Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snowdon Jr. and family, Highland Avenue, left Wednesday by plane for Pompano, Fla., where they will spend some time.

Asher Weiss, Oak Stree, is convalescing at his home from an illness.

Jackson Township

On February 19, the residents of Jackson joined in a common endeavor. At 3 p.m. the firemen with their officers had a small ceremony in front of the fire hall, President Richard Holodick presenting a check for the new fire truck to Charles Frantz, resident of Jackson and owner of Ford Motor Trucks. Present at the mid-afternoon presentation were Frederick Dingle, President of the First National Bank of Wilkes-Barre; Willard Wright Sr. and Fred Fielding; Trustees of the company; Donald Jones, Assistant Fire Chief; Steve Krupinski, Vice President; Robert Cooper, Secretary, and the following firemen: Frank Fabian, Bert Ballet and Paul Snyder. The Ladies Auxiliary was represented by Mary Ashton and Freda Snyder. Leighton Scott of the Dallas Post took pictures. Behind the scene, Mr. Frantz presented the firemen with his generous donation to the drive.

At 6:30, the annual Firemen and Auxiliary Banquet was held. Ninety-six people were on hand to hear an excellent speech by the honorable Judge Bernard Brominski. The topic of the Judge's speech was "the ten sins of citizenship." All present were greatly impressed and if a pin were dropped it would have been heard. This, of course was also accompanied by the Judge's great sense of humor.

In his welcoming address, President Holodick asked for more active participation and thanked the residents of the township for their generous support in the drive for the new fire truck.

Fireman Gerald Bernstein, CPA, was called on to give his personal views of a "city boy" (being born and raised in Newark, N.J., and his first experiences in a small town, most hilarious being his first fire and his first square dance. Mr. Bernstein then introduced the Guest Speaker, Judge Brominski, giving a resume of the judge's past. Incidentally, the judge is a member of the Swoyersville Volunteer Fire Co.

All in all, Saturday, February 19, was a triumphant day for the residents of Jackson Twp. It helped to show that our small community is united in a common effort to move ahead.

On February 18, the board of supervisors held a special meeting to adopt the new zoning laws. Appointed were three adjusters: John Fielding, 1 yr.; Ed Mark, 2 yr.; Walter Glogowski, 3 yr. Chief of Police, Bob Cooper was appointed as zoning officer. This is a one-year appointment and the supervisors explained that it would be the duty of the zoning officer to report all his findings to this adjuster.

On the bowling scene this week, Jackson C, the underdog, takes a strong lead on B and A. Jackson A who played B took 2 out of 3 games moving ahead of B. C who played Sweet Valley B took 2 out of 3 to go into 2nd place in the fireman's league standing.

Euphemia Faltwater received word that her brother, Ferdinand, was gored by a bull in Spain while in the arena. It was reported he was doing fine.

Last Sunday, Chief Dale Wright held the first of his instructional classes on operating the new fire truck. It proved to be very successful. The men had the opportunity to drive the new truck and handle the apparatus. A fire was built so that the men would have the opportunity to use the high pressure hose and get the feel of it. This will continue every Sunday afternoon, weather permitting.

The Cub Scouts will hold their annual Blue and Gold Banquet at the Fire Hall tonight at 6:30 p.m. A covered dish supper will be served.

Lehman Cub Pack
Lehman Cub Pack 241 will hold its annual Blue and Gold Dinner (Father and Son) at the Lehman Methodist Church on Feb. 28 at 6:30 p.m.
