Nine Miles Around

by RED CARR

Lake Township Board of Supervisors is still looking for special police candidates, and applications are to be had from Township Secretary John Stenger. For some reason or other, potential policemen have been in short demand, although it's a paying proposition. On last advertisement, only one applicant responded.

If you think you might like police work, get an application from John, and be sure to indicate hours you will be available for service.

A party, benefit of the Ambulance Fund, is slated for 8 p.m., February 16, at Hanson's Amusement Park.

Plans are being completed for the party now, according to Bud Hoblak. A beautiful handmade quilt, pillow cases, and many other items donated by friends, will be chanced off at the party, at which firemen and auxiliary will assist.

Some observers believe that the Lake Borough movement's chances have been dimmed by threat of a Lehman Township appeal on the case, by virtue of the fact that the seemingly critical term "freeholder residing" was not defined at the outset, to determine whether the court actually had any jurisdiction. Court had said that all it needed for jurisdiction was that petitioners said in good faith they had a majority on their side, and then it was up to the townships to disprove it.

Lehman Township authorities say on the q.t. that the borough boys know they don't have a majority at that end of the lake if it gets down to defining residence in terms of permanence or year-round.

However, the borough boys aren't looking down in the mouth these days either. So it's nice when everybody's confident.

And hey, suppose the townships (and, if and when, and worse yet, the "borough") decide to advertise intention to pass a wage tax in defense of its residents against the one in Wilkes-Barre.

Just imagine what the complications will be arising from the term "resident" then. And who will go on record as living at the Lake and who will go on record as living in the city to determine who would get the wage tax? And how will that be reconciled with the borough petitions?
