

Harveys Lake Woman's Club Pack Many Cheer Baskets For Holiday

One of the outstanding endeavors of the Harveys Lake Woman's Service Club is their Christmas project. This year the ladies packed 200 cheer baskets for the same number of people, shut-ins and the elderly. In addition they distributed 50 gift packages containing personal items to local convalescent homes. Ten food orders replete with toys went out to that many needy families. Mrs. Lucy Traver heads the big project, a magnificent undertaking. She is pictured above at the far left with her committee: Rita Pilger, Leona Oberst, Mildred Garinger, Pauline Davis, Jean Jones, Ret. Nelson, Catherine Clark, Grace Sear foss, Joyce Youron, Esther Armitage, Helen Crispell, Mildred Lutes, Dorothy Dodson, Ruth Vaskas, Mary Engler, Ferne Smith, Treva T. Sorchik, president.

Baskets and orders were packed Saturday at Ruggles Methodist Church and delivered that same afternoon. The Harveys Lake Woman's Club performs many acts of service to it's community, keeping a busy schedule all around the year, but the Christmas program tops them all in generosity, kindness and love for their fellowmen.

Mrs. Mary Rose Connolly Will Be 82 On Christmas

To all those who have the pleasure of her acquaintance, Mrs. Mary Rose Connolly is a delightful companion and a real old fashioned neighbor.

Mrs. Connolly, who will celebrate her birthday on Christmas, comes of sturdy stock and despite the loss of her husband many years ago has raised a fine family of three girls and a boy.

A former resident of Wilkes-Barre, the Back Mountain has been her home for some time now since she came to reside with her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stanley at 39 S. Pioneer Avenue, Trucksville.

All the family looks to her visits as she divides her time between all of its members and the grandchildren love her.

Born in Pittston, she is the former Mary Rose Smith. Her children, Mrs. Stanley, John, Dallas; Mrs. Evelyn Dwyer, Larksville; Mrs. Esther Flanigan, Yonkers, N. Y., will gather Christmas Day to enjoy the holiday and celebrate her birthday. Her sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. George Redington, Bear Creek, will join the family group and seven grandchildren will extend greetings to their favorite person.

Mrs. Connolly is a member of St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

Mr. And Mrs. C. Morris King To Mark 48th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. Morris King, E. Center Street, Shavertown, will celebrate their 48th wedding anniversary on December 27.

The former Bessie Thomas and Mr. King were married at LaPorte by Rev. Van Davis.

A native of Nordmont, Mr. King taught school for many years in the Back Mountain area. He is a former Scoutmaster and many of the local youngsters have enjoyed trips to Nordmont, site of his family home. Summers find Mr. King out in that area, looking after the trees and woodlands near by. The couple were the parents of six children, Ernest, Dallas; Mrs. Dorothy Breeden, Falls Church, Va.; Mrs. Mary Stanko, Old Bridge, N. J.; Mrs. Alberta Reilly, Arlington, Va.; Earl, Shavertown, and James, Stroudsburg. There are also 14 grandchildren.

Tally May Thomas Wed In December Ceremony

MRS. JAMES L. SHIELDS

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Thomas, 79 Norton Avenue, Dallas, announce the recent marriage of their daughter Tally May to James J. Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Shields, 13 Korn St., Kingston. The couple were united in marriage Saturday, December 4, in Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas, by Rev. Michael Rafferty. Mrs. George Decker was soloist accompanied by Miss Patricia Mastalski.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length sleeveless sheath gown of candlelight brocade featuring a removable full length coat designed with an aisle width court train attached at the shoulders. Her triple tiered veil of French illusion fell from a circular head piece completely covered with cut flowers of matching candlelight brocade. She carried an ikiban styled bouquet of pale green cymbidium on a Bible.

Mrs. Joseph W. Carlon, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She was attired in a full length gown of brass and green brocade styled with scooped neckline, elbow shy sleeves and modified A skirt. The waistline was accented by a moss green velvet ribbon. She wore a matching whimsy styled with a moss green bow and carried a Seiwka styled line of green with green toned Fugimuns.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. James C. Thomas Jr., sister in law of the bride; Miss Mary Beth Shields, sister of the groom; Miss Sandra Jane Tait of Rochester, cousin of the bride. The attendants were attired in outfits similar to the matron of honor.

John Thomas, brother of the bride was best man and ushers were James C. Thomas Jr., brother of the bride, Joseph Shields, brother of the bridegroom and Michael Brush, fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride selected a pink-colored pure silk ensemble enhanced with a beaded shell, matching accessories and a corsage of mahogany toned cypradidiums.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a two piece gold mylar knit ensemble fashioned in a tunic silhouette. She wore brown accessories and a brown orchid corsage.

A reception followed at the Mansfield Ballroom. The couple went on a wedding trip to the Mid Western States. For going away the bride chose a gold imported knit dress trimmed with brass and a taupe suede coat featuring a fox collar.

The bride is a graduate of West Side Central Catholic High School and W. B. General Hospital School of Nursing. She holds a bachelor of science degree in nursing from College Misericordia. She was employed at W. B. General Hospital.

Mr. Shields an alumnus of West Side Central Catholic High School, Wyoming Seminary Preparatory School, received a bachelor of arts degree from Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. At present he is a lieutenant in the United States Army Corps of Engineers. He will be stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mrs. Shields was feted at a number of pre-nuptial parties given by her attendants, Mrs. Richard Murphy and Mary Beth Shield and by an aunt, Mrs. Alex Dmuhoski.

A SINCERE THANK YOU

I wish to thank all my friends, neighbors, physicians, nurses and relatives for their many acts of kindness while I was in the hospital and during my convalescence.

I sincerely appreciate the many cards, flowers and telephone calls I received and they aided in my recovery.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL.

Sincerely,

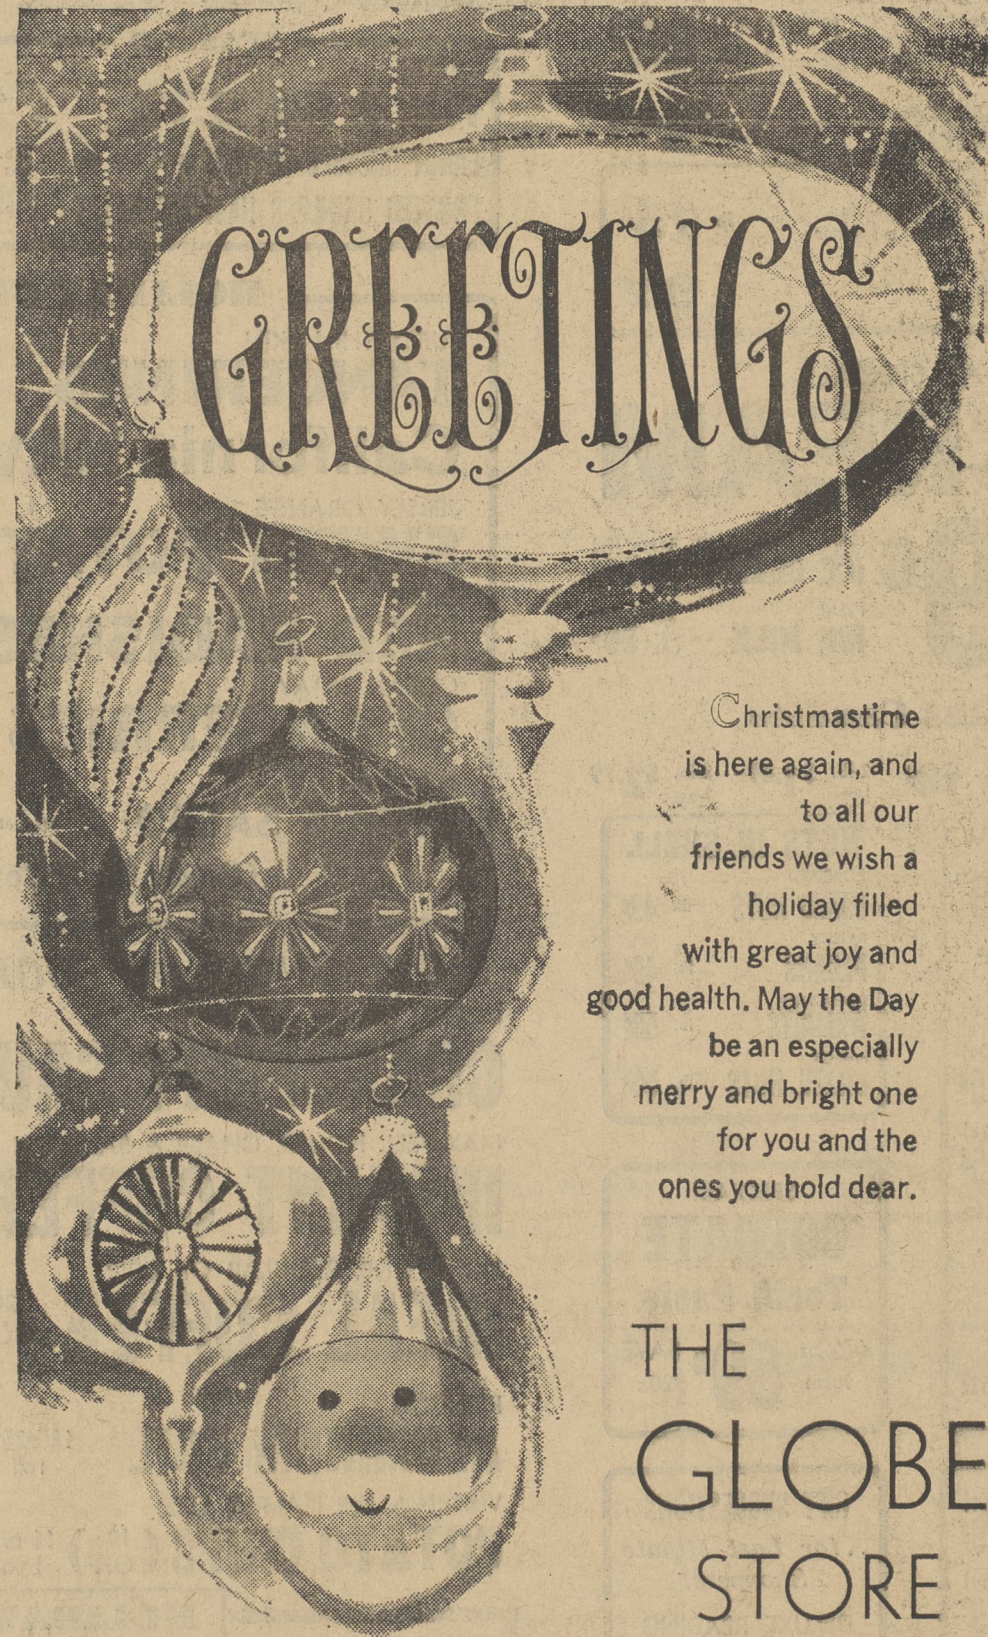

M. LILLIAN HILDEBRANT
