Mount Zion

Renovations
 By small degrees we have been renovating Catherine's room upstairs. Quite awhile back we surveyed the ceiling and decided to put up masonry instead of plaster. Which was fine, until we tried to cut pieces to fit and find rafters spaced right for nailing. We did have a time! Finally got it up. Then recently Catherine papered the walls. Her mother pasted. There were two bed boards under my mattress, so we hauled one of them out and used it for a pasting board, laid on top of the bed! The papering done (from which I kept discreetly away!) it was up to me to put up the molding and make the corners fit. I am grateful for the invention of putty with which an amateur can hide his sins! Now I have been varnishing the floor, after first sanding it by hand.

The New House Now Occupied
 The new house which has long been a-building on the road to Mt. Zion church opposite Stockers' is now occupied by the Probola family, and the mail box is mounted out front.

And the new house being built opposite Ezra Rozelle's is getting right along. They have been putting a black top driveway to the garage and are now spreading top soil. I understand some of the Insalaco family is to live there.

Our Genial Visitor
 The Rev. Ralph Weatherly called with an armful of magazines recently. Some of them I enjoy at home until they are passed on to the people at Valley Crest. Whether he comes bringing a load of reading material or just stops for a visit he is always a welcome guest. He and Mrs. Weatherly recently visited their son the Rev. Theodore Weatherly and family out near Pittsburgh. Homestead I believe is the place. And also went to Glen Ridge, N. J. to visit their daughter Carol and family, the Talmadges. In the course of the past year Rev. Weatherly has held 102 church services. That is an average of two services a Sunday. Pretty good record for a retired minister.

At Valley Crest
 It was a pleasant occasion last Tuesday when making my calls at Valley Crest to meet Mrs. Evan Stauffer, the wife of our Administrator. She and her husband were at the same table for dinner with me and I was interested to know that she knew Dottie back when both were working at Philadelphia General Hospital.

The fifth Sunday suppling at Moosic and Avoca has found me acquainted with more people. One seems never to be quite among strangers. There are twin boys who have greeted me cordially — this is at Avoca — and have taken up the offering. I find that their names are Richard and Dale Reese and know where I live, for they attend High School in West Pittston and ride the bus up some of our roads. How come they get around like that I don't know. But they know some of our Mt. Zion boys.

And then at Moosic I met a lady, I think her name is Mildred Bennie, who is some relative of the Hursey family down the road from us and is a friend of the Sherwood Krum neighbor up the road. Neighbors along our roads may

Real Estate Consultant To Hold Conference

Edward J. McGuire, New Goss Manor, president of Greater Wilkes-Barre Real Estate Board, has announced that Frederick J. Bashaw, internationally known real estate consultant and lecturer will conduct a sales conference under sponsorship of the local Board at Holiday Motor Inn Motel, East End Boulevard, on November 19.

Mr. McGuire is being assisted in handling arrangements by Durelle Scott, Huntsville Road, Dallas, Robert Tippett, Westmoreland Hills and Betty Kanarr Bierly of Harveys Lake.

Mr. Bashaw has conducted sales conferences under the sponsorship of over 300 real estate boards in all sections of the United States and Canada. He has also lectured extensively on urban real estate problems for the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

According to Mr. McGuire, real estate brokerage is such an ever-developing activity that Realtors are finding it helpful to stop occasionally and evaluate the techniques and procedures of effective practice.

"This is in line with clinical conferences conducted by attorneys, doctors, and other professional groups," he added.

Mrs. J. W. Young, who heads the educational committee of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Real Estate Board, is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Young said invitations have been extended to the members of other real estate boards in the general area. The sales forum will begin at 9:30 a. m., with a luncheon set at noon, followed by an afternoon session to be concluded at 4:30 p. m.
