went to Mrs. DeCosmo and the second grade. Mrs. George Budd, President, announced National Education Week will be held November 7 to 10th. A tea will be held from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. November 10th.

Mrs. R. C. Van Etten announced there will be a Book Fair and the books will be on display at the tea.

Three Local Boys Have Begun Basic Training

Navy Seaman Recruits Ronald E. Fink, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Fink Popular Street, Route 2, Roser D. Congdon, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Congdon of Route 3, Dallas, and Darryl J. Zimmiski, 20, U. S. N. son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Zimmiski, Route 4, Dallas have begun nine weeks of Navy basic training at the U.S. Naval Training Center Great Lakes, Ill.

In the first weeks of naval service they will study military subjects and live and work under conditions similar to those they will encounter on their first ship or at first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian to sailor they will be taught and supervised by experienced Navy petty officers who will teach the basic skills of seamanship as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

On completion of their training they will be assigned to a school, shore or ship, according to the results of their Navy classification test, their own desires and the needs of the Navy.

Dallas Football Parents To Be Honored Saturday

Parents' Day will be observed at Dallas Senior High School Saturday when the Mountaineers play host to Edwardsville.

Parents of team members are asked to meet in the high school auditorium at 1:15 p.m. A short program will be held on the field at 1:30 and parents and players will be introduced. Mothers and fathers will receive small remembrances of the event.

Football parents will be seated in a special section after the program.

Miss Clara Hopper Becomes Bride Of Elmer Lyons In Fall Ceremony

Miss Clara Hopper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hopper, Noxen, became the bride of Elmer Lyons, son of Williams Lyons, Noxen, and the late Mrs. Lyons at a candlelight ceremony, September 18 at First Methodist Church, Noxen.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred Eister. Mrs. Warren Montross was organist and Mrs. William Cooke, soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin, fashioned with long sleeves and skirt featuring pleats with a cummerbund and large bow. Her headpiece was a cabbage rose made of satin and seed pearls to which was attached a shoulder length veil of three tiered illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, centered with orchids and ivy.

Miss Janet Turner, Noxen, was maid of honor and selected a street length pink satin dress designed to that of the bride. Her headpiece was of pink satin and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and pink carnations. Mrs. Helen Long, Shavertown, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a green satin gown and headpiece similar to that of the maid of honor. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and green tinted carnations.

John Lyons, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man for his brother and ushers were Lewis and Gary Hopper, brothers of the bride. The mother of the bride chose a brown and orange flowered silk jersey dress with green accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. A reception followed in the church parlors.

Mrs. Lyons is a graduate of Lake-Noxen High School and is employed at General Cigar, Kingston. Her husband, an alumnus of Lake-Lehman High School is employed by his uncle, Osmand Casterline, Noxen, as a carpenter.

Young English Lads Enjoy Lakes And Good American Hamburgers

Mrs. Jean Smith and her two young sons from Cheshire, England, returned home recently after enjoying an eight week stay with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Carruthers, Sterling Avenue, Dallas.

The young English matron, who is the sister of Mrs. Carruthers, was on her first trip to the United States and just fell in love with the country. One of the few English visitors to enjoy the heat and humidity experienced by Eastern residents this summer, Mrs. Smith was delighted particularly with the friendliness of the Back Mountain people and the informal manner in which they lived during the vacation period.

Her two sons, Stephen, eight, and Ian, who celebrated his 4th birthday while here, were just entranced with the lake areas where they swam frequently and the hamburgers served during outings. The ice cream, which one could take out of the refrigerator at any time was also a highlight for the youngsters, who have to go to the store for this treat at home.

Mrs. Smith and her sister paid a visit to New York during her stay and this trip to the big metropolis was the main attraction for her.

A visit at the Finger Lakes, a joint to Valley Forge and many local resort areas completed the agenda. With school bells calling Stephen, the trio flew home with the youngsters promising to come again next vacation period.

Mrs. Carruthers, who leads a busy life herself, is now getting ready to go to the Philippines where she will spend some time with her husband, who is associated with Gen-

Catherine Martin Has Sixteenth Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Martin, Trucksville, entertained recently at dinner honoring their daughter, Catherine, who observed her 16th birthday. The affair, a surprise, was held at Foothills Manor, Shick-shinny. A whipped cream birthday cake decorated in orchid and reading "Happy Birthday Cathy Sweet 16" and topped with a miniature ballerina was the centerpiece. Favors were satin Sachet pillows.

Those who attended were: the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. Harry L. Martin, Mrs. Albert Raye, Donna Smith, Donna Priebe, Kathy Cashman, Beverly Peirce, Nancy Covert, Patti Larson, Jack Martin Jr., Lorraine Ann Martin. Their guests of honor and her parents, Kathy Cashman also spent the weekend with Cathy.
