EXECUTIVE HEALTH

It isn't absolutely necessary for executives to have heart disease, ulcers and strokes, ailments commonly associated with American businessmen who reach the management level.

Further, these ailments are by no means limited to executives. They can affect almost anyone. A few suggestions offered by the Pennsylvania Medical Society to help executives preserve their health also can be applied readily to most Americans, regardless of level of employment.

Watch your weight. Strenuous diets usually aren't necessary. Just eat less.

Exercise. Golf is fine, if you enjoy it. But if you're one of the many who lose their tempers and get upset over every missed stroke, brisk walks will serve just as well as golf, probably better.

Take vacations. Real vacations, not just an occasional day or two. And plan your vacation so that there is time to relax and unwind.

Smoke less. Better still, quit smoking altogether, if you can. There is much debate about the effect of tobacco on health, but there is no argument on the premise that it doesn't do anything good for you.

Cut down on drinking. Two cocktails before dinner may be one too many. One might be too many for some people.

Get plenty of sleep. And try to sleep without the use of drugs, if at all possible.

Put business worries out of your mind as you leave the office. This sometimes is easier said than done. Perhaps you will need to get active in something else, such as the affairs of your church, to get your mind off your job.

April 27 Is Final Date For State Park Job Tests

The State Civil Service Commission announced April 27 as the final date to apply for examinations for park superintendents and park operations supervisors for the Department of Forests and Waters.

These positions exist in state parks throughout the Commonwealth. The salary ranges are from $7,055 to $12,675. Applicants for park superintendent II must be U. S. citizens, college graduates with major course work in engineering, forestry, park management, conservation, botany or zoology and have two years' responsible park management work. One year of graduate study in these related fields may be substituted for one year of required experience. Park operations supervisor and park superintendent III are open only to those qualified state employees with regular or probationary status.

The written test will be held at the following centers: Allentown, Altoona, Clearfield, Dubois, Erie, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, and Williamsport. Applicants will be notified about one week before the examination of the time and place to report.

Applications may be obtained from the Personnel Office, Department of Forests and Waters, Education Building, Harrisburg; State Civil Service Commission, Third Floor, South Office Building, Harrisburg; and local offices of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

for the future of the world rises when I see the many young people in our Back Mountain churches. At Idetown I was asked to baptize a sweet little almost two year old miss, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Casterline.

At the Jackson church the children's choir gave the special music which included a trumpet solo by one of the boys.

At the Lehman church was one of my former Valley Crest parishioners, Miss Kathryn Moore, now living with Mrs. Davenport. And at Idetown a former Valley Crest nurse, Mrs. Marilyn Smith who is now, I understand, a school nurse.

VALLEY CREST
 Last Thursday morning I gave Communion to 80 of my Protestant patients. And some of the nursing assistants. The nurses are most cooperative in arranging the patients for Communion.

SHAVERTOWN

Easter Day, long awaited through the winter months, has come and gone for another year. A week of activity has culminated.

The churches were alive with radiant Easter lilies lifting their heads towards the heavens as the choirs sang Hosannah to the Risen Lord.

The young confirmands partook for the first time of the bread and wine and missionaries from lands far distant brought messages from those they served. Families worshipped together sharing the joy of the beginning of the growing season.

The grass appeared greener and the tulips showed amazing growth during Holy Week, defying the elements in their haste to rear their bright heads above the thawing ground where they had nestled in Earth's bosom during their winter sleep. All life awakes and for those whom sadness has touched there is that glorious promise of the Resurrection to carry us on toward the fulfillment of our specific tasks. The Springtime indeed is here.

With the debut Wednesday of the Men's Chorus at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, a new musical organization has come into being.

Some years ago the Brotherhood was famous for its minstrels and concerts. Now a new group has come along and presented its first dynamic appearance. The audience was enthusiastic in its praise. Directed by that fine leader Gordon Wolverson, we hope to hear them more often. It was good to see Tom Hontz back at the organ as their accompanist.

The best of luck to you boys.

MEETING SOON
 A general meeting of plot owners of Evergreen Cemetery will be held in the very near future. The committee met with Atty. Mitchell Jenkins last week.

STAHL INJURED
 Awaiting a houseful of company for the Easter weekend, John Stahl went up Friday evening to John Carey's barn to care for his horse. Another animal became tangled in his ropes and in attempting to catch him, John fell, dislocating his right wrist.

In severe pain all night, he was taken to Nesbitt Hospital on Saturday morning where under sedation position and a cast applied. He will the member was put back in proper have to wear it for several weeks.

HERE AND THERE
 It seems that tragedy always strikes on or near a holiday and the community was saddened to learn of the untimely death of Olin W. Shaver. A handsome young man with a most promising future, our hearts go out in sincere sympathy to his grandmother, Mrs. Armina Woolbert, his wife, son, mother and the Shaver family. It was only several days before the accident that Olin and his family visited Mrs. Woolbert over the weekend.

Mrs. Margaret Dilz, that delightful little mother of Flossie Woolbert, underwent eye surgery last week at Nesbitt Hospital. With all that bounce and energy she possesses she came home on Saturday to be with her beloved family for the Easter celebration. Hers is the spirit that made America and its family life one to be proud of. We should have more like her. Daughter, Mrs. Ruth Mack, came in from Jersey City, to visit at the Woolbert home.

We were all happy to hear that A. A. Sinicrope was able to return home from General Hospital Saturday after being a patient both here and at Palmerton. He will have to take things easy for a while but is most happy to be home again with his family.

Mrs. Doris Olenick Nafus and sons flew to Wisconsin for the Easter holiday. In the meantime, brother Jim and his wife came in from Hartford, Conn., to spend a welcome weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Olenick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart, Saxton, Pa., have moved to Chicago, Ill., where he is associated with Pioneer Engineering Corporation as a consultant.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans and children, Newington, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Stahl, Oscoda, Michigan, were holiday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl.

Mrs. Verna Domnick and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pikerowski, Boyertown and children were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Domnick and family.

Barbara and Dorothy Curtis, East Brunswick, N. J., joined their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtis and brother John, senior at Scranton University, for the Easter holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart had as weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brace and Virginia, Hyattsville, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Binghamton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Earl and John Thomas, New Jersey, joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hontz for the holiday.

Mrs. Byron Kitchen left last week to visit her son, Arthur at Santee, Cal. Mr. Kitchen returned several weeks ago after making a similar trip to the West Coast and Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hontz, Philadelphia, were the guests of his mother, Mrs. Anna Dressel, Harold and Mae Ash and Obed and Minnie Hontz for Easter.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederic Eidam left Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sterner at Allentown. Mrs. Sterner was stricken ill on Saturday evening.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late John Sosik. Mr. Sosik had been a resident here a long time.

Mrs. Myrtle Decker returned to the home of her niece, Mrs. Dena Campbell, last week from General Hospital, where she had been admitted earlier after suffering injuries from a fall.

Mrs. Edward Roberts is a patient at General Hospital.

This weekend was a happy one for Freddie when his longtime friend and former classmate at Lutheran Bible Institute and Augustana College, Robert Allard, New Hampshire, with wife, Elsa and son, Mark came in from the Lutheran Seminary, Philadelphia, to spend the weekend. Also dropping in was Larry Krumpaltd, Buffalo, N. Y., to make it a regular reunion of former classmates at LBI.

Fritzie rose early to attend the Sunrise Service with his parents and company and then up to our house where Auntie Sae and Uncle Bill, in from Maryland, had fashioned his first Easter basket and brought him a big stuffed bunny.

Quite naturally he was excited about it all and a tiny visitor in his home. How much joy he brings to us all. It was indeed a good Easter.
