Richard Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wagner, has made the honor roll at Lake-Lehman for the second time this year. In seventh grade, Rick has been on the honor roll for the last three years. A member of the Junior Fireman's Association, the small freckle-faced boy has a personality twice his size. He is an excellent ping-pong player and gives the firemen a hard time at the sport.

In sixth grade, he took the Metropolitan achievement test and received the top grade in the Lehman jointure. Jackson Township firemen are proud of Rick's accomplishment.

The Wagners were also glad to hear from their son, Gerald Wagner SWSK, who has just returned from a tour of duty with the Navy. He served on the USS procyon which toured Japan, the Philippines, and Viet Nam. He is now at a California Naval Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner have twelve children, but still have time, even with such a large family to care for, to take active part in fire company and auxiliary.

Lake-Lehman band will hold their annual concert Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16, under direction of John Milauskas, at Lake-Lehman gym.

On the bowling scene, Jackson A has finally taken the lead on the three Jackson teams. Due to a hot night by Pete Yasur, who hit a 200-205 for A-538, and a new ringer, Steve Krupinski, who hit his first 200 for a 497, Jackson A was able to take 4 points to lead over C by one game. Jackson B is still 2 1/2 games behind C.

The ladies of the township will not be working at the firehall tonight because of a special cub scout event.

The homes of Mrs. Carlene Carey, Robert Domnick and the Walter Andrews are already decorated for Easter and most attractive.

A. A. Sinicrope was brought home on Saturday from Palmerton Hospital. He was admitted to General Hospital upon arrival. We hope he may soon return to his home.

That versatile gentleman, Tommy Andrews has now embarked on a photography career in addition to his teaching duties.

Mrs. Ray Malkemes was feted at a birthday dinner by most of her sisters and brothers last weekend. The entire family has been here to see her son Chuck, who is making progress but will have to wear that body cast for three months.

Mrs. Walter Shaver returned home on Friday after spending a delightful two month stay in Florida, during which time she visited Cape Canaveral and many points of interest.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ernest Whipp and family in their recent bereavement.

Robert, Voelker, Walter Gosart and Tommy Borthwick were among those students at Penna. State University who spent a week's leave at their homes.

Mrs. Raymond Chappell is recuperating at her home following surgery several weeks ago at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shaver and Mrs. Herman Van Campen returned home last week after touring Florida and many points of interest. It was in this southern pleasure resort that Dan and Vonnice spent their honeymoon and they noted many changes on this last trip. They traveled down the East Coast and up the West Coast encountering cold weather in Jacksonville but nicer temperatures as they neared Miami. Their southernmost point was at Homestead where they visited Earl Van Campen.

Miss Candy Poad, Lancaster, will arrive next week to spend her Easter recess with Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Evans.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clark Diltz in her recent loss.

What a nice honor Mrs. Edward Gilroy received for her many years of service to the Red Cross. No one was more deserving. Not only has she been most successful in procuring needed blood, but she has given innumerable hours to making life a little happier for our disabled war veterans, who are hospitalized.

Miss Marsha Sowden left this week for Pennsylvania State University where she has transferred from Syracuse University.

Everything is ready for Easter at the shops in our community. Evans and Hall's Drug Stores have the choicest candies and Back Mountain Lumber and Coal Company Gift Shop is just bulging with gorgeous centerpieces, even special ones for the kiddies, stuffed toys, candles, cards and gifts. Your Easter ham awaits you at Wally Gosart's and the Acme and McCrory's, Henry's, Eyer's and the clothing stores are well supplied with everything else you'll need for the holiday. Patronize your own merchants.

Noxen Fire Co. Auxiliary

Noxen Fire Company Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at 7:30 in the fire hall, to be joined at 8 by members of the Fire Company for discussions of plans for the Noxen Horse Show.

Omitted From Honor Roll

Inadvertently omitted from Dallas Senior High School Honor Roll were the names of Bonnie Mahler, twelfth grade, and Carol Mohr, eleventh.
