Rev. And Mrs. Charles Gilbert Celebrate 48th Anniversary

One of the Back Mountain's best known couples, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mt. Zion, celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary on November 14.

The couple were wed at the home of the bride's sister in Binghamton by the late Rev. Stephen Hancock. Mrs. Gilbert was the former Ruth Diamant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Diamant and was born in Buckingham, Pa.

Rev. Gilbert was born in Binghamton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Eugene Gilbert and attended Binghamton Schools. He graduated from Wyoming Seminary and attended Western University, Conn., and Boston University. His first charge was at Slaterville Springs, N. Y. He served the Carverton, Orange, Mt. Zion parishes, from 1936 to 1946 and retired in 1959, his last church being Pittston Methodist.

Since retirement, Rev. Gilbert has led an active life as previously and has served as chaplain at Valley Crest since its opening and serves as supply pastor in many of the local churches.

His favorite hobby is writing and how well he succeeds at this pastime is evidenced by his wide scope of readers who look forward to his articles and column which appears weekly in the Dallas Post. As another outlet, he prepares and edits the Gilbert Story which relates the doings of daughter Dottie, a missionary in the Congo.

He shares with his wife and daughters a love of flowers, animals and the great outdoors, instilling an admiration for all forms of life in his readers and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert returned to this area upon his retirement and the Back Mountain has been happy over their decision. Two daughters were born to the Gilberts, Dorothy, R.N., in Africa, and Catherine, a talented member of the Dallas Post staff.
