Rookie Brown To Play With Satellites In Dallas

Knights Home With West Wyoming The original New York Harlem Satellites, under the direction of Rookie Brown, will appear at Dallas Senior High School on November 30, at 8 p.m. The Satellites are rated as one of the finest teams in the country by sports and entertainment luminaries. They combine comedy, showmanship and basket- teen seniors from Dallas and Lake-Lehman. ball skill to provide two hours of entertainment for young and old.

The Satellites, now in their eighth season, have appeared in 36 states, Mexico and Canada before an estimated 300,000 people. Their basketball playing record has placed them prominently among the top professional teams, winning 1045 games and losing only 9.

Proving that comedy can intermix with basketball, the Satellites present an exhibition of talent and skill designed to entertain one and all.
