

EAST DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dymond, Orange, left Sunday for their winter home in Homestead, Florida, where they will be busy in the cucumber planting business. It does not seem possible that the tomato season is over.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moss, Upper Demunds Road, have returned home after visiting their daughter, Louise Souder and family, in Old-Bridge, N. J., over the past weekend.

Jule Wilson's sister Marie, Studio City, Calif., and another sister Patti, Compton, Calif., flew in by jet a week ago Monday to be with Jule during her operation, and returned to California last Sunday.

ELLA MOORE CLASS

Monthly meeting of Ella Moore Class of East Dallas Church, was held in the church parlor, Tuesday evening, October 15th. Helen Siley had charge of devotions. Bette Kintzer presided. After the business session, "Happy Birthday" was sung to Mrs. Elva Miller, Mary Ryman and Alverna Lamoreux. A birthday cake with candles was enjoyed by the three, but Mrs. Miller's was on that day (the other two were past) so she was honored with a shower of small gifts which certainly surprised and pleased her. "It was the first birthday party she had ever had," she said.

Present were Gladys Brace, Jeanette Dickinson, Mary Ryman, Helen Siley, Freda Hughey, Bette and Dorothy Kintzer, Elva Miller, Jessie Moore, Myra Carlin, Alverna Lamoreux, Beatrice and Irene Moore.

An Autumn Tea will be held in the church parlor, November 11th, 8 p.m. Beatrice and Jessie Moore are chairman and co-chairman. A program, refreshments and a bake sale will be the features of the evening.

Mrs. Gladys Brace is visiting her daughter Barbara, and son Kenneth, and families in Maryland and Washington, for an indefinite time.

Last Wednesday was a day of days for me. First my brother-in-law's brother, Fred Hawke and wife Janet from Ashley, visited me and we went out in the country and bought and trimmed, get this, thirty eight heads of cabbages, to make sauer kraut. They really enjoyed our country. Then Lucy Morgan had dinner with me (by prearrangement). Then my sister-in-law Ollie Moore came for a short visit — we live so close yet so far, that we seldom visit in one another's homes; daughter-in-law Hilda ran across the lot for a few words with Lucy and Ollie. Just after they left — a cousin and his wife, Paul and Althea Wehr from Allentown, whom I had not seen in over twenty years — sought and found me. What a pleasant day.

"The World Is So Full Of A Number Of Things, I'm Sure We Should All Be As Happy As Kings". Sunday dinner guests of Irene Moore (me), were, brother William

A reception in the form of a covered dish supper was held in the East-Dallas Church, Sunday, October 10th, for Reverend and Mrs. Howard Hockenbury, no special program was planned; just a church family gathering was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Floyd (Lucy) Nulton, former resident of East Dallas, mother of Mrs. James (Jean) Pellam, owner of the trailer court on 309, fell in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar (Beatrice) Herold, Vestal, N. Y., and broke her hip in three places. Mrs. Nulton is in Wilson Memorial Hospital, Johnson City, N. Y. She visited Jeanette Dickinson and family, in East Dallas, when she was in the neighborhood, attending the funeral of Earl Johnson, a relative. Our friend was 82 years her last birthday and I am sure she would appreciate hearing from her friends in East Dallas.

Lanceford (Lanny) Carlin, his wife and her grandmother, all from Johnson City, visited his aunt, Myra Carlin and Jeanette Dickinson and family Sunday.

Peggy Kasmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Kasmark, Ransom Road, student at Medical Secretarial School in Harrisburg, spent the weekend with her parents. She said everybody in the school and rooming house is so nice and kind to her and her pal, who were strangers there.
