Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Mrs. Zeiser, 94, Leaves For Florida

"Pushing" 94, as they say, Mrs. H. H. Zeiser, 85 Huntsville Road, embarks on her annual trip to Florida, a custom she has followed for over a quarter of a century.

Mrs. Zeiser left on Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Leighton R. Scott, in the best of health and spirits, and concerned only with the welfare of those she left behind to weather the icy blasts of mid-winter Dallas.

Concern with the well-being of others is one of the secrets to a long life, one suspects upon marvelling at the fact that this woman, nearly 94, is still able to make thousand-mile trips with more ease than many young people. Of interest is the fact that Mrs. Zeiser, who is formerly from Wilkes-Barre and the widow of a well-known Superintendent of Schools there, has never been a patient in a hospital.

Mrs. Zeiser is vigorous and talkative, and a trip to Florida is deemed by her to be necessary for her health if only to stop her from doing housework for a while.

She has three children, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Howard W. Risley, and Bruce R. Zeiser, Providence, R.I., three grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.
