IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Donation Day Is Scheduled For November 19 At Old Ladies Home

There are forty-three guests at the Old Ladies Home in Wilkes-Barre who have been working all year on the things which they will offer for sale at the annual bazaar and open-house scheduled for Friday, November 19. Tea will be served in the afternoon, 2 to 5, and in the evening, 7 to 9.

Two guests are from the Back Mountain, both in the eighties. They are Miss Emily Avery and Mrs. Grace Anderson. At one time, there were five Back Mountain women in residence.

Guests look forward to the open-house all year long. It is their main activity as a complete unit. On other occasions, they scatter, invited here and there for family celebrations or at the homes of friends. Gone are the days when women shrunk into the chimney corner at the age of seventy. Eighty is now no barrier to full enjoyment of living, and with the lengthening span of life, women over ninety are no rarity. There are five in that classification at the Home, and 28 in the eighties.

The average length of residence is ten years, says Mrs. James Robinson, one of the members of the Board. Donation-Day at the Home is an institution. At this time, gifts of linens, staple foods, coal, and money are welcome.

Family Night Supper

Family Night Covered Dish Supper is slated for Shavertown Methodist Church Sunday night at 5, in the social rooms. Reservations must be made by Friday with Mrs. Percy Hart or Mrs. Walter Shaver.

Lacked Only 4 Years Of The Century Mark

Lacking only four years of the century mark, Mrs. Mary Huey DeWolfe, Shavertown, died Friday morning at Nesbitt Hospital. She was one of the oldest residents of the Back Mountain.

Born at Evans Falls, the former Mary Moyer, daughter of the late Milton C. and Annette LaBar Moyer. When wedded to her first husband, Jacob Huey, she lived in Kingston. Some years after his death in 1911, she moved to Shavertown as wife of George DeWolfe, who died in 1939.

At her death, Mrs. DeWolfe had lived in Shavertown for 34 years. She had been in failing health for a year. A dedicated church woman, she attended Dorrance Methodist Church, carrying out the Christian precepts in her daily life.

During World War II, she knitted sedulously for the Red Cross, amassing more than 1,000 hours of work. She also crocheted, and exhibited skill in quilting.
