Many Local Youngsters Feted By Daddow Isaacs Post

Over 300 children of Dallas area enjoyed a visit with Santa on Saturday afternoon when Daddow Isaacs Post played host at a Christmas Party held at the Legion Home on Memorial Highway.

Games were played and prizes awarded and all the little ones received gifts from Santa, plus stockings and refreshments. Paul Shaver, who annually serves as chairman of the big event, produced a gala celebration for the youngsters. They were entertained by a jolly clown and Al Camp led carol singing.

After the party, members of the Post carried 65 stockings filled with goodies to the children's wards of Nesbitt Hospital.

Best Wishes for Christmas

At this joyous time, when hope and good spirits are high, we express appreciation for your continued loyalty, and wish you the best of everything for Christmas as always. Thank you.
