East Dallas

"HAPPY NEW YEAR" is the greeting that we now hear, as "MERRY CHRISTMAS" is laid away until next year. What a wonderful time was enjoyed when families gathered together, in the old homesteads. Some of the older folk joined their children and their families, as children like to be at home with their new Christmas presents.

I was one of the "old folk" who, along with my sister, Mary Lind, Bloomfield, N. J., who is spending the holidays with me, enjoyed Christmas dinner with my daughter Miriam Dymond and her family. Miriam and Ted, Mary and I, then visited my other daughter, Priscilla Krum and family. Of course we had spent the morning with my son Bob and family; I can tell you children certainly make the holidays enjoyable. We ate supper with Priscilla, Sherwood and young Howard. Between Bob's, Miriam's and Priscilla's children, there could be nothing but happiness.

John Mokyehic was happy to be home; to at least spend Christmas with his wife Betty Jane and his mother Nettie Mokyehic. But it was too short a time, as he had to leave Sunday for Port Gordon, Ga. He is expecting to be home again in fourteen days, the end of his basic training. Then???

Candle-light service was observed in East Dallas Church Christmas Eve, with so many present who had been away for a time and were glad to be back to worship with old friends. One I was especially glad to see and welcome back was Mrs. David Kulp, the former Nancy Congdon of Demunds Road. She will be at home with her parents for the next year or so, while her husband is in South Asia, with the Air Force. So glad to have you back, Nancy.

Recognition of Students was observed by Reverend Hockenbury in East Dallas Church, Sunday morning, as follows: John Mokyehic, in the marines, John H. Phillips, Army, Leslie Dickson, Marines, Roger Congdon, Navy, Thomas Heslop, in Germany, Charles Miller, Philadelphia, Daniel Congdon, California, Inez Ryman, who will enter Penn State College in January, and Diana Pickett, Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

New members taken into the church were Fred Hughey, who was unable to take his vows in church. But did so in his home with Rev. Hockenbury; also Mr. and Mrs. Philip Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin spent their first Christmas away from this home area, with daughter Peggy Bloomer and family in West Chester.

Noxen Girl Scouts Carol Before Christmas Party

Noxen Girl Scout Troops 648 and 651 went Christmas Caroling through Noxen on Wednesday, December 22nd. After caroling, the girls met at the Sportsman's Hall and had their Christmas party. Games were played and gifts exchanged.

Those who attended were Donna Murphy, Linda Patton, Janice and Millie Traver, Roxanne Keefe, Judy Lee, Julie Scott, Rose Biggs, Mary Ann Zacharros, Linda Swire, Dorothy and Linda Weaver, Marcella Blizzard, Marie Blizzard, Paula Smith, Linda Evans, Nancy Thompson, Roberta Murphy, Laura Boston, Diane Johns, Doris Parrish, JoAnn Zaleskas, Candy Jones, Mrs. Pearl Biggs, Mrs. Betty Smith and Mrs. Nellie Scouten.
