Pastor Honored As He Celebrates 94th Birthday

REV. AND MRS. JOHN J. JONES

On Wednesday, January 12th, one of the oldest residents in the Back Mountain, celebrated his birthday. Rev. John J. Jones, Uncle John to his many friends, was 94 years of age.

Always an active man in the Lord's work, he was actively engaged in the ministry until he suffered a fall two years ago resulting in a broken hip and shoulder. After he recuperated he once again became active in the Shavertown Bible Church where he and his wife, affectionately known as Auntie Mae, attend every service. Rev. Jones teaches the adult Bible Class each Sunday morning at 10, and supplies the pulpit in the absence of the pastor.

The pastor of Shavertown Bible Church, Rev. R. W. Edmondson, in the Sunday Morning Service, presented Rev. Jones with a gift from the congregation, of a dollar for every year, with several dollars in addition.

Everyone wishes him continued health and strength in the years to come.

Mrs. Emma Phillips, Shavertown Marks 98th Birthday January 11

One of the oldest living residents of the Back Mountain celebrated her 98th birthday on Tuesday, January 11.

Mrs. Emma Phillips, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Ribotski, Lincoln Drive, Shavertown, is remarkable for her years. Alert to everything about her, she watches television and reads to keep abreast of the day's events.

Although unable to move about too easily, she rises every morning to sit in her favorite chair and is a pleasant companion for her daughter, neighbors and visitors.

Mrs. Phillips is the former Emma Klein of Wilkes-Barre. She moved in with her daughter following the death of her husband 32 years ago and has lived in the Back Mountain for the past thirty years.

Six sisters and a brother comprised her family but all are now deceased except her brother, Frank Klein, Kingston, who is 79 and the baby of the family. Mr. Klein and his wife visited Mrs. Phillips on Monday along with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Case of Kunkle.

On Sunday, Mrs. Phillips had as callers, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer and Mrs. Lilly Parsonage. Our birthday celebrant retains her membership at Memorial Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre, of which she has been a long time member.

Mr. And Mrs. Thomas H. Morgan To Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morgan, 471 N. Pioneer Avenue, Dallas, will observe their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday, January 19th, and will be honored by a dinner that evening, given by their two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were married on the 19th of January, 1916, in Wilkes-Barre, by the late Rev. William J. Hill of Johnson City, N.Y., an uncle of Mrs. Morgan. In addition to their daughters, Mrs. Leonard W. Bruce of Dallas, and Mrs. Harold M. Wade, Boston, they have two grandsons, Harold and Thomas Wade, also of Boston.

Mrs. Morgan is the former Catherine Love, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Love Sr., of Wilkes-Barre.

Prior to his retirement in 1958, Mr. Morgan was affiliated with the Wyoming Valley Taxpayers Association, as a special agent, for over thirty years.
