

Dallas Senior High School News

by Elva Costello and Robert Graham

Tuesday was a horrible day—in fact, I shutter when I think of it. That day, pictures were taken for the Dal-Hi Yearbook. Photos were taken of all classes, clubs, and activities. Instead of staid, Nazi-like, stand-up poses of all, some experiments were tried with candid shots. Advisors for photographs are Miss Morris and Mr. Evans.

During the past week, the Seniors were measured for their caps and gowns in preparation for the soon-approaching June Graduation. Representatives were at Dallas this past week from both Keuka College and the Marine Corps.

Patriots' Day
Tomorrow, a Patriots' Day Assembly will be held by the Drama Club. Included in the program will be dramatic readings, workshop plays, and an original (but patriotic!) musical comedy play by Howard Weiner and Robert Graham. Faculty Advisor is Mr. Donald Hopkins. Included in the cast are: Tom Harris, Mike Wilkes, Constance Blazes, Bill Kyle, Bill Nothoff, Arthur Dale, Barbara Kyle, Howard Weiner, and Robert Graham.

Student Teachers
The high school has been fortunate enough to have the honor of hosting eight student teachers from College Misericordia. We decided to interview each of these young women and give their opinions and a brief history of each to you.

She feels that the school is well organized and that it has a very pleasant atmosphere. Her future plans are unsure as yet.

Working with Mr. Husband in the Biology Department is Miss Beverly Stanton. She is originally from Gettysburg, Penna. and graduated from Delone Catholic High School in McSherry Stone, Penna. Her activities include presidency of the Mendel Science Club, head of the Booster Club; the MAA, the CSMC, an education club, and the Residents Club. Physical science is her related field. She feels the students are nice and courteous.

In secretarial sciences with Miss Sullivan is Miss Dorothy Fenton from New Columbia, Penna. Miss Fenton graduated from Lewisburg High School. Her mother is in business secretarial work. She is on the staff of "Miss Recordia" and likes to sew. Her future will lie in either the business or education field.

Miss Barbara Breslin is teaching mathematics under Mr. Augustine's direction. She graduated from West Philadelphia Catholic Girls' School in Philadelphia, Penna. Her related field is German. Sewing and the mathematics club are her activities.

English major, Miss Karen Smith, is teaching senior English with Miss Foley. A native of Honesdale, Pa., she graduated from Honesdale Junior-Senior High School. Student Council, Varsity Basketball, The Literary Club, The Miss Recordia, and the Athletic Association fill her busy activities schedule. Her related field is Latin. Teaching high school in Virginia is among her plans for the future.

News of Harveys Lake

Nine Miles Around

by RED CARR

Lehman Township Board of Supervisors, progressive in outlook as usual, have procured a new promotional letterhead boasting the recreational, educational, and residential advantages of Lehman Township. Letterhead was custom-designed by the Dallas Post printing department.

Supervisor from the South District of Lake Township Sharon Whitesell may be assailed because he didn't vote for a township planning Commission to be formed at this time, but frankly I'm inclined to agree with him that there isn't much point to it while the "Borough" court case is hanging.

And I'll go one better. I'll opine this as prospect of providing the pro-township forces with something going for them as a far-thinking governmental body in defense against the impressively organized Borough case is dim.

It has been accurately said that cases pro and con are now water under the dam. And also, the observer at the court hearings will tell you, in guarded understatement, that he has big doubts as to whether the judge was overwhelmed by testimony against the Borough.

So the sum total of these thoughts is that a blitz formation of a Lake Township Planning Commission would be as effective an element of persuasion as a martini at a camp meeting.

The court could hand down, tomorrow, a decision to the effect that the nays had it, and the townships would continue as is. The Planning Commission would then go ahead and zone the township (presently zoned by the county). But the Borough forces are in a hurry to get crackin', and it is possible too that the court may order creation of the Borough tomorrow.

On top of this dynamite keg we will have a Planning Commission trying to do an intricate dance.

Since the township has gone this long without a Planning Commission, and since the virtuosity of the dance may be severely injured by the silent underpinnings of dynamite, and since the lower districts may not really need zoning once the Lake is extrapolated, and since the court probably does not care at this point if Lake Township creates five planning commissions, Supervisor Whitesell's point is well taken.

A crackdown on illegal parking and speeding on Lakeside Drive is planned, and solons from two districts are leaning on the police to do something drastic about parking. Especially adamant is the supervisor from the Middle District, putting extra pressure on the police chief, it has been noticed. Also the supervisor from the North District has been counter-pressuring to make the crackdown absolutely universal, i.e., "all offenders".
