Reservations are in charge of Mrs. Clemson.

Mr. And Mrs. Wilfred Anderson To Celebrate 32nd Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Anderson, Holly Street, Trucksville, will observe their 32nd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, November 24.

Mrs. Anderson, the former Margaret Deining, Taylor, and Mr. Anderson were married at the Taylor P.M. Church by Rev. Joseph Mason.

They have resided in Trucksville for over two decades and have participated in many community endeavors. For a bit of relaxation they turn to quiet streams where both cast their lines with equal expertness.

Mrs. Anderson has been active in PTA, Football Mothers and the Trucksville Methodist Church, where she and her family are members. She is employed at Natona Mills.

Her husband, a long time employee of the Burroughs Company is a member of Trucksville Fire Company, its Civil Defense Unit and the Back Mountain Bowling Team.

There are five children: Mrs. Joan Barbuto, Trucksville; Wilfred, Jr., Poughkeepsie; Mrs. Carl Straley, Noxen; Mrs. John Brady, Trucksville and John, at home. Three grandchildren complete the family circle.

Christmas Crafts, Gift Ideas Highlight YWCA Homemaker Class

The YWCA Back Mountain Homemaker's Holiday Program held guest day last Tuesday. A soup luncheon was served and Chuck Bauer of Sears, Roebuck & Co. was guest speaker. The vacuum cleaner donated by Sears, Roebuck & Co. was won by Mrs. Edward Miles. The new series of classes begins November 16 and runs for eight weeks, four classes before the Holiday season and four after the first of the year. Classes are held every Tuesday morning in the Educational Building of the Shavertown Methodist Church. There is a supervised nursery for pre-schoolers.

Many of the classes in the pre-holiday series will help you to have a very Merry Christmas. There is a class in Christmas Crafts and Bazaar Ideas which will enable you to make fabulous holiday decorations and lovely Christmas gifts. There is also a special class called Holiday Fantasy that will teach you how to make Christmas candles, glamorous holiday tie ons for your Christmas boxes and luscious nut center pieces. If your desire is to have a sparkling new hat for those holiday parties join the millinery class or if you want a slim, trim figure to show off your holiday finery you may join the slimastics class. If you want to dress up your home for the gala season join the lampshade class.

The sewing class offers you an opportunity to make a glamorous gown for those holiday festivities. This series will give you an opportunity to improve your bridge game or to join an art class and give your friends a painting done by you as a most original Christmas gift. All in all this series is a must for the woman who cares.

Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary Plans Holiday Fair And Tea

Setting for the Fair and Tea of the Women's Auxiliary of Nesbitt Hospital, sponsored by the Shavertown Branch, will be held in the new Nurses Home, Kingston, which will be gaily decorated for the affair.

The date is December 1, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Tea and homemade cookies will be served, and a silver offering will be received.

On sale will be Christmas decorations, as well as a great variety of Christmas gifts. Many of the members will have an unusual display of arts and hobbies. There will also be a bake sale of delicious homemade bread, cinnamon rolls, cookies, cakes and fruit cake.

Each of the eight branches cooperating in the affair will have a separate booth at the Fair. Many local women belong to the Auxiliary, both from Shavertown and from the Centermoreland Branches.

Co-chairmen of the gay Christmas Fair and Tea are Mrs. Joseph Marsh and Mrs. William Brown. The public is cordially invited.

Breath-Taking Scenery In Slides Shown Book Club By Charles Nuss

Members of the Book Club enjoyed a program of colored slides shown by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nuss Monday afternoon at the November meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Nuss, recently returned from a visit to Berlin, had an opportunity to visit Switzerland, Austria, Lichtenstein, as well as England, taking pictures in color as they went.

Magnificent scenery of Austria recalled to many members the breath-taking backgrounds of "The Sound of Music," where Austria is the backdrop for one of the best musicals in years, outclassing in the opinion of many people "My Fair Lady."

The Book Club program followed a routine business meeting, which saw officers reelected for the coming year, and no change made in the present schedule which eliminates meetings during the most severe months of winter.

Mrs. George Montgomery retains the presidency. Mrs. George Jacobs is vice president, Mrs. Herman Thomas treasurer, Mrs. James Alexander secretary.

At a tea table vivid with fall coloring, Mrs. Stanley Rinehimer and Mrs. James Alexander poured for:

Mesdames Wesley Steelman,

Charles Gates, C. A. Coughlin, Floyd Sanders, A. D. Whitebread, T. B. Bobo, Thomas J. Graham, Peter D. Clark, W. B. Jeter, Harold Titman, Richard Rudolph, Mitchell Jenkins, Frank Townend, Roy Flick, A. G. Rutherford, Ornan Lamb, Ben H. Edwards, George Gregson.

Glen Roman Kozemchak

Glen Roman Kozemchak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozemchak celebrated his eighth birthday with a party for some of his classmates at his home on Overbrook Avenue on Saturday afternoon.

The children had various games to play in which the winners received prizes. They also enjoyed playing army with their guns in the back yard. The boys presented Glen with some very nice gifts.

Present at the party were Larry Parsons, James Myak, Jeffrey Lingle, Scott Slocum, Greg Kuhnert, Paul Lavitsky, Cliff Kozemchak and the guest of honor.

Shannon Children, Home

John, eight, Tara, five and Kevin, two, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon, Wyoming Avenue, have returned home after being patients at General Hospital last week. The children, all suffering from a virus, were in the same room while hospitalized. Their parents were very glad and thankful when the trio returned home.

David Burton Roat

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roat, Jr., Carverton Road, Trucksville, became the parents of a seven pound, three ounce son, David Burton, November 8, at Nesbitt Hospital. There is another son, Harry, III, four. Mrs. Roat is the former Jacqueline Perry, Greenwood. Mr. Roat is employed with Roat's Supply, Kingston.
