MRS. DAISY PRYNN, EIGHTY

Mrs. Daisy Prynn was recently honored by her seven children on her 80th birthday. Mrs. Prynn was formerly Daisy Wilson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wilson, Demunds.

A family dinner was held at the Kingston House, followed by open house at the home of her daughter, Mary Glahn.

Color scheme was pink and white, milk glass which held pink candles, pink and white candy; a pink and white birthday cake and a large milk glass basket with a pink bow and holding white chrysanthemums and pink roses.

It had been years since Mrs. Prynn and her four sons and three daughters had been together. They were a happy family, hoping their mother would have many more healthy, happy years.

Although only two of her twelve grandchildren were there in person, the others were, as they said "there in spirit". Many called her, including David from the seminary in Boston, and Marge (exchange student) remembered her with a Norwegian card and gift.

The rainy night: Friday, October 22, did not dampen the spirits of this happy, proud, and grateful family, Sheldon and Glendon from Collet, Ill., Robert (whom Daisy makes her home with) Adaline Hasselwander, and Margory Vollrath, Rochester; Richard, Carverton; Mary Glahn, Bunker Hill.

Ben Brace Jr., and wife Marge, from Alexandria, Virginia, visited his mother, Mrs. Viola Brace and sister Mrs. Bruce (Irene) Davies, over last weekend. They also visited Marge's father, Corey Smith of Sweet Valley, Daughter-Brenda is a student in Virginia Medical College and did not make the trip this time.

Giles Wilson is confined to his bed, in his home in East Dallas, and Ted's wife Julie is convalescing at her home, on Demunds Road. I wish them well.

Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, October 28, with a family dinner at Irem Temple Country Club. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dixon, Kristie and Kimberly Bedford, Rodney Weiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry were married at Carverton Parsonage by Reverend Ivan Snyder, in 1915.

HAVE BABY BOY

Reverend and Mrs. Howard Hockenbury, of the Centermoreland Methodist Charge, are rejoicing over the arrival of their first child, an eight pound son, born Saturday, November 6. We are all happy for them.

Mrs. Lois Croman, accompanied by her brother Ollin Webb, his wife Mollie, and their grandson, from Catasauqua; have returned home from a ten-day trip to Tampa, Florida. They traveled down the East coast and returned by way of the West coast.

Mrs. William Schuster, Applewood Manor, entertained Mrs. Ann Vernon, Trucksville and Wilson Cease and Warren at dinner on election day. Mr. Cease and Warren reciprocated by taking them to dinner at the Trucksville Fire Hall, after spending the day at the Schuster home.

Charles Moore, wife Janet and baby, have returned to their home in Rhode Island, after spending last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore.

AUTUMN TEA

The Ella Moore Class of East Dallas Methodist Church, is sponsoring an Autumn Tea, tonight at 8 in the social room. Public is invited. There will be a small charge.

East Dallas folks seem to be keeping the hospitals busy. Julie Wilson, home from Nesbitt; Emily Carey home from Mercy Hospital. Now Arthur Magee, tenant farm helper of Wilson Ryman, is a patient in General Hospital. He occupies the bed right next to Al Gross, husband of Emily Ehrgot Gross.
