Miss Diane Banta Engaged To Wed

Mrs. Dorothy U. Banta of Kensington, Md., announces the engagement of her daughter, Diane, to William Dayton Shelly, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Shelly of Thompson, Pa.

Miss Banta, who is also the daughter of Louis Banta of Pittston, R. D., is a graduate of Sibley Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Washington, D.C., and is presently employed as a registered nurse at Holy Cross Hospital, Silver Spring, Md. She also attends Catholic University, Washington, D. C., and has completed several semesters at the University of Maryland.

Mr. Shelly is presently with the army stationed at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., and upon completion of his army service will enter medical school.

Miss Banta is the granddaughter of Levi B. Updyke and the late Bertha R. Updyke of Trucksville. No wedding date has been planned.

Mrs. Nellie Wagner Is Hosted At 75th Birthday Dinner Party

Mrs. Nellie Wagner, Hill Street, Trucksville, who celebrated her 75th birthday on March 22, was honored at a family dinner, held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Clark, 48 Gordon Lane, Kingston.

Helping Mrs. Wagner to celebrate the special occasion were 28 members of her family, among them her twin sisters, Mrs. Arthur Long, Nanticoke and Mrs. Eva Rehill, Levittown, Pa. Both these ladies will mark their 79th anniversaries on May 29. Another sister, Mrs. Jennie LaBarr, Mooretown, who is 81, was also present at the festivities.

Mrs. Wagner, who has been a resident of Trucksville for the past ten years, came to the Back Mountain from Muhlenburg. She is the former Nellie Moss, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stiles Moss, Bloomingdale. Her husband, Miles Wagner, passed away 19 years ago.

Mrs. Wagner is the mother of five children, Arthur Wagner, Harveys Lake; Sheldon Trenton, N.J.; Mrs. Sarah Clark, Mrs. Helen Brodhead and Mrs. Marsha Campbell, all of Kingston. There are also ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

She is a member of Dorranceton Methodist Church.

Dallas Junior Woman's Club Plans "Night In Hawaii Luau"

An exciting event has been set by Dallas Junior Woman's Club for May 21 when "A Night In Hawaii Luau" will be the theme of their Spring Dinner Dance.

Committee for the affair met recently at the home of Mrs. Ralph Fitch, Jr., to complete arrangements.

The Hawaiian night will begin with Coconut Cocktails at 7 p.m. with a Luau buffet following and featuring a roast suckling. Dancing will follow. The dinner dance will be held at the Carousel Motel.

All reservations must be in by May 16 and anyone making reservations will be held responsible if they are not cancelled before the deadline date. No tickets will be issued with reservations payable at the door. Attire will be semi-formal.

Other committee members are Mrs. George Tattersfield, co-chairman; Mrs. Robert Scott, reservations; Mrs. Steven Vrabel, door chairman; Mrs. David Stevens, posters; Mrs. Robert Andrews, publicity.

Dallas Chapter, Eastern Star Honors Mrs. Jolley At Dinner

The 41st annual banquet of Dallas Chapter, 396, O.E.S., honoring the worthy matron, Mrs. Elsie Jolley, and the worthy patron, Dennis Bonning, Jr., was held at Irem Temple Country Club, Friday, April 1, at 6:30 p.m.

Tables were decorated with orchid and white pompons, silver bells and orchid tapers noting the Grand Chapter sessions of the Bells and the silver wedding anniversary of the worthy matron and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jolley.

Following the reception of guests by the Past Matrons the chairman of the banquet, Mrs. Bina Holdredge, welcomed members and guests after which the chaplain, Mrs. Layiah Martin, gave invocation.

Timely seasonal remarks were given by District Deputy Worthy Grand Matron of District 21-A, Mrs. Eleanor Witheridge of Wyoming, the Worthy Matron, and the Worthy Patron who were presented by the Toastmaster, Mrs. Betty Meeker.

The Dallas Chapter's Choir directed by Mrs. Virginia Swanson, provided several musical selections before and after the main address of the evening by Rev. Clifford Bound, pastor of the Luzerne Methodist Church, whose topic was "Bells as Instruments of Peace."

The evening of fellowship ended with dancing to the Merrimakers after group singing directed by Mrs. Virginia Swanson and accompanied by Mrs. Jean Holcomb.

Birthday Luncheon

Mrs. Ralph Brown, Parrish Street, Dallas, entertained Wednesday, March 3, at a luncheon, celebrating her birthday.

Present were Mesdames, G. S. Williams, Sallie Diehm, Carl Daubert, Don Paeglow, Miss Carol Williams and hostess.
