March Of Dimes Dance Draws Crowd Of 500

March of Dimes Dance, staged Friday night at Lake-Lehman for High School students of the Back Mountain, drew 500 enthusiastic dancers who wriggled, stomped and cheered their way through the intricacies of the Philly-Dog and the Boogaloo, occasionally reverting to the ancient history of the Watusi and the Twist.
 It was one of the two main money-raising efforts of the schools for support of the current March of Dimes.

The Student Council at Lake-Lehman was in charge of selling tickets, the Key Club in charge of the cloakroom.
 Members of the Lettermen's Club collected tickets at the door. The Junior class was in charge of the detail.
 Contributing its services gratis, was the combo, Mel Wynn and the Rhythm Aces.

Lake-Lehman PTA

March meetings of Lake-Lehman P.T.A. were held in the individual elementary buildings. Mrs. Leonard Selingo, area vice-president presided at the meeting held at the Lehman-Jackson School. Mrs. Martin Samuels of the Osterhout Library spoke on "Books and Your Child". She was introduced by Mrs. Gordon Dawe, president of the Lake Lehman P.T.A.
 Miss Hannah Culp accepted six record players, on behalf of the school. The record players were purchased with funds provided by the membership drive held annually in October. Each building in the school district received a percentage of the money collected in this drive.
 Robert Z. Belles, Supervising Principal, reported on the new Bookmobile which will soon be in use in the school district. Mrs. Frances Perrego's third grade class was awarded the membership banner for having the highest percentage of parents attending. The P.T.A. sponsored blood assurance program was explained and parents were asked to support the plan by contributing blood at the semi-annual collections.
 Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Mafuli, Mrs. Edward Belasco, Mrs. William Frey, Mrs. Glendora Shelnanski and Mrs. Michael Godek. Mrs. Godek, Hospitality Chairman, wishes to thank all mothers who helped her during the year.

CASH AND CHECKBOOK RESTORED

A checkbook and forty dollars in bills, found in Mrs. John Senchak's backyard on Overbrook Avenue two weeks ago, were restored to the rightful owner, Mrs. Catherine Nash, by the young man who discovered them, perilously close to the trash burner. Urged to accept a reward, Mrs. Senchak's son Fred refused. A run-down on the happening showed that Mrs. Nash's son had taken a shortcut across the Senchak yard on coming home from the bank, dropping cash and checkbook en route.
